

CITY WATER PURE

Prof. Olney Makes Careful Analysis of Samples

There is nothing the matter with Lowell's water. The supply is perfectly pure and the consumer need have no fears as to lurking germs or poisonous substances. The fact that families in Fletcher street were poisoned was responsible for the spread of the alarm that the water was bad.

Immediately upon being apprised of the trouble in Fletcher street, Supt. Thomas of the water department sent samples of the water to Prof. Olney who found that it had been affected by ordinary bluing. In some way the bluing must have been conveyed to the vessels that were used for drinking purposes.

There are a great many complaints received off and on at the office of the water board relative to the rusty or riley condition of the water in different sections of the city.

Asked as to these complaints, Clerk Crawford of the board said: "We have received on an average of about two complaints a day about riley and rusty water. This is caused by the watering carts and the trolley sprinklers. The trolley sprinkler takes a great volume of water, and there is always more or less disturbance in the pipes when a trolley sprinkler is being filled."

The result of Prof. Olney's analysis of the water sent him by Supt. Thomas was as follows:

PROF. OLNEY'S FINDING.
Lowell, Mass., July 27, 1908.
Robert J. Thomas, Esq., Supt. Lowell Water Works, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir:—I have made a thorough examination of the Lowell city water, taken by me in your presence Saturday afternoon, July 25th, 1908, from the faucet in the kitchen of one of the tenements at 332 Fletcher street, and find it to be free from lead, copper, zinc, and other poisonous metallic compounds, and to be perfectly normal.

A continuous boiling of this water during a period of four hours, and an exposure to direct sunlight during a period of twelve hours, did not develop the blue coloration described to us by certain residents of the Fletcher street tenement, neither did the examination of the water give evidence of the presence of any substance which could have caused such a coloration to develop.

The sample of bluish colored liquid, which was delivered to me by you Saturday afternoon, July 25th, 1908, in an 8-ounce bottle, and which was said to have been drawn from the same faucet as the aforesaid water, but by a resident of the tenement, and then exposed to the sunlight, was found to contain a coloring matter, which was apparently a coal-tar dyestuff of the acid type. Accompanying this report will be found a small piece of wooden material which has been dyed with a portion of the coloring matter obtained from this sample. Such a coloring matter is frequently used as a bluing material for white clothes, and is also sold by druggists in a dry powdered form as one of the Diamond dyes.

The nature of the blue spots and stains upon the clothes exhibited at

SUPT. ROBERT J. THOMAS,
Lowell Water Dept.

the Fletcher street tenement, were of such a character as to indicate that they were formed by small particles of some undissolved blue coloring matter having come in contact with the clothes while in a tub, or by a similar coloring matter having been blown in the powdered form over the clothes as they hung upon the line, or elsewhere in a damp condition.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) L. A. Olney.

PARENT RESCUED

He Became Exhausted While Bathing

Francis McLeer of Whiting street saved Albert Parent from being drowned in the waters of the Merrimack river near the Moody street bridge yesterday afternoon about three o'clock.

Parent and a number of his companions had been in swimming for quite a while when Parent started his intention of swimming across the river and back without stopping. None of his companions cared about accompanying him as they did not believe they would be able to perform the feat, so Parent started alone.

He crossed the river and was about half way back when he became exhausted and throwing up his hands disappeared. McLeer, who was standing on the shore, went to his rescue and with rapid strokes was soon at Parent's side, but just as he was about to make a grab for Parent, the latter went under for the second time.

When the half drowned young man came to the surface again McLeer held him and towed him to shore. After considerable rolling about and slapping, the young man was able to get a great deal of the water out of Parent's stomach and a little later he was able to walk to his home.

TO GRAND JURY

Brennan Charged With Breaking and Entering

James C. Brennan was arraigned in police court before Judge Pickman this morning on a complaint charging him with breaking and entering and attempting to commit larceny. After the testimony had been submitted probable cause was found and Brennan was held under $400 bonds for the grand jury.

According to the testimony offered Brennan entered the restaurant conducted by Henry A. Roberts at 349 Middlesex street on the night of the 24th of July. When he got in through a rear window he fell into the hands of Mr. Roberts and the latter's son-in-law. Patrolmen John Clark and Ingalls were also lying in wait for him and he was arrested. Brennan's defense was that his wife was sleeping in a room in the building and that he entered the place in order to see her.

Henry A. Roberts, the owner of the restaurant, said that he was lying in wait for Brennan as he had suspected him of entering the place on previous occasions. About eleven o'clock Brennan opened a window in the rear of the restaurant and entered. On cross-examination witness said he had known Brennan for 15 or 16 years and that the latter's wife was in his company and slept in a room over the restaurant. Mr. Roberts said that Brennan after entering the place offered no resistance stating that he desired to see his wife.

Joseph McInness, a son-in-law of the previous witness, testified.

Patrolman John Clark said that as a result of what had been told him he was on the lookout for Brennan and about half an hour before the latter made an entrance he (Clark) had tried all the windows and found them locked. Shortly after Brennan entered the place Clark put in an appearance.

Brennan testified that he went in to see his wife. He entered by means of the rear window because the front door was locked. He denied, however, that the window was locked, stating that it was open about four inches from the bottom. He also acknowledged that he had entered the building the night before.

Deputy Welch then produced a number of papers showing that Brennan had been convicted of larceny and the latter did not deny the allegations. Probable cause was found and he was held for the grand jury.

MISSING BANDITS

Police Keep Up Search for Them

BOSTON, July 28.—Again today the police of Boston began their hunt for the missing bandits who have kept the Jamaica Plain section of the city in constant dread ever since the shooting up of the saloon there last Tuesday night and the subsequent pistol battle on the following Wednesday night and Thursday morning.

BOSTON, July 28.—Engineers on the city ferries which ply between the city and East Boston went out on a strike today following a refusal by Supt. Emerson had previously arranged for men to fill all vacancies. The strike was begun quietly and though the police were on hand their services were not needed.

PRES. ROOSEVELT

Wants to Meet American Athletes

OYSTER BAY, July 28.—President Roosevelt yesterday wired congratulations to James L. Sullivan, United States commissioner to the Olympic games, London, in reply to the message which Mr. Sullivan sent to the president, acquainting him with the success of the American athletes who won 15 first prizes out of a possible 25, scoring more first than the athletes of the entire world. The president's reply is as follows:

"Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 27.
"James L. Sullivan, United States commissioner to the Olympic games, London. 'Hearty' congratulations to you and team. Wish I could shake hands with each man."
—Theodore Roosevelt.

It is not unlikely that the president will have his wish gratified, as he is considering the advisability of meeting the victors to Oyster Bay upon their return.

Brought Against Man Who Collected Another's Bill

Gaming Machine Taken From a Barber Shop on Middlesex Street

Frederick Devany pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with the larceny of $15, the property of John Tomassi, on the 15th day of June. It seems that Edward W. Devany, a brother of the prisoner, who is a plumber, did some work for Tomassi and the bill amounted to $15. Frederick Devany, who is also a plumber, knew that the bill had not been collected and calling upon Tomassi stated that his brother had sent him to collect the money. Tomassi paid the money over and then Frederick started out to spend the money. The brother to whom the money was due heard of the transaction and gave Tomassi a receipted bill. The case was continued for a week.

Thomas Egan, a parole man, will be returned to the state farm. William Rongeau, a second offender, was fined $5, one first offender was taxed the usual $2 and four simple offenders were released without appearing in court.

SEIZED GAMING MACHINE. Inspector LaFamme and Sgt. Duncan called at the barber shop conducted by Joseph Gregoire at 235 Middlesex street this morning and seized a game machine. This machine was taken to the police station and Gregoire will be summoned into court during the present week.

The machine in question is one of those old fashioned gaming machines in which cents are placed and then a spring pushed and poker hands are turned up, and if the cards show one pair or better, cigars are given the player, the number of cigars being in accordance with the value of the hand.

The Watch & Ward society of this state assisted by the local police are making a crusade against these gambling machines.

There will be meetings galore at the city hall this evening. The board of aldermen will hold an adjourned meeting, the common council will meet in regular session, the water board will meet and there will be meetings of the committees on wires and printing.

Mayor Farnham will not send the name of his private secretary, Edward Chancy, to the board of aldermen this evening to have his appointment to the office of superintendent of milk and vinegar confirmed. "Will you appoint Mr. Chancy today?" was asked and his honor replied: "No, not today. The business of the office of inspector of milk and vinegar is being carried on very satisfactorily and I do not see that there is any need of an immediate change."

SIGNED $25,000 ORDER.

Mayor Farnham has affixed his signature to the loan order of $25,000 for the paving of Middlesex street to Garnet street. Speaking of the order, the mayor said: "I considered it very carefully before affixing my signature. I talked with prominent citizens and business men and they were a unit in declaring that it would be money well spent. I know myself that Middlesex street is in a horrible condition and feel that I was justified in signing the order. It will mean work for a goodly number of men and there are hundreds of men in the city who want work."

Haverhill Boy is Held on Charge of Manslaughter

HAVERHILL, July 28.—Fifteen-year-old John W. Greenleaf, Jr., was arrested yesterday afternoon by City Marshal Mack, charged with manslaughter in shooting his 10-year-old companion on a pigeon hunting trip yesterday. Thomas Morrison, a ward of the state board of charity, was the victim. Young Greenleaf admits the shooting, but says it was accidental, and the police and medical examiner do not dispute his claim. He is out on $3000 bail.

When neighbors of the East parish reached the Dresser pasture they found the body of young Morrison, his clothes as from the powder charge and a wound in his right breast made by a full charge of shot. Dr. Wager of Groveland found a faint pulse, but the boy died a moment later. Young Greenleaf's story of the shooting is in part corroborated by his father, former Councilman John W. Greenleaf of Kenosha street, as well as by Mrs. Hillard Hale with whom Morrison lived.

The police version of the shooting is that young Morrison went with Greenleaf to the pasture in the rear of their homes and that the underbrush struck the trigger of the double-barreled shot gun, snapping it and causing an explosion of a charge of powder and bird shot, both of which entered the Morrison boy's breast on the right side, while the powder from the powder pan on the weapon was blown into young Greenleaf's body, though he is not injured.

The Dresser pasture is in the rear of the Greenleaf home. Pigeons and crows have damaged the corn crops about there. Young Greenleaf and Morrison went out after them, Greenleaf carrying a double-barreled gun. The two boys hid in a clump of bushes waiting for the birds. Greenleaf cocked the gun on one barrel. After they had waited some time, Greenleaf got up. Morrison was at his side and the gun rested across his arm as he started to make his way from beneath the bushes. He says he warned Morrison for the second time to be careful and keep in the rear, but the boy paid no heed and Greenleaf, intent on warding off the bushes as he crouched and made his way through them, paid no further attention to him, believing him safe in the rear.

There was an explosion and the gun recoiled against Greenleaf's side and as quickly as the smoke cleared away he turned to see what had become of his companion. A crashing sound in the bushes near him indicated that the boy had either dodged back or had fallen.

When Greenleaf saw his companion lying on the ground he said: "Tommy, are you dead?" and as there was no answer he ran from the scene to spread the alarm. The first person he met was James Holt, to whom he shouted that he had shot Tommy Morrison. The story soon spread and neighbors hurried to the scene of the shooting.

Medical Examiner Croston, after a talk with young Greenleaf, decided that while the case was undoubtedly accidental it was a matter for the court to pass on.

BAD COIN PLANT

Found in House in New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, July 28.—After Mark T. Rounds, the alleged counterfeit arrested at Crescent Park Sunday, made a confession yesterday. Patrick J. Ahern, a secret service man from the Boston office, visited his room at 233 Acushnet avenue, and seized an outfit which he says is the most complete that he has ever located.

Mr. Rounds was employed as an engraver at the Fairport Manufacturing company and came to this city Feb. 6 of this year. During the last six months there have been numerous counterfeit half dollars and quarters in circulation in this city, and they became so numerous that the police issued warrants to citizens.

Mr. Ahern came to this city with the keys to a trunk and closet in Rounds' room, and he seized all the metal and paraphernalia that was found there. There was a small gas stove, about 50 pounds of metal used as a base in the batteries, bottles of nitrate and potassium cyanide and crucibles.

There was also a half-pound candy box filled with new half dollars and quarters, the halves made from 1906 die, and the quarters from the 1907 die. Rounds had made plaster casts for dies. It is claimed, but none were found among his goods. They were probably cracked and broken in use, and afterward destroyed.

There was also a small bank with the inscription, "Save and you will learn. Dimes into dollars turn," in which Rounds is said to have put the good money that he received in exchange for the spurious coin. This was not opened, but it was quite heavy and indicated success in getting rid of the lightweight coin manufactured in the little plant.

Injured in Encounter With Balloon Met the Emperor of Russia Yesterday Girl Headed for Lowell is Detained

PROVIDENCE, July 28.—The prize bull owned by Dr. James E. Sullivan, ex-health officer of Fall River, Mass., and now a Providence millionaire, was worsted by a shore resort balloon yesterday. The bull had his nose ring yanked out by the balloon, which escaped soon after it landed on the animal's back. The balloon was considerably torn in the encounter, which was a fierce one. The rigging of the airship became entangled in the bull's nose ring when he made a bolt from it, and the ten-acre pasture was none too large for the beast and the balloon when they were at it good and fast.

Dr. Sullivan said after the accident the bull had been damaged $50 worth, while the aeronaut said his loss to the gas bag was surely $15.

Witnesses to the encounter declare the bull went high on his hind legs with the balloon pulling him skyward before the ring was pulled free from his nose. The queer combat occurred on the East Providence farm of Dr. Sullivan.

WALTER IS DEAD

Was Victim of Insane Father's Deed

Little Walter Blake is dead, the shot fired at him by his insane father at their home on the country road in Eastable. Sunday, proved fatal. The poor Walter passed away about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He had been resting fairly comfortable up to 4 o'clock yesterday morning when Dr. Varney received a hurried call. The boy's condition having taken a serious turn, Dr. Varney did not hold out any hope for the lad's recovery and he continued to sink until the end came in the early afternoon hour.

The revolver used by Elsha Blake was of 32-calibre and the bullet that the insane man sent coursing through the boy's head was the last one in the revolver as was sent in a published story of the shooting. There were two bullets left after he fired the shot that dispatched himself. The revolver was taken in charge by Constable Vincent of Chelmsford and is now in his possession.

REVAL, July 28.—The harbor of Reval was bathed in sunshine for the meeting between Emperor Nicholas of Russia and President Fallieres of France, which occurred yesterday afternoon. M. Fallieres arrived here at three p. m., on the French battleship Verite, which was escorted by the armored cruiser Dupetit Thouars and the gunboat Cassini, and found awaiting him the principal part of Russia's fighting fleet drawn up in two lines. The French squadron took up an assigned position between the two rows.

As the French ships swung into place a series of salutes was fired. The strains of the Marseillaise, so long interdicted in Russia on account of its revolutionary connection, were heard on the quarter deck of the imperial yacht Standart and the Russian warship.

The emperor immediately sent Admiral Dikoff, minister of marine, to welcome President Fallieres and after a short interval the French president, accompanied by his suite, on a gorgeous stand barge, proceeded to the Standart to make the acquaintance of the Russian ruler. Emperor Nicholas met him with great cordiality. President Fallieres was then presented to the Empress of Russia, whose hand he kissed, after which the imperial children and the members of the Russian suite were presented to President Fallieres.

The emperor later returned the president's visit on board the Verite and spent an hour there. An interchange of visits lasted throughout the entire afternoon and they furnished the occasion for long informal conversations between M. Fallieres and Emperor Nicholas.

A gala dinner was served last night on board the imperial yacht Standart. During the dinner, the French and Russian ships were brilliantly illuminated.

The emperor in toasting President Fallieres extended to him a warm welcome to Russia. He expressed the conviction that the president's visit would result in still further strengthening the bonds of friendship and uniting the two countries with a view to co-operation in maintaining and consolidating the world's peace.

M. Fallieres, after cordially thanking the emperor for the welcome, said he was anxious to affirm the sentiments of constant and faithful friendship which united the two people and which would be continued and consolidated by the present meeting, not only guaranteeing the common interests of France and Russia but also the European balance and the maintenance of peace.

Mr. Bryan's welcome on his return to Nebraska, from his trip to Chicago, to meet democratic leaders, was non-partisan, but none the less cordial.

Mr. Bryan was the principal speaker at a democratic flag-raising yesterday afternoon.

A large gathering greeted Mr. Bryan and applause frequently punctuated his remarks. He said in part: "That is the most beautiful flag that kisses the breezes today. If you have ever had a chance to compare that flag with other flags you will agree with me that no flag that floats is so pleasing to the eye. Not only does it gratify the artistic sense, but it possesses beautiful in its combinations and arrangements of colors, but it possesses a strength that adds to its charm. The white indicates the purity of the nation's purpose; the red the blood that has been shed in the nation's defense and that will be shed if the principles for which the flag stands are ever assailed; the stars represent each one a state, and the last fourth of July an additional star was added to that sky of blue."

The members of the new board of directors are Pres. Matthew Cummings, Boston; Vice President J. J. Regan, St. Paul; Secretary John T. McGinnis, Scranton; Treasurer John F. Quinn, Jamaica, Ill.; Rev. John D. Kennedy, Danbury, Conn.; Edward P. McCrystal, New York; A. P. Moran, Washington; John J. O'Meara, Butte, Mont.; and C. J. Fay, Montreal.

The board authorized the setting aside of $5000 to carry on a canvass to increase the membership of the order, and sent to Dr. Douglas Hyde an order on the treasury for $1000 for the Gaelic league, in accordance with action that had been taken by the convention.

BILLARD DENIES TWO WERE KILLED

That Canadian Pacific is Buying "Millionaire's Express" Crashed Into Large Automobile

B. & M. Stock

BOSTON, July 28.—"I have absolutely no knowledge of any dealings with the Canadian Pacific, and I cannot see how the Canadian Pacific can acquire the Boston & Maine without my becoming aware of it," was the way that John Billard of Meriden, Conn., denied the rumor that a railroad deal uniting the interests of the New Haven, Boston & Maine and the Canadian Pacific had just been completed.

The report was current in New York that the Canadian Pacific had acquired the stock of the Boston & Maine from the New Haven through a trustee, with an agreement protecting the interests of the New Haven.

Giving strength to the rumor was the fact that the New Haven and the Canadian Pacific have made plans whereby New England freights can be sent west to the mutual advantage of both roads.

If the arrangements were carried through it would give the Canadian road an entry not only into Boston but into New York.

Added to the denial of Mr. Billard, the man who bought the Boston & Maine stock from the New Haven, is the denial of President Mellon of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad. President Mellon denies having any negotiations with the Canadian Pacific, and emphatically states that there is absolutely nothing in the report.

By one who is very near the inner circle in the railroad affairs in both New England and New York, other denials are made. "The Standard Oil interests, as strong as any in Wall street where this report emanates from would never permit the Canadian Pacific to acquire the two ports that would be theirs under such an agreement as this," declares this man.

"The Standard Oil is always most alert in all transportation possibilities. Such a deal, with all the negotiations that it would entail, would be surprised at the start and frustrated before it had gained the least headway. The reported combination would be hostile to the interests of the Standard Oil. I am sure that there is no truth in the report."

At the hearing before the committee of the Massachusetts legislature which looked against the merger of the New Haven and the Boston & Maine there were frequent allusions to the possibility of some other road being after the Boston & Maine.

Several of the committeemen remembered the allusions but none of them remembered that the Canadian Pacific was mentioned as more than one of many possibilities.

GLEN HEAD, L. I., July 28.—Two persons are dead and two seriously injured as the result of a collision here last night between an automobile and the "Millionaire's Express" of the Long Island railroad, a train that carries many wealthy New Yorkers to their summer homes on Long Island. Miss Leigh Townsend, a New York girl of social prominence, who was a passenger in the automobile, died a few minutes after the accident, and Charles Smith, the chauffeur, was killed. The other occupants of the automobile were Miss Beatrice Eddy, 22 years old, of Brooklyn and Lloyd Robinson, 20, son of Charles Robinson, a New York banker and owner of the automobile. The accident occurred at the Glenwood road crossing, a short distance from the station.

Lloyd Robinson was taking the automobile party to his father's summer home at Sea Cliff, when the accident took place. The automobile and the train sped toward the crossing as though they had timed to the second to meet in the center of the rails. The locomotive struck the automobile fairly in the middle with such terrific force that the machine buckled around the nose of the engine and clung there.

The passengers of the automobile were hurled in all directions. Smith's body was badly mangled and the unconscious form of Miss Townsend was tossed forty feet into a yard. Miss Eddy, who leaped for her life, narrowly escaped rolling under the wheels of the train. She was cut about the hands and face and received probably internal injuries. Lloyd Robinson was more fortunate, for he fell on soft soil and although seriously injured was not so badly hurt as the others. Miss Townsend died almost as soon as she was lifted onto the train and Smith reached the hospital with a fractured skull.

At the hospital it was found that Miss Eddy was in a critical condition. A number of the passengers on the "Millionaire's Express" were injured by being thrown to the floor when the emergency brakes were applied. None of these was dangerously hurt although many received cuts and bruises. This train runs between New York and Oyster Bay.

To reproduce the entire article would be too big a tax on space, suffice it to reprint some of the references to Mr. O'Sullivan and his contribution to the interest of the trip. After explaining how the trip was suggested, Mr. Lewis writes:

Mr. Smith said that we ought to pay a visit to Elbert Hubbard. This name, visibly loosened the belts of my resolution. Mr. Smith, swiftly following up his advantage, observed that Mr. O'Sullivan—Sir Humphrey O'Sullivan, he of the Rubber Heel—would be of the party. I yielded and foresaw no heavy moments. I should travel in the company of Sir Humphrey. The journey in one direction would end with the Hubbards, in the other with New York; the finish in each instance promised joy.

Sir Humphrey? One could go round the world with him. Had he been with Magellan, that mariner would not have died. He would have remained alive, if only to listen to Sir Humphrey's stories.

Sir Humphrey is an American who originated in the County Cork—the keenest, clearest, liveliest, most brilliant corner of Ireland. He has been everywhere, seen everybody, heard everything. And what he hasn't seen or heard, he's read. He will talk on literature, politics, war, commerce, religion. He has the humor of Mark Twain, the profundity of Herbert Spencer. He will listen, or lecture, or engage in joint debate—what you please.

When weary of deeper matters, he will tell you stories. Should your fagged interest refuse response to other spurs, he is willing and ready to quarrel, and this last I esteem best and chiefest among his numerous good qualities. Also, while Sir Humphrey holds his own against you as ferociously as any bulldog, there will come no aftermath of feud; the quarrel once over is over, and your relations re-emerge into friendliest sunshine like some green countryside after a storm.

Sir Humphrey, who has a strong tincture in his composition of wolf or owl or something else distinctly nocturnal, was pleased with the drawing-room idea. He came aboard the train with a huge box of Perfectos, and he smoked like dragons all night—that is, Sir Humphrey and I did. We told the officiating Congo that we wouldn't have the lights made up; whereas Mr. Smith, either because of the smoke—which you could cut with a knife—or disappointment, looked exceedingly blue. I think had he said I was alone, he would have given me battle; but he was afraid of Sir Humphrey, from whom he was trying to wheedle an order for a back cover-page.

Sir Humphrey proposed a "friendly game," as he likes to relieve the tedium of a long and sleepy night. Mr. Smith tamely submitted. We three played together. Mr. Smith did not dare defeat Sir Humphrey because of that back cover-page. This took so much of his attention that I was able to fall upon him as it were in flank; and so, between Sir Humphrey and myself, we left Mr. Smith's chances on both sides of the road. To do this was like a dessert of figs and milk to my malevolence, already feeding, as at a banquet, upon the fact that Mr. Smith must pass a wakeful night. I could see that he would not subsidize the drawing-room for the reason trip. Nor did he; he secured three sections, scattered bravely up and down the car.

Sir Humphrey talked of the great freeman's master. He wanted to his subject, in a way natural enough when it recalled that he himself is a leading influence in the New England Veteran Firemen's Association. Indeed, there is to be a League master of the Association at Lowell on August 31st, and Sir Humphrey expanded upon that.

"In this connection," said Sir Humphrey, "let me say that I have remained Lowell. I call it 'The City that Does Things.' When my brother veterans of the Firemen's Association come there in muster, she will justify that title. The muster will excel any ever held in New England. Sixty-five companies will be present. Lowell will give a handsome prize for the one which shows the most red shirts on parade."

"The turnout," says Sir Humphrey, "will show not less than 65,000 men in line, while more than 100,000 will line the Lowell curb."

"I shall," says Sir Humphrey, "get out a Treasure Book of the muster, containing as many plates as companies represented, giving half-tone plates of the 'Tub,' its history, its present officers and past officers and as the book will contain a score card of the 'play out' that day, you can imagine how eagerly they will be sought for."

MINOR ACCIDENTS

BOYS COME TO GRIEF IN VARIOUS WAYS.

Elmer Locost, aged 11 years, fell from a fence near his home in Coburn street yesterday and fractured the bones of the right forearm in two places. He received treatment at St. John's hospital.

STUCK BY ENGINE.

Jacob Assot was run into by the shifting engine near the Boott mills yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock and was injured slightly on the right side. He was taken to his home, 6 Winter street, in the ambulance.

HE WILL RECOVER

Mr. Charles F. Chapman, formerly of Lowell, now of Newark, N. J., and Miss Marion E. Soule, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Soule of New York city, were married July 22, at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will live at 92 Pennsylvania avenue, Newark, N. J. They will be at home after August 1.

EBEN HOWARD, who fell from a staging on a house in lower Hildreth street during the later part of last week and sustained a broken back, will recover. Since he was taken to St. John's hospital up to the present time he has shown a marked improvement in his condition and the physicians are confident that he will recover.

Anty Drudge's Fountain of Youth.

Mrs. Weary—"Oh, dear! I wish I could find what d'you call 'im's Fountain of Eternal Youth. Hard work's making me old."

Anty Drudge—"Bless you, there's a fountain of youth you can find—and that's Fels-Naptha soap. It's a great lightener of work and would not only do your washing in cool water quickly without hard-rubbing, but it would make easy all your household cleaning. I use it—and I don't feel more than sixteen."

Does dirt mean drudgery to you?

Yes—if the only way you know to get rid of dirt is by the hot water, ordinary soap and elbow grease method.

No—if you let Fels-Naptha dissolve the dirt in cool or lukewarm water—without boiling, without hard-rubbing.

Fels-Naptha has done away with hard work and boiling in washing clothes just as other modern inventions have done away with home spinning, tallow candles and hand sewing.

Why don't you let Fels-Naptha do the hard part of your washing?

The easy directions are printed on the back of the red and green wrapper.

BOSTON, July 28.—Owing to the refusal of Sept. Emerson of the street department to grant the firemen employed on the city ferries running to East Boston a two weeks' vacation with pay this year, the firemen late last night voted to strike to enforce their demands. Supt. Emerson announced his intention of making efforts to run the boats as usual in the event of the men going out.

Several of the committeemen remembered the allusions but none of them remembered that the Canadian Pacific was mentioned as more than one of many possibilities.

Smith, and Humphrey O'Sullivan of this city.

ROOSEVELT VS. THE TRUSTS

WHEN PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DENOUNCES THE JUDGES WHO DECIDED AGAINST HIS VIEWS IN THE STANDARD OIL CASE THE PUBLIC WILL NATURALLY CONCLUDE THAT JUDGE TAFT IS HIS IDEAL.

THE PRESIDENT TAKES HIMSELF TOO SERIOUSLY; HE MISTAKES HIS OPINIONS FOR LAW AND HE HAS BEEN MAKING THIS MISTAKE FOR SOME TIME.

HE REGARDS THE REVERSAL OF THE JUDGE LANDIS DECISION AS "A GROSS MISARRIAGE OF JUSTICE" AND SAYS "THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO QUESTION OF THE GUILT OF THE DEFENDANTS."

THAT MAY BE TRUE, BUT IF THE EVIDENCE IS NOT SET FORTH IN A MANNER SUFFICIENTLY STRONG AND CONCLUSIVE TO CONVICT THEN THE COURTS ARE NOT TO-BE- BLAME.

IT HAS OFTEN HAPPENED THAT THE SUPREME COURT HAS REVERSED DECISIONS THAT IN THEMSELVES WERE RIGHT BUT IN THE MANNER IN WHICH THEY WERE REACHED, THEY WERE NOT WARRANTED BY THE PROCEDURE OF OUR AMERICAN COURTS OR BY THE STATUTES.

UNDER SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES THE COURTS SHOULD OVERRULE THE DECISION.

THE PRESIDENT MIGHT NATURALLY HAVE SHOWN CONFIDENCE ENOUGH IN THE AMERICAN COURTS TO HAVE RECEIVED THE DECISION WITH EQUANIMITY AND HAVE EXPRESSED THE OPINION THAT ANOTHER TRIAL WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY REACH A DECISION TO SATISFY THE ENDS OF JUSTICE.

SPEAKING OF THE PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS THE NEW BEDFORD MERCURY SAYS:

"The justices of the appellate court specifically pointed out that the evidence was not complete and unequivocal and when Mr. Roosevelt says there is no question of guilt, it follows either that he has not read the court decision, or that he disdains and flouts it, and the latter conclusion is forced upon us. The spectacle of a president of the United States who displays sovereign contempt of a high court, who tramples upon the law, setting himself 'above the law,' to quote the current phrase taught us in the recent decision, is disconcerting. Mr. Roosevelt, in his wrath, that on the eve of the national election the great fine was reversed, rebuking the administration no less than Judge Landis, has reverted to his denunciations of Standard Oil, but in asserting his contempt for the court decision, setting up his own opinions against it, he strikes a blow at law and order and makes a deplorable exhibition of plain, vulgar, bad citizenship."

AFTER SUCH AN EXHIBITION OF IMPATIENCE AT THE FINDINGS OF THE COURTS, BY THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF THE COUNTRY THERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR CERTAIN PARTIES RECENTLY DUBBED UNDESIRABLE CITIZENS TO GET BACK AT MR. ROOSEVELT WITH THE USUAL REJOINDER OF "YOU'RE ANOTHER."

HEARST HELPING TRUST CANDIDATE

MR. HEARST WHO HAS BEEN A STEADY HOWLER AGAINST THE TRUSTS IS GOING TO DO WHAT HE CAN TO ELECT TAFT BY USING "HIS CLUB" TO HELP DEFEAT BRYAN.

HEARST SOUGHT ELECTION TO CONGRESS AS A DEMOCRAT AND DURING HIS TERM OF SERVICE HE SELDOM APPEARED IN HIS SEAT IN THE HOUSE AND HIS VOICE WAS SELDOM HEARD ABOVE A WHISPER EXCEPT WHEN HE WAS FORCED BY CIRCUMSTANCES TO REPLY TO THE EXPOSURE OF HIS HYPOCRISY BY A BOSTON CONGRESSMAN.

HE NEVER FULLY RECOVERED FROM THAT ATTACK. HIS NEXT MOVE WAS TO RUN FOR THE OFFICE OF MAYOR OF NEW YORK. HE OPPOSED MCLELLAN AND WHEN DEFEATED, HE STARTED A HOWL THAT HE WAS COUNTED OUT.

HE CONTINUED TO FIGHT FOR A RECOUNT AND FINALLY SUCCEEDED IN PUTTING THE STATE TO THE VAST EXPENSE ATTENDING SUCH A JOB WITH THE RESULT THAT HIS CONTENTION WAS SHOWN TO BE WHOLLY GROUNDED.

NOW HE IS OUT WITH HIS PERSONAL ORGANIZATION, THE INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE, TO DEFEAT BRYAN.

HIS MAIN DESIRE IS TO DEFEAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. HIS POLICY IS TO RULE OR RUIN THAT PARTY. HEARST IS THE CHIEF EXPONENT OF GORILLA WARFARE IN THE POLITICS OF THIS COUNTRY TODAY. WHILE ASSAILING THE TRUSTS HE IS A STRONG FACTOR IN THE WORK OF HELPING TO ELECT WM. H. TAFT, THE TRUST CANDIDATE.

CHANCE FOR THE N. Y. SUN

THE NEW YORK SUN HAS LET UP ON ITS CRITICISM OF FRENCH CANADIANS IN THIS COUNTRY. IT HAS PROBABLY FOUND OUT ITS MISTAKE AND WILL NOT BE LIKELY TO REPEAT IT FOR SOME TIME. THE SUN CAN FIND HOW FALSE WERE ITS ACCUSATIONS BY ATTENDING THE CELEBRATION AT QUEBEC THIS WEEK. OUR NEW YORK NAMESAKE NEEDS SOME SUCH EYE OPENER ON THE FRENCH AMERICAN QUESTION.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Miss Anne T. Morgan, a daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, has arrived in Berlin from Magdeburg, where she visited the Krupp workmen's colony. She is studying the subject of the amelioration of workmen's condition.

Rev. Lathrop Cowley has just celebrated the sixty-fourth anniversary of his entry into the ministry at North Eaton, Ohio. He is now 57 years old.

Several of Mr. Pineroy's plays have been translated into foreign languages, the most popular being "The Second Mrs. Tansworthy," which has been performed in German, French, Italian and Russian. "His House is Order" is now to be given in Paris in October at the Varieties, with M. Tardieu in the part of Hilary, while Mlle. Martine Regnier will represent Nina. It will be interesting to see whether the French public will appreciate this line work.

The Rev. G. W. McPherson, who is a student in New York recently said: "While New York is the wickedest city in the United States, Chicago is worse. So bad that it cannot be called America. It is not civilized." It is severely arranged in a bulletin issued by the Chicago Association of Commerce. Referring to Mr. McPherson, the bulletin says: "This thoughtful individual should be taught that the interpretation of the tongue is more beneficial than the interpretation of the body; and other things that kill the latter poison the individual offender, while the former cure and wounds the reputation of many." The association then goes on to set forth facts showing Chicago's greatness and goodness, its commercial and industrial resources, its prosperity as indicated by its bank deposits, and the number of war-cars at work, and its charities. One of the statements is that "Chicago has 40 hospitals, a larger number in proportion to population than any other large city in the country, notwithstanding it has the lowest death rate of all of them."

Mrs. Grover Cleveland is to visit Lenox Park in the season, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson Glider of New York, whose country place is known as "Four Brooks." The Order of Chevaliers in the Legion of Honor has been conferred on Mr. Glider by the French government.

The Berliner Tageblatt in an article on "The New Roosevelt Professor" says: "Simultaneously with the arrival of the Berliners, bringing to us the proof of the culture of German music in the western world, comes a scientific representative from there in the person of Professor Felix Adler, who, after a season of rest in Switzerland, will deliver a course of lectures at the university of which he was once a student, on the subject of 'The Ideals of the American People.' Professor Adler was born in Germany, and thus the new Roosevelt professor is bound by close ties to the country where he will lecture."

Victor Herbert will have five new works on the stage next season. Two of these are completed, two others are

EDITORIAL COMMENT

SEES PROSPERITY'S RETURN.

New York Commercial: William Guganovich was a passenger on the French liner La Provence, which sailed yesterday for Havre. Speaking of financial conditions, he said: "The cessation of attacks on private property already has restored confidence in financial circles. Every man with a good knowledge of financial conditions notices a better, though gradual but certain return to prosperity. The depression of the past year was caused by attacks on property interests. Take the railroads alone, for instance. Numerous billions of dollars are represented in those interests."

BRYAN AND ROOSEVELT.

The Concord Patriot has the following on Bryan and Roosevelt:

It is rather interesting to note how consistently our republican friends engaged in the newspaper business, keep on saying "Bryan owns and is the democratic party."

Looking at it disinterestedly, one fails to see how Bryan owns the democratic party or has evidenced the fact any more or even as much as that Mr. Roosevelt owns the republican party.

It is said that Bryan brought about his own nomination. He named the candidate for the democracy for the presidency.

the electoral college in support of Mr. Taft, showing that Mr. Taft and those responsible for his nomination brought about that nomination through dictating terms in democratic states.

All in all, one is forced to the conclusion that as between ownership of the republican party by Mr. Roosevelt and the ownership of the democratic party by Mr. Bryan, the ownership by Mr. Roosevelt is not by any means the more desirable, praiseworthy.

Taken again, if additional testimony is needed it might be said in all truth and in all candor, that Bryan had no office to bestow, no federal officers to co-opt into obedience, and that the necessity of and the hope of continuing to feed the public crib were not instrumentalities that he could use to compel obedience to his wishes.

Talk by republicans about Bryan owning the democratic party, in the face of conditions, seems to come with very poor taste.

THREE PERISHED

Men Were on Their Way Home

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 28.—A gasoline launch, "The Merry Widow," carrying from 16 to 20 workmen from the Jones and Laughlin Steel company's plant across the Monongahela river to their homes in the south side section of the city, was capsized shortly after 6 o'clock last night in twenty feet of water by waves from a pool boat. Three men, Henry Schaefer, George Kimberly and Thomas Rhynderek, are known to have perished.

QUIMBY DENIES

That He Took Letters From Patient

WORCESTER, July 18.—Dr. Hosna M. Quimby, head of the State Insane asylum here, has entered a general denial to the $10,000 suit of William J. Welch, a Boston attorney, who sued the doctor for converting to his own use four letters which he had when an inmate of the asylum Dec. 6, 1902.

Welch alleged that Dr. Quimby took the letters, two of them testimonials of good character and the other two evidence in a law case, which he says he lost because of the absence of the letters.

HIS FATAL DIVE

Variety Performer Seriously Injured

NANTASKET, July 28.—Edward G. Darling of Manchester, England, a variety performer, was seriously injured last night when, after a sensational backward dive, his head struck the concrete bottom of a shallow lagoon.

He is now at the point of death in the Emergency hospital. Twenty stitches were taken to close the wound made at the base of the performer's brain.

Darling is known as "The Flaming Rolling Devil" and his act consisted of a dash down a steep incline on roller skates while enveloped in flames. There is an upward shoot at the end of the run, and as he leaves the performer makes a backward whip dive and lands in the lagoon.

After last night's performance it was noticed that Darling did not get to the surface as quickly as usual. It was then realized that he must have struck the hard bottom of the small artificial pond. Harold Starks of Northampton, a park employee, dived into the water and found Darling lying face down.

$1500 PRESENT

For Boys Who Complete 2500 Mile Walk

DENVER, July 28.—With Juneau, Alaska, as their destination, Frank H. Gilmore, aged 23, of Portland, and Roger W. Andrews, aged 22, of Chicago, have started from here on a 2500-mile tramp. There is no time limit; if they succeed they are to get $1500 between them as a gift from the father of young Andrews, who believes that the boys will give out before they complete the trip.

Young Andrews would not make the trip alone. When his father, who is somewhat of a globe trotter, offered the boy the money, after a discussion as to the merits of each on long-distance jaunts, he told him he would accept if allowed to have a companion.

Last summer Andrews and his father made a record trip from Chicago to St. Paul, 600 miles, on foot.

The boys left Denver with khaki uniforms, a canteen, the very lightest equipment, and only $5 in their pockets.

They started out of here over the Union Pacific tracks and will go to Cheyenne and Portafello, Idaho. They will take the Oregon Short Line to Nampa and Boise, and will report at the Y. M. C. A. at Boise. They will then follow the branch of the Oregon Short Line to Huntington and then take the main line to Portland. They will remain in Portland and Seattle several days before taking up the tramp to Alaska along the Canadian Pacific route.

FOR MOTOR RACE

Subscriptions Solicited for the Big Race

To the Public Spirited Citizens of Lowell:

The Lowell Automobile club, after spending a great deal of labor and money, and having received all legal sanction from the state, city of Lowell and town of Tyngsboro, and having perfected all the details pertaining to the race, now respectfully call upon the merchants and financiers of the city for subscriptions.

We hope that everybody in this city will appreciate our labor and what this event means to Lowell, and let us prove to the country at large that this is a "city that does things."

That the spirit of progressiveness is not only characteristic of a few, but of the entire population and that we, one and all, will help to make this event a raising success.

The following is a list of the expenses and resources incidental to erecting grand stands, hand stand, judges' stand, filling the road wiring of same, 500 men to patrol, telephone service, and other expenses. The subscription to be paid back after the race from the revenue derived from the following sources as enumerated below:

EXPENSES.

Erecting grand stand	$4000
Erecting hand stand	400
Erecting judges' stand	200
Telephone service, five stations around the course	300

Banners across roadway at turns and in city at depot	300
1000 red and white flags	50
Caps and sashes for 500 men patrolling course	150
Wages for men patrolling course, 500 at $2 per day	1000

Bulletin advertising, printing and distributing	2000
Incidental expenses	1000
Insurance	500
Legal expenses	500
Music	300
Total	$12,145

RESOURCES.

500 seats in grand stand at $1 each	$500
100 seats at $5 each	500
30 boxes seating six at $25	1250
10,000 programs at 25c each	2500
10,000 score cards 10c each	1000
Vending 200 automobiles on side roads at $25 each	5000
Parking space to peddlers for sale of eatables, tonics, candies, popcorn, peanuts, etc., and advertising spaces	2000
Entrance fees, 12 cars at $250 each	3000
Revenue for vitagraph machines	1000
Total	$35,250

Should we only receive 50 per cent of the apparent revenue we would then have enough to pay all expenses, and this would mean only 5000 people in the grand stand, parking only 1000 automobiles, selling 3000 programs, 5000 score cards, and an equal depreciation from other sources.

We feel that there is not one chance in 100 for a deficit, as if it rains the race will be postponed to the next pleasant day.

We believe it a good investment for every public spirited citizen to help this celebration along, enabling our city to get a world-wide reputation, and bring in thousands of manufacturers, financiers, and sight-seers to our city, with the hope that some will ultimately locate their manufacturing establishments here or assist to finance some of our already established concerns, and besides this, a great multitude of people will certainly spend in our city many thousands of dollars during the day of the race and many days previous thereto.

We therefore respectfully hope that your checks will be willingly sent and credited to your lien on the revenue, pro rata to the amount of your subscription. Make checks payable to John A. McKenna, secretary, Lowell Automobile club and board of trade, 90 Central block, Lowell, Mass.

A guaranteed subscription to the amount of $10,000 will be necessary to put this race through, and all subscriptions should be in before August 1.

Scranton Hotel Man Taken in by Confidence Men

NEW YORK, July 28.—Frederick Holzner, proprietor of the St. Charles hotel in Scranton, Penn., and one of the solid business men in that city, has had some remarkable experiences recently which have prompted an investigation by central office detectives and Dist. Atty. Jerome. The information in the hands of the police has placed them on the track of a band of confidence men, with headquarters in this city, who have been operating extensively along entirely new lines.

A SHINGLE IN TIME SAVES NINE.

Many kinds of shingles, but the best roof-covering that any man can top off with is a FIRE INSURANCE POLICY in a reliable company. So that if the fire-fend lays his home in ashes, he gets dollar for dollar without delay. Can the manufacturers of shingles offer a kind to beat this? If not insured, let us shingle your roof today, for tomorrow may be too late. Lowest premiums in best companies only.

Russell Fox
159 MIDDLESEX STREET

They met Lane at one of the big hotels here, and after a business-like talk he consented to introduce the Scranton man to his millionaire backers with a view to promoting their interests jointly.

Nearly all the men in our syndicate are off on their yachts or traveling abroad for the summer. Lane, but two of them, old man Cuddey and his son, the millionaire packers of Omaha, are on their way east in their private car and should be in Bridgeport, Conn., tomorrow. If you like we'll take a run up there in the morning and lay the matter before them."

The following day, in Bridgeport, Lane introduced Holzner to his wealthy backers. The elder man was a stout, dignified, full-headed man, apparently past 60 years of age, with the younger was a well-set-up chap of medium height, who continually addressed the elder as "Governor." The meeting took place in a hotel near the railway station, and while the Tennessee timber proposition was being discussed over an excellent luncheon, it developed that the private car in which the Cuddeys traveled had been sent to the shops for repairs, but would be in commission again before the day was over.

FIGHT IN BOSTON.
Over the coffee and cigars the old man became confidential. "The fact is," he said, "that the boy and I have come east here for a little sport. We've brought along with us a clever little fighter named Sullivan, who has licked everything of his weight west of the Mississippi river, and we're satisfied he can't be beat. "Mr. Lane has kindly consented to make a match for us with a Boston lad and we're going to pull off the fight privately in Boston tonight. If you care to see the fun you're welcome to come along."

Holzner jumped at the chance. He argued that it would help him to a better acquaintance. Lane congratulated him, aside, on having won the old man's confidence so easily. The latter invited them to make the trip on his private car, but Lane said he would have to ahead to make final arrangements and Holzner decided to go with Lane.

TAKES $5000 WORTH OF BOUT.
"I wanted to write you in the beginning," said Lane when they were alone, "but I was afraid the old man wouldn't like it. We're going to have the fight in the private house of one of the biggest bankers in the Back Bay section, and it would play the game of the newspapers or the police go onto it. We've got a fighter named Collins that'll put it over the western lad without trying. We've been framing up this little game for weeks and as such a sure thing that I've put up $10,000 on it. If you've got a few thousand to put up you can't lose, and a stiff bet would make you solid with the old man."

Through a Bridgeport bank Holzner drew a draft for $5000 on his Scranton bankers and turned the cash over to Lane to bet for him. At 10 that same evening they took a cab in Boston, and after half an hour's drive pulled up before a mansion in a residence section of the town.

"FIGHT" IN RESIDENCE.
There were four men in the room besides the two westerners, and after Holzner had been introduced all around two young men in fighting costume, wearing two-ounce gloves, were admitted. One of the strangers was selected as stakeholder and several bets were put up in his hands by the side of which Holzner's $5000 seemed rather small.

GETS "SOLAR PLEXUS."
On the first round Collins had the better of it. He came up fresh and smiling for the fourth round and sailed in hammer and tongs. The round had been in progress about 30 seconds when the western lad landed a right swing in the Boston boy's ribs which doubled him up like a knife and left him writhing in apparent agony on the floor. There was a count of 10 seconds and Sullivan was declared the winner.

TAKES $10,000 MORE.
There was a lot of talk all around the next day, and the outcome of it was that Lane arranged another match between some lads with odds at 3 to 1 in his favor. I drew another draft for $10,000 on my bankers and put the money in Lane's hands to wager. For some reason the fight was postponed, and when I looked for Lane later I could not find him.

"I tried one whole day to locate the house where the fight was pulled off, but couldn't find it." Holzner came back to New York and put the matter in the hands of his attorney, John M. Coleman of 115 Broadway, who took him to police headquarters. There he found that the men introduced to him as the Cuddeys were impostors. From the rogues' gallery he picked out the picture of old James Morgan, alias "Deafy" Morris, as the man who had played the part of the elder Cuddey, and Frederick Gondoloff as the man who had posed as the millionaire's son. Gondoloff is under arrest and held in $15,000 bail for examination Wednesday. The police are looking for "Deafy" Morris and the rest of the gang, whose respective identities have not been established.

RHODE ISLAND Would Not Recognize Bay State License

BOSTON, July 28.—Interstate marriage regulations presented a difficult problem for Frank M. Ott, the night electrician of the Boston & Maine railroad, but the young man is resourceful and has at last entered the wedded state. It all happened because a Massachusetts marriage license is useless in Rhode Island.

Mr. Ott's matrimonial venture was sudden and a complete surprise to his friends. He obtained a license to wed in Somerville, and shortly after the young couple who were to be made man and wife took a train for Providence.

But when everything was in readiness for the ceremony it was discovered that there was lacking a license that would hold good in Little Rhody. In vain Ott protested that he had something just as good as the Rhode Island Legislature could prescribe.

Finally bride and groom came back to Massachusetts and were married in Attleboro.

WANTS DIVORCE

Husband Wrote: Wife He Was Dead

PORTLAND, Ore., July 28.—To deceive his wife and give himself a good puff at the same time, Augustus J. Wieland, using an assumed name, wrote to her of his own death, saying, in part:

"He died a saint. He was a good, Christian man—one anyone would be proud to tie to." This was part of the testimony given before Judge O'Day in the circuit court at the trial of Mrs. Wieland's suit for divorce.

The letter purports to give details of the death of Wieland in Alaska. Mrs. Wieland, curious to see the man who had been at her husband's deathbed, went to Tacoma to see "John Worthy," and discovered that he was, in fact, her husband, very much alive. She returned to Portland and at once began proceedings for divorce, which was granted.

PYTHIAN CAMP test Against it SAY IT WOULD ENDANGER HEALTH Five Hundred Tents Are Up Already

BOSTON, July 28.—The tented city on Franklin field, in which the host of visitors to the coming Knights of Pythias convention will be sheltered, is beginning to take shape. Already about 500 tents of the 2600 which will eventually stand in ordered rows upon the turf of the playground have been put up. They are on the southwest side of the camp, toward Stratton street, and stakes for about 500 more have been driven in symmetrical lines, all the way over to Talbot avenue. The major general's tent was pitched yesterday in what will be the central portion of the camp in the rear of the locker building at the Blue Hill avenue entrance.

The hospital tents, near Stratton street, and the kitchen and the mess tents, close to Talbot avenue, have yet to be erected, and so have the tents of the brigadier generals and of the colonels, along Blue Hill avenue, together with the band stand and the vaudeville stage in the central area. Laborers are now at work removing rocks and rubbish, and evening the surface of the ground preparatory to pitching the rest of the tents. Work on the sinks has not yet been begun.

In spite of the fact that this city authorities are thoroughly satisfied with the sanitary arrangements provided for the encampment on Franklin field, the citizens living in the neighborhood do not cease their protests against it. The officers of both the park department and the city board of health have seen the plans and are satisfied that the sanitation will be what it should be. There will be United States army officers present to inspect the drills and the sanitation regulations will be the same as those of the government in military encampments. It has been officially given out that the number of men who will occupy the camp will be between 7000 and 8000.

CAMP OF ROVERS Ordered From Indian Orchard by Supt. Moffatt

The band of rovers who for the past couple of weeks have been camping near the old First street car barn in Indian Orchard have been notified by Supt. Moffatt of the police department to pack up their wagons and hike for some other city or clearing other part of Lowell where they will not be considered obnoxious.

Passengers on the electric cars which are operated between this city and Lawrence were the first to have their attention attracted to the new campers. Yesterday morning Supt. Moffatt drove down to the camp and informed the party that they would have to pack up and vacate before sunset.

Early last evening the superintendent thought he would take a ride down to the Orchard to see if his orders had been carried out and was rather surprised to find that instead of hustling to make for some other site the party was engaged in preparing for supper. Inasmuch as the superintendent upon getting into conversation with one of the party found that the band constituted of two families, one Scotch and the other English, also that one of the members was a Mason, he decided to give them a day of grace, but insisted that they leave the place today.

MR. TAFT AND HIS LIFE AT YALE

Even at That Early Period of His Life the Republican Candidate Dominated Both Physically and Mentally.

THE class of 1878 at Yale was a notable one. William Howard Taft was a member of it, for one thing, but even before the Chicago convention started him formally on his way to the White House the class had achieved a reputation. It was the largest class that had ever been graduated by Old Eli. It had 155 members, and of these 129 were given diplomas. Today there are ninety-six of those alumni living.

The class was an unusually mature one for Yale, the average age at time of graduation being twenty-three and seven-tenths years. With the exception of the output of 1871, this was the highest average age of any class ever matriculated at the school. The oldest man was a little past thirty, and the youngest was about nineteen. Seventeen others were not old enough to vote.

It seems that in the matter of avoirdupois the class of 1878 tipped the scales most forcibly. The class records show that in 1878 the average weight was 151 pounds, which was only a few ounces less than the heaviest man in the class of 1876, in which the present head of the university, Dr. Arthur T. Hadley, was a bright and shining light. In the official record the weight of William Howard Taft is put at the modest figure of 225 pounds. "The big presidential candidate confessed during his recent visit to his alma mater that he had deliberately falsified the returns; that his actual weight at the time of graduation was 233 pounds. It is needless to add that Taft was the heavyweight of the class. The light-weight was a little Japanese, Inagiro Tanaka Tajiri, who was as bright as he was tiny. Tajiri weighed only 107 pounds, but his brain was as alert as that of any member of his class. He went back to Japan after graduation, and has gathered to himself as many honors and as much wealth as have any of his classmates. Those who were present on commencement day that year still remember the striking contrast between the diminutive Mr. Tajiri and the elephantine Mr. Taft.

James M. Lamberton was the secretary of the class, and it is on account of his remarkable attention to minute detail that we are enabled to know so many interesting things about the various members. According to Mr. Lamberton's notes, the average height was slightly above five feet eight inches. The tallest man was Herbert W. Wood, but took a course at the Columbia Law school, afterward going into the diplomatic service, becoming United States minister to Venezuela. As further evidence of Mr. Lamberton's fondness for legion and his friends. He was a member of the Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Lambda and also of the highly exclusive and ardently coveted Skull and Bones, an honor Yalensian that comes to but few and confers a distinction in the presence of which all merely academic preferment pales. As if all this were insufficient, young Taft was accorded the crown-

supremacy without an instance of dissent. He accepted the leadership provisionally, but from the first made it plain that his chief business at Yale was to prepare himself for the battle of life; that he could not be tempted to neglect his literary opportunities by anything that college sports could offer. For as if all this were insufficient, young Taft was accorded the crown-

supremacy without an instance of dissent. He accepted the leadership provisionally, but from the first made it plain that his chief business at Yale was to prepare himself for the battle of life; that he could not be tempted to neglect his literary opportunities by anything that college sports could offer. For as if all this were insufficient, young Taft was accorded the crown-

ers, being the salutatorian of his class, and also class orator, which is a remarkable showing in a class of 129. Signs Pointed Taft's Way.

If on that commencement day thirty years ago the student body had been required to express an opinion as to the member of the graduating class, with the most brilliant prospect of demonstrated that he alone was possessed of the elements of actual greatness. With the possible exception of Herbert Wolcott Bowen, no other among the hundred odd has achieved a national reputation. Many of them are men of affairs in their own limited circles, but they do not shine with a brilliancy that overreaches that limit. Even Mr. Bowen did not receive his satisfactorily that President Cleveland promoted him to consul general. The following year, when Barcelona got up a demonstration in disapproval of the Morgan bill to recognize the Cuban insurgents, Mr. Bowen managed the delicate matter with a diplomatic shrewdness that gave great satisfaction to our state department. Two years later, at the breaking out of war, he was the last of the diplomatic representatives of this country in Spain to leave his post. President McKinley appointed Mr. Bowen minister resident at Teheran, and he was afterward given the post of minister to Venezuela. In the quarrel of that government with Great Britain, Germany and Italy he represented the South American republic, and in 1903 he was counsel for the United States and Venezuela before The Hague tribunal. It was at that time that Yale conferred the long delayed distinction on him.

Perhaps the member of the class of 1878 who comes next in point of achievement is John Proctor Clarke of the New York supreme bench. He was a very bright student at Yale and also prominent in rowing matters. He is a warm friend of President Roosevelt and accompanied him on his vice presidential campaign in 1900. Edward Baldwin Whitney was one of the hard workers of his class. President Cleveland appointed him assistant attorney general of the United States, and while he held the office he argued a hundred cases in the supreme court, among them the income tax and Debs matters. He is also the author of the New York tenement house act of 1901.

Inagiro Tanaka Tajiri is the only classmate whose career compares in extensiveness with that of Mr. Taft. He has filled a number of high offices in his native country, among them imperial comptroller of finance, comptroller of the Bank of Japan and minister of the department of finance of the empire. He was created a baron for service during the China-Japanese war. Edward Froeh Reed was the only negro member of the class. He devoted himself to teaching and is now a resident of Baltimore. Howard Clarke Hollister was one of the most popular members of the class, and he has been a lifelong friend and neighbor of the Tafts at Cincinnati. He is a lawyer and has been judge of the court of common pleas in the First Ohio district.

Altogether it is a great satisfaction to Yale to have at last one of her sons launched safely on the tide which may carry him to the presidency. If Mr. Taft should be elected, he will be the first alumnus of Old Eli to arrive. Harvard has furnished three presidents, the two Adams and Theodore Roosevelt. William and Mary have done equally well with Jefferson, Madison and Taylor. With a Henry Harrison was educated at Harvard in Salem, James K. Polk at the University of North Carolina, Franklin Pierce at Bowdoin, James Buchanan at Dickinson, General Grant at West Point, Rufus B. Hayes at Kenyon, James A. Garfield at Williams, Chester A. Arthur at Union, Benjamin Harrison at Miami, all the others were the product of the minor schools.

In his sophomore year he won two first prizes for composition. At the junior exhibition he delivered a philosophical oration, and at commencement the following year he was one of the speak-making a career, it would have pronounced unqualifiedly in favor of Taft. Even at that early period of his life it was apparent that he was endowed with the equipment, both physical and mental, that must win. There may have been those among his classmates on that day who were his equals mentally, but time and circumstances have

BURNED AT STAKE

Negro Youth Was Accused of Assaulting White Girl

DALLAS, Texas, July 28.—Tad Smith, a negro boy, aged 18, charged with criminal assault on Miss Viola Delancey at Clinton, Hunt county, yesterday was captured by officers early today. He was taken before the young woman and identified. The prisoner was then hurried to the Greenville jail.

Before arriving there, however, a mob of citizens overpowered the officers, took the prisoner and prepared to hang him. This idea was given up, however, and the mob agreed to burn him at the stake. Fagots were piled up at the public square and the negro was placed thereon. Kerosene oil was poured on and a match applied. Smith slowly burned to death while a thousand people witnessed the execution by fire.

Lowell and Lawrence in Hot Game Today

The double header at Washington park this afternoon between Lowell and Lawrence attracted about 900 fans. During the practice the members of the Lowell aggregation showed up well, and when the game was called Warner was on the slab and Lemieux was on the receiving end.

Eaton, who has been catching for the visitors, has been released and this afternoon Ainsmith, formerly of the Lowell team, was the man behind the gun (the bat). Whiting was the man who threw the balls for Lawrence.

Umpire Connolly was the decision maker and he called the first game at 2.10 o'clock, the batting order being as follows:

LOWELL	LAWRENCE
Vandergrift 2b	ss Flynn
Connors 2b	lf McLean
Zinszar 1f	cf Hartner
Magee 1f	rf Vinson
Beard of	3b Wilson
Uniac ss	2b Connaughton
Doran 1b	1b Murch
Lemieux c	c Ainsmith
Warner p	p Whiting

FIRST INNING.

Neither side scored in the first inning. Flynn, the first man up, hit to Vandergrift and was retired at the initial bag. McLean followed with a single. Hartner hit to Uniac forcing McLean at second. Vinson flied to Vandergrift.

In Lowell's half Vandergrift slammed the ball out to deep left field for a two-bagger. Connors sent Candy to third with a sacrifice. Zinszar flied a victim to McLean, the latter catching what looked to be an impossible one. Vandergrift tried to score on McLean's hit to the outfield but was nulled at the plate.

Score—Lowell 0, Lawrence 0.

SECOND INNING.

The home team scored one run in the first inning. Flynn, the first man up, hit to Vandergrift and was retired at the initial bag. McLean followed with a single. Hartner hit to Uniac forcing McLean at second. Vinson flied to Vandergrift.

In Lowell's half Vandergrift slammed the ball out to deep left field for a two-bagger. Connors sent Candy to third with a sacrifice. Zinszar flied a victim to McLean, the latter catching what looked to be an impossible one. Vandergrift tried to score on McLean's hit to the outfield but was nulled at the plate.

Score—Lowell 0, Lawrence 0.

THIRD INNING.

Two more goose eggs were registered in the third inning. Ainsmith hit to Warner who knocked the ball down and Connors flied to first. Whiting hit to Connors and was out at first. Flynn hit to Uniac who threw to first and Connors flied to first. McLean closed the inning with a strike out.

In the latter half of the third Warner singled and went to second on a sacrifice by Vandergrift. Connors hit to Connaughton and was out at first. Warner going to third. Zinszar closed the inning on a fly to Flynn.

Score—Lowell 1, Lawrence 0.

FOURTH INNING.

The home team scored two runs in the fourth inning while the visitors were unable to score. Hartner flied to Beard. Vinson struck out and Wilson flied out to Beard.

Magee bunted along the first base line and was safe. Beard reached first. Uniac sacrificed and both men on base were advanced. Doran flied out to Hartner. Magee scored on the put-out. Lemieux drew a base on balls and stole second. Warner hit to right field and Beard scored. Vandergrift flied out to Flynn.

Score—Lowell 3, Lawrence 0.

FIFTH INNING.

The visitors tied the score in the fifth inning owing to the fact that Warner went to pieces. Connaughton opened with a single and Murch followed with another. Ainsmith bunted to Warner who hesitated and then threw to first, but he was too late and the bases were filled. Whiting struck out. Flynn singled to center field and Connaughton and Murch scored. McLean sent the ball out for a two bagger and Ainsmith scored. Hartner slammed the ball out to the field but Flynn was caught between third and home. Vinson hit to Warner and was out at first.

During the first half of the inning Dan Duggan got into an argument with the umpire and was put off the grounds. Despite the fact that Dan was not in the lineup he was coaching in such a manner that the umpire decided that he would not be a loss to the game if ordered out.

In the latter half of the inning Connors struck out. Zinszar hit to Flynn and was retired at first. Magee flied out to McLean.

Score—Lowell 3, Lawrence 3.

BROKE BOTTLES

Burglars Broke Into Denis O'Brien's Drug Store

The drug store of Denis O'Brien at 322 Bridge street was broken into early yesterday morning by two men, but they were frightened away before they succeeded in securing any booty. Patrolmen Corcoran and Lennon were attracted to the scene by the crash of falling bottles which had been knocked off a shelf by the men, but the thieves made good their escape. It is evident that the break was made by persons familiar with the place and suspicious turns to a gang of rowdies who frequent Front street. Up to the present time no arrests have been made.

There is a window and a door in the rear of the store, the window being up against a stairway which leads to the floor above and an entrance to the area in the rear of the store can be made by passing through a narrow passageway which leads from Lakeview avenue.

Despite the fact that there was a heavy screen over the window the men succeeded in cutting this away with some sharp instrument. Inside the window is a row of shelves filled with bottles of every description. The thieves had removed about 25 or 30 bottles and placed them on the stairway on the outside, when 'evidently one of them tried to squeeze his body between the shelves and find it impossible to get through started to wiggle around, the result being that he knocked about a dozen bottles off the shelves, the bottles landing on the floor with a crash which could be heard a block away.

Patrolmen Lennon and Corcoran were in the vicinity at the time and hastening to the place from where the noise came saw two men running away. The officers gave chase but the men being pursued were too light of foot and got away. The officers then returned to the rear of the store and found a number of bottles on the stairway, while inside the store a number of bottles had been knocked to the floor.

Yesterday when Mr. O'Brien opened his store he found the mass of debris in the rear room, but after making a careful investigation found that he had not suffered any loss other than the contents of the bottles that had been broken.

TAFT ACCEPTS

Candidate is Notified of His Nomination for President

He Delivered Speech That Was Approved by Pres. Roosevelt—Revision of Tariff, Campaign Contributions, Injunctions and Other Matters Touched on in His Address

CINCINNATI, O., July 28.—Standing on a flag draped platform in front of the old colonial portico of his brother's home, William H. Taft today accepted the nomination of the republican party to be its candidate for the presidency. The quaint old residence of Charles H. Taft was the center of a demonstration unequalled in Cincinnati's history. Political leaders from far and near gathered to give the affair its political significance while from the city and surrounding suburbs the friends and admirers of Mr. Taft turned out in countless numbers and without regard to party affiliations. The nomination of the candidate was made the occasion of a holiday.

The thoroughfares in front of the old homestead where Mr. Taft will make his campaign headquarters during September and October were fairly choked with the early arrivals, and the police had all they could do to keep a passage way open for the guests and members of the notification committee who were provided with seats on the big front porch and with standing room on the spacious lawns protected by a high iron fence.

Senator William Warner of Missouri, past commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, headed the notification committee which consisted of a member from every state, territory and island possession of the nation. There were also present many members of the republican national committee, including its chairman, Frank H. Hitchcock. The day was clear and exceedingly warm without the slightest breeze blowing in from the hillsides. Mr. Taft penciled his speech for purposes of delivery, and while not omitting any important declaration he eliminated from the spoken address many of the detailed statements which appeared in the manuscript given out for publication.

Senator Warner's speech of notification was brief and to the point. He concluded there was enthusiasm cheering as Mr. Taft stepped forward. After formally accepting the nomination tendered by the chairman of the notification committee, Mr. Taft launched at once into the very essence of his declaration of principles. The first portion of his remarks being that the republican strength lies in the maintenance of the Roosevelt policies. He described what the president has done in the line of reform and declared the chief function of the next administration to be a clinch of what already had been accomplished. He asserted in comparing the platform of two old parties that republican declaration is progressive and regulative, while democratic is radical and destructive.

When the final address was finished there was a procession of marching clubs, militia and various civic organizations. From an improvised reviewing stand on the sidewalk Mr. Taft reviewed the passing procession.

Just prior to the notification ceremony today Judge Taft gave out the following statement:

"The formal and political speech of acceptance written to greet and thank the republican representatives of all the states and territories of the union offers no opportunity for Mrs. Taft and me to express the feeling of gratitude which swells up in our hearts at this cordial and enthusiastic reception from our friends, fellow citizens and neighbors of Cincinnati without regard to party. Born, reared and educated within the limits of this dear old city we return to it after eight years of absence to meet the non-partisan good will and rejoicing at the honor which

STANDARD OIL CO.

Government Plans Another Fight Against the Trust

LENOX, July 28.—Plans for another great battle in the courts with representatives of the Standard Oil Co. will be worked out here among the peaceful shades of the Berkshire hills within the next few days. Under the direction of Attorney General Charles J. Bonaparte, who is passing his vacation time in Lenox, the first move in the new action which, it is understood, is to be brought by the government against the Standard Oil Co. will be made here and the machinery of the department of justice at Washington will be set in motion.

This action following the recent decision of the United States circuit court of appeals at Chicago, setting aside the judgment of $20,340,000 returned by Judge K. M. Landis against the company, indicates that the administration of justice at Washington will be set in motion.

Mr. Bonaparte will be joined today by Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota, whose conduct of anti-trust cases for the government brought him national renown and they will review together the present situation and discuss the case for further action.

For assistance in the case they will have the service of half a score of trained legal experts from the department of justice in Washington, men specially conversant with this particular branch of the department's work. These experts also were expected here during the day.

The government attorneys will be quartered at the Hotel Aspinwall where Attorney General Bonaparte is a distinguished guest. A suite of many rooms has been provided for them, the previous occupants of the rooms having consented to make room for the department officials, and here it is expected the work of arranging for the new legal proceedings will be begun. One of the rooms is large enough to serve as a general council chamber and will be fitted up with such office furniture as may be needed.

It is understood that accommodations are required for ten men, but the length of their stay is not known and is designated merely as several days.

CITY WATER PURE

Prof. Olney Makes Careful Analysis of Samples

There is nothing the matter with Lowell's water. The supply is perfectly pure and the consumer need have no fears as to lurking germs or poisonous substances. The fact that families in Fletcher street were poisoned was responsible for the spread of the alarm that the water was bad.

Immediately upon being apprised of the trouble in Fletcher street, Supt. Thomas of the water department sent samples of the water to Prof. Olney who found that it had been affected by ordinary bluing. In some way the bluing must have been conveyed to the vessels that were used for drinking purposes.

There are a great many complaints received off and on at the office of the water board relative to the rusty or riley condition of the water in different sections of the city.

Asked as to these complaints, Clerk Crawford of the board said: "We have received on an average of about two complaints a day about riley and rusty water. This is caused by the water being carried in the trolley sprinklers. The trolley sprinkler takes a great volume of water, and there is always more or less disturbance in the pipes when a trolley sprinkler is being filled."

The result of Prof. Olney's analysis of the water sent him by Supt. Thomas was as follows:

PROF. OLNEY'S FINDING.
Lowell, Mass., July 27, 1908.
Robert J. Thomas, Esq., Supt. Lowell Water Works, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir:—I have made a thorough examination of the Lowell city water, taken by me in your presence Saturday afternoon, July 25th, 1908, from the faucet in the kitchen of one of the tenements at 332 Fletcher street, and find it to be free from lead, copper, zinc, and other poisonous metallic compounds, and to be perfectly normal.

A continuous boiling of this water during a period of four hours, and an exposure to direct sunlight during a period of twelve hours, did not develop the blue coloration described to us by certain residents of the Fletcher street tenement, neither did the examination of the water give evidence of the presence of any substance which could have caused such a coloration to develop.

The sample of bluish colored liquid, which was delivered to me by you Saturday afternoon, July 25th, 1908, in an 8-ounce bottle, and which was said to have been drawn from the same faucet as the aforesaid water, but by a resident of the tenement, and then exposed to the sunlight, was found to contain a coloring matter, which was apparently a coal-tar dyestuff of the acid type. Accompanying this report will be found a small piece of wooden material which has been dyed with a portion of the coloring matter obtained from this sample. Such a coloring matter is frequently used as a bluing material for white clothes, and is also sold by druggists in a dry powdered form as one of the blue spots and stains upon the clothes exhibited at the Fletcher street tenement, were of such a character as to indicate that they were formed by small particles of some undissolved blue coloring matter having come in contact with the clothes while in a tub, or by a similar coloring matter having been blown in the powdered form over the clothes as they hung upon the line or elsewhere in a damp condition.

Respectfully submitted,
L. A. Olney.

GREEN HORSE CONTRACTS LET

Caused Excitement in Middlesex Street Residence

Thomas H. McKay, the well known baker had an exciting experience in Middlesex street this morning while riding behind a fine looking green draught horse owned by C. H. Hanson & Co.

The horse was attached to a heavy wagon and was driven by one of Mr. Hanson's experts and undoubtedly Mr. McKay was inspecting the animal's good qualities with a view to buying it.

Just as the animal reached the corner of Middlesex and Thorndike streets, outside the Wamelet bank, in some unaccountable manner the harness became caught, frightening the animal, and before the driver could prevent it the horse turned sharply into the sidewalk, one of the front wheels getting under the body of the wagon so as to throw it up on one side while the driver was thrown backward from his seat into the wagon. The horse came within a few inches of the big plate glass window, but the driver, lying on his back, held the reins firmly and succeeded in turning the animal back. Then he jumped back to his seat and in a minute had the green one in complete control with no more damage than a broken check rein. Mr. McKay sat on the seat throughout the momentary excitement and was not injured, and apparently was not frightened.

The president's reply is as follows:

"Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 27. "James E. Sullivan, United States commissioner to Olympic games, London, Eng.: Heartiest congratulations to you and team. Wish I could shake hands with each man. "Theodore Roosevelt."

LARCENY CHARGE

Brought Against Man Who Collected Another's Bill

Gaming Machine Taken From a Barber Shop on Middlesex Street

Frederick Devany pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with the larceny of $45, the property of John Tomassi, on the 16th day of June. It seems that Edward W. Devany, a brother of the prisoner, who is a plumber, did some work for Tomassi and the bill amounted to $45. Frederick Devany, who is also a plumber, knew that the bill had not been collected and calling upon Tomassi stated that his brother had sent him to collect the money. Tomassi paid the money over and then Frederick started out to spend the money. The brother to whom the money was due heard of the transaction and gave Tomassi a receipted bill. The case was continued for a week.

Thomas Egan, a parole man, will be returned to the state farm. William Rondeau, a second offender, was fined $5, one first offender was taxed the usual $2 and four simple offenders were released without appearing in court.

SEIZED GAMING MACHINE. Inspector Ladimone and Sergt. Duncan called at the barber shop conducted by Joseph Gregoire at 25 Middlesex street this morning and seized a game machine. The machine was taken to the police station and Gregoire will be summoned into court during the present week.

The machine in question is one of those old fashioned gaming machines in which cents are placed and then a spring pushed and poker hands are turned up. If the cards show one pair or better, cents are given the player, the number of cents being in accordance with the value of the hand.

The Watch & Ward society of this state assisted by the local police are making a crusade against these gambling machines.

Edward Burns Met With Serious Accident

Edward Burns, residing at 163 Lawrence street and employed at the Lowell machine shop, met with a painful accident this morning. While at work on a milling machine he had his right hand caught and badly bruised. The ambulance was summoned and he was removed to the Lowell hospital, but was released after the hand had been dressed.

PARENT RESCUED

He Became Exhausted While Bathing

Francis McAleer of Whiting street saved Albert Parent from being drowned in the waters of the Merrimack river near the Moody street bridge yesterday afternoon about three o'clock.

Parent and a number of his companions had been in swimming for quite a while when Parent stated his intention of swimming across the river and back without stopping. None of his companions cared about accompanying him as they did not believe they would be able to perform the feat, so Parent started alone.

He crossed the river and was about half way back when he became exhausted and throwing up his hands disappeared in the water. He was standing on the shore, went to his rescue and with rapid strokes was soon at Parent's side, but just as he was about to make a grab for Parent, the latter went under for the second time.

When the half drowned young man came to the surface again McAleer got hold of him and towed him to shore. After considerable rolling about and tugging, the young man was able to get a great deal of the water out of Parent's stomach and a little later he was able to walk to his home.

THEATRE VOYONS

Yesterday's new bill at the Theatre Voyons had for its leading feature a moving picture presentation of the story of Damon and Pythias. The story is one familiar to many and it has been used for hundreds of years to illustrate the highest type of friendship. Damon was one of the nobles of Greece and above all things he desired that his country be freed from the rule of a tyrant and his friends but almost alone his appeals to the people only resulted in his being arrested and condemned to death. In order that Damon might visit his home and bid his wife and child farewell Pythias leaves his wedding feast and takes his place in prison. Circumstances delay Damon's return so that Pythias is about to be executed in his stead. Damon finally arrives just in time and so touching is the friendship of these two men that both are set free and the story ends happily. There are two excellent comedies shown as well, "The Living Yucca" and "Stung" both are full of laughs.

The songs are good, especially "Sweet Sixteen" a march by Kerry Mills, with lots of life to it.

Writes Mayor Farnham From Soldier's Home

George William Garvie, a veteran who signs himself "an empty sleeve boy" and who has addressed Mayor Farnham from the soldiers home in Togus, Me., asks for information concerning one Ella Marshall, who, with her father, came to Lowell in company with Mr. Garvie in the early 70's.

He says in the letter that Ella Marshall was married after coming to Lowell but he could not recall her husband's name. He wants Mayor Farnham to find out if she is still in Lowell and any information concerning the woman will be gratefully received at the mayor's office.

TO GRAND JURY

Brennan Charged With Breaking and Entering

James C. Brennan was arraigned in police court before Judge Pickman this morning on a complaint charging him with breaking and entering and attempting to commit larceny. After the testimony had been submitted, probable cause was found and Brennan was held under $100 bonds for the grand jury.

According to the testimony offered Brennan entered the restaurant conducted by Henry A. Roberts at 219 Middlesex street on the night of the 24th of July. When he got in through a rear window he felt into the hands of Mr. Roberts and the latter's son-in-law, Patrolman John Clark, and Ingalls were also lying in wait for him and he was arrested. Brennan's defense was that his wife was sleeping in a room in the building and that he entered the place in order to see her.

Henry A. Roberts, the owner of the restaurant, said that he was lying in wait for Brennan as he had suspected him of entering the place on previous occasions. About eleven o'clock Brennan opened a window in the rear of the restaurant and entered. On cross-examination witness said he had known Brennan for 15 or 16 years and that the widow's wife was in his employ and slept in a room over the restaurant. Mr. Roberts said that Brennan after entering the place offered no resistance stating that he desired to see his wife.

Joseph McInness, a son-in-law of the previous witness, testified. Patrolman John Clark said that as a result of what had been told him he was on the lookout for Brennan and about half an hour before the latter made an entrance he (Clark) had tried all the windows and found them locked. Shortly after Brennan entered the place Clark put in an appearance.

Brennan testified that he went in to see his wife. He entered by means of the rear window because the front door was locked. He denied, however, that the window was locked, stating that it was open about four inches from the bottom. He also acknowledged that he had entered the building the night before.

Deputy Welch then produced a number of papers showing that Brennan had been convicted of larceny and the latter did not deny the allegations. Probable cause was found and he was held for the grand jury.

BILLARD DENIES TWO WERE KILLED

That Canadian Pacific is Buying "Millionaire's Express" Crashed Into Large Automobile

BOSTON, July 28.—"I have absolutely no knowledge of any dealings with the Canadian Pacific, and I cannot see how the Canadian Pacific can acquire the Boston & Maine without my becoming aware of it," was the way that John Billard of Meriden, Conn., denied the rumor that a railroad deal uniting the interests of the New Haven, Boston & Maine and the Canadian Pacific had just been completed.

The report was current in New York that the Canadian Pacific had acquired the stock of the Boston & Maine from the New Haven through a trustee, with an agreement protecting the interests of the New Haven.

Giving strength to the rumor was the fact that the New Haven and the Canadian Pacific have made plans whereby New England freights can be sent west to the mutual advantage of both roads.

If the arrangements were carried through it would give the Canadian road an entry not only into Boston but into New York.

Added to the denial of Mr. Billard, the man who bought the Boston & Maine stock from the New Haven, is the denial of President Mellen of the

New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad. President Mellen denies having any negotiations with the Canadian Pacific, and emphatically states that there is absolutely nothing in the report.

By one who is very near the inner circle in the railroad affairs in both New England and New York, other denials are made. "The Standard Oil interests, as strong as any in Wall street where this report emanates from would never permit the Canadian Pacific to acquire the two ports that would be theirs under such an agreement as this," declares this man.

"The Standard Oil is always most alert in all transportation possibilities. Such a deal, with all the negotiations that it would entail, would be surprised at the start and frustrated before it had gained the least headway. The reported combination would be hostile to the interests of the Standard Oil. I am sure that there is no truth in the report."

At the hearing before the committee of the Massachusetts legislature which decided against the merger of the New Haven and the Boston & Maine there were frequent allusions to the possibility of some other road being after the Boston & Maine.

Several of the committeemen remember the allusions but none of them remembered that the Canadian Pacific was mentioned as more than one of many possibilities.

GLEN HEAD, L. I., July 28.—Two persons are dead and two seriously injured as the result of a collision here last night between an automobile and the "Millionaire's Express" of the Long Island railroad, a train that carries many wealthy New Yorkers to their summer homes on Long Island.

Miss Leigh Townsend, a New York girl of social prominence, who was a passenger in the automobile, died a few minutes after the accident, and Charles Smith, the chauffeur, was killed. The other occupants of the automobile were Miss Beatrice Eddy, 22 years old, of Brooklyn and Lloyd Robinson, 20, son of Charles Robinson, a New York banker and owner of the automobile. The accident occurred at the Glenwood road crossing, a short distance from the station.

Lloyd Robinson was taking the automobile party to his father's summer home at Sea Cliff, when the accident took place. The automobile and the train sped toward the crossing as though they had timed to the second to meet in the centre of the rails. The locomotive struck the automobile fairly in the middle with such terrific force that the machine buckled around the nose of the engine and clung there.

The passengers of the automobile were hurled in all directions. Smith's body was badly mangled and the unconscious form of Miss Townsend was tossed forty feet into a yard. Miss Eddy, who leaped for her life, narrowly escaped rolling under the wheels of the train. She was cut about the hands and face and received probably internal injuries. Lloyd Robinson was more fortunate, for he fell on soft soil and although seriously injured was not so badly hurt as the others. Miss Townsend died almost as soon as she was lifted onto the train and Smith also died before the hospital was reached. Miss Townsend's death was caused by a fracture of the skull.

At the hospital it was found that Miss Eddy was in a critical condition. A number of the passengers on the "Millionaire's Express" were injured by being thrown to the floor when the emergency brakes were applied. None of these was dangerously hurt although many received cuts and bruises. This train runs between New York and Oyster Bay.

will tell you stories. Should your fagged interest refuse response to other spurs, he is willing and ready to quarrel; and this last I esteem best and chiefest among his numerous good qualities. Also, while Sir Humphrey holds his own against you as ferociously as any bulldog, there will come no aftermath of feud. The quarrel once over is over, and your relations re-emerge into friendliest sunshine, like some green countryside after a storm. Sir Humphrey, who has a strong tincture in his composition of wolf or owl or something else distinctly nocturnal, was pleased with the drawing-room idea. He came aboard the train with a huge box of Perfectos, and we smoked like dragons all night—that is, Sir Humphrey and I did. We told the off-lying Congo that we wouldn't have the berries made up; whereas Mr. Smith, either because of the smoke—which you could cut with a knife—or disappointment, looked exceedingly blue. I think had he and I been alone, he would have given me battle; but he was afraid of Sir Humphrey, from whom he was trying to wheedle an order for a back cover-page.

Sir Humphrey proposed a "friendly game," as likely to relieve the tedium of a long and smoky night. Mr. Smith calmly submitted. We three played together. Mr. Smith did not dare defeat Sir Humphrey because of that back cover-page. This took so much of his attention that I was able to fall upon him as it were in flank; and so, between Sir Humphrey and myself, we left Mr. Smith's chances on both sides of the road. To do this was like a dessert of eggs and milk to my malevolence, already feeling, as at a banquet, upon the fact that Mr. Smith must pass a winless night. I could see that he would not subsidize the drawing-room for the return trip. Nor did he; he secured three straws, scattered craftily up and down the car.

Sir Humphrey talked of the great Freeman's master. He warmed to his subject, in a way unbecomingly when he recalled that he himself is a leading influence in the New England Veteran Firemen's Association. Indeed, there is to be a league muster of the Association at Lowell on August 15th, and Sir Humphrey expanded upon that.

"In this connection," said Sir Humphrey, "let me say that I have remained Lowell. I call it 'The City that Does Things.' When my brother veterans of the Firemen's Association come there in August, they will justify that title. The muster will excel any ever held in New England. Sixty-five companies will be present. Lowell will give a handsome prize for the one which shows the most red shirts on parade."

"The turnout," says Sir Humphrey, "will show not less than 65,000 men in line, while more than 100,000 will line the Lowell curbs."

"I shall," says Sir Humphrey, "get out a Treasure Book of the muster, containing as many plates as companies represented, giving half-tone plates of the 'Fib,' its history, its present officers and past officers and as the book will contain a score card of the 'play out' that day, you can imagine how eagerly they will be sought for."

Anty Drudge's Fountain of Youth.

Mrs. Weary—"Oh, dear! I wish I could find what d'ye call 'im's Fountain of Eternal Youth. Hard work's making me old."

Anty Drudge—"Bless you, there's a fountain of youth you can find—and that's Fels-Naptha soap. It's a great lightener of work and would not only do your washing in cool water quickly without hard-rubbing, but it would make easy all your household cleaning. I use it—and I don't feel more than sixteen."

Does dirt mean drudgery to you?

Yes—if the only way you know to get rid of dirt is by the hot water, ordinary soap and elbow grease method.

No—if you let Fels-Naptha dissolve the dirt in cool or lukewarm water—without boiling, without hard-rubbing.

Fels-Naptha has done away with hard work and boiling in washing clothes just as other modern inventions have done away with home spinning, tallow candles and hand sewing.

Why don't you let Fels-Naptha do the hard part of your washing?

The easy directions are printed on the back of the red and green wrapper.

John Higgins Has Four Ribs Broken Because They Were Refused a Vacation

John Higgins, residing at 1 rear of 28 Kinsman street, and employed by D. T. Sullivan, the coal dealer, met with a painful accident about five o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was loading barrels of lime on his wagon at the Lowell Terminal company at the junction of Tanner and Howard streets, and in lifting one of the barrels the chain holding the tail board snapped, allowing the barrel to fall against the man. The ambulance was summoned and he was removed to St. John's hospital where it was found that four ribs had been fractured. He was later taken to his home.

BOSTON, July 28.—Owing to the refusal of Supt. Emerson of the street department to grant the firemen employed on the city ferries running to East Boston a two weeks' vacation with pay this year, the firemen late last night voted to strike to enforce their demands. Supt. Emerson announced his intention of making efforts to run the boats as usual in the event of the men going out.

HIS VISIT TO THE ROYCROFTERS

Described in the Magazine, Human Life

In this month's issue of his magazine, "Human Life," Alfred Henry Lewis has a most interesting and amusing article entitled "How We Three Visited Fra Elbertus," being an account of the visit to Elbert Hubbard and the home of the Roycrofters, of Mr. Lewis, the chronicler of the event, his business manager, William F. Smith, and Humphrey O'Sullivan of this city.

To reproduce the entire article would be too big a tax on space, suffice it to reprint some of the references to Mr. O'Sullivan and his contribution to the interest of the trip. After explaining how the trip was suggested, Mr. Lewis writes:

"Mr. Smith said that we ought to pay a visit to Elbert Hubbard. This name visibly loosened the belts of my resolution. Mr. Smith, secretly following up his advantage, observed that Mr. O'Sullivan—Sir Humphrey O'Sullivan, he of the Rubber Heel—would be of the party. I yielded and foresaw no heavy moments. I should travel in the company of Sir Humphrey. The journey in one direction would end with the Hubbards, in the other with New York; the finish in each instance promised joy."

Sir Humphrey? One could go round the world with him. Had he been with Magellan, that mariner would not have died. He would have remained alive, if only to listen to Sir Humphrey's stories.

Sir Humphrey is an American who originated in the County Cork—the keenest, clearest, liveliest, most hell-gent corner of Ireland. He has been everywhere, seen everybody, heard everything, and what he hasn't seen or heard, he's read. He will talk on literature, politics, war, commerce, religion. He has the humor of Mark Twain, the profundity of Herbert Spencer. He will listen, or lecture, or engage in joint debate—what you please.

Lowell no Good in Tight Places

LAWRENCE, July 28.—Lawrence defeated Lowell, 2 to 1, yesterday, in a slow game. Connolly got into several tight places, but was saved by the sharp fielding of Lawrence. Connolly's batting and fielding were the features. Connors, of Lowell, umpired the game in the absence of a regular umpire. The score:

DIAMOND NOTES

Lawrence here today. Double header. Ten hits and one run means dumb base running. With three on bases and one out, two men struck out with Pat Connolly pitching. Even Connolly was surprised. Dan Duggan is catching a fine game for Lawrence.

There'll be something doing every day this week at Washington Park. It would appear that Burkett put his foot in it when he stirred up things at Lynn recently.

Another rough-house in Lynn yesterday. Umpire Joe O'Brien clutched with Yerkes and Labelle and they've all got to go to court. Ray Lemieux, the game backstop of the Lowell club is doing splendid work his first year out and whenever he is in the game his merry voice can be heard all over the park shouting words of encouragement to the heavy man on the firing line. Providence had Ray at the start of the season, but he was allowed to go to Lowell. Lemieux has a snappy gateway to the sacks, and few sacks have been stolen off him so far this season. ## Yerkes and Labelle Arrested for Assault

LYNN, July 28.—Surrounded by more than a score of policemen, while half a dozen more, swinging their clubs, sought to hold a crowd of several hundred angered baseball fans at bay. Umpire Joe O'Brien was escorted off the diamond at Ocean park yesterday afternoon a few minutes after the beginning of a riot which has no equal in Lynn's baseball history. Bleeding slightly from a gashed right ear, O'Brien was hustled into the ticket office, just inside the entrance to the grounds, and while a half dozen officers closely guarded the little struc-

Manager Winn still thinks that Lowell will be in first division before the season ends. Lowell is certainly fighting hard, but a little loosening of the purse strings would be more for the good of the team than anything else.—New Bedford Times.

BASEBALL NOTES

Falkenberg's first game as a Cleveland pitcher was a losing one. The indifferent appearing ball player isn't always so in reality. There's Lajoie, for instance. The throwing of Mr. Spencer of the Browns while here was the most accurate thing ever seen except sharp shooting. Hans Wagner is doing some heavy clubbing off the New York pitchers. He has made seven hits in the last two games. Kid Elberfeld has not given the umpires the least bit of trouble since he became a manager. He has behaved admirably. In Brooklyn last Friday there were two men out and two strikes on the batter when the Chicago hit was made that tied the score in the ninth inning. Tough luck!

One of the things we are looking forward to this fall is the tussle between Mike Donlin and Ty Cobb in the world's series to see which will make the more base hits. Cy Young says the Boston Americans play 50 per cent. better ball away from home than on their own grounds. There are teams that don't play 50 per cent. better ball anywhere. "When I first came into baseball," says Fred Clarke, "we used to consider 10,000 a big crowd. Now we have 20,000 crowds, and I expect to see 50,000 crowds some day when the stands are big enough to hold them."

Time was when the pros laughed at the college players for using two balls when taking the field between innings, one for the pitcher and one for the infielders to throw around. Now a number of the big league teams are doing it. Billy Locke wore a green necktie at the game last Friday; the Pittsburgh lost; he shook the green for a blue and the next day the Pirates won. But the Pirate secretary has a change of apparel for every game in the year. "His said his wardrobe eclipses Harry Fotherham."

ture, every other officer was utilized by Deputy Chief Bartlett to force the crowd of over 1800 persons from the park. As a result of the trouble which preceded the attack by the crowd upon the umpire, Pitchers David Yerkes and Labelle will appear in the police court today for alleged assaults committed upon O'Brien, and R. Ashley Bowen, one of the directors of the Lynn club, said last night he will have a similar charge brought against O'Brien. Lynn and Haverhill played at Ocean park and throughout the game the umpire's decisions were felt by the crowd to be against Lynn. Haverhill had a five-run lead in the eighth, but Lynn hit O'Toole hard in that inning and in the ninth tied the score. In the 10th Andrews for Haverhill tied to Bigbie, Relly hit to Yerkes and though Bigbie's foot was said to be off the bag when Relly went across, the umpire declared him safe. The decision, according to the Lynn players, was absolutely unfair, but O'Brien refused to listen to protests. O'Toole grounded to right, and when Poland advanced a base Hamilton hit slowly to Gardner and in a close play at first O'Brien gave the decision to Hamilton; Relly had scored on the play. Lynn was retired in order. As O'Brien walked off the field Yerkes moved from the players' bench toward the plate. Yerkes says that O'Brien's language to him was so insulting that he lost his head and struck at the umpire. O'Brien had a mask in his right hand, but he clutched it with Yerkes and made no effort to get away. Witnesses told the police that O'Brien struck at Yerkes with the mask, while the two were clinched. When the men clinched Labelle, who had been in the first base coaching box, struck O'Brien in the right ear, and the crowd piling from the stands, rushed the umpire and shouted "Kill him" and "Mob him." A crowd of about a half dozen uniformed officers grabbed O'Brien and dragged him toward the gate. Police in plain clothes who were spectators at the game rushed onto the field, and while O'Brien was being kept toward the ticket office the police kept the crowd away from him. O'Brien realized the seriousness of his situation, and hustled as fast as he could to him. Many blows were aimed at him, but in the majority of instances the police received them. Once the ticket office was reached, Deputy Bartlett took charge of the police, and stationing a half dozen placed under arrest, and ordered any other who struck O'Brien in any way attempt to strike Yerkes to place the umpire under arrest. Then the police literally drove the crowd out of the park and locked the gates. Labelle was also taken into custody, but upon receiving assurance from Attorney Bowen that he would be responsible for the appearance of the man in court today, they were not required to go to the station. Numerous witnesses among them several women, volunteered to appear in court against O'Brien, and while some assured Mr. Bowen that they would testify that O'Brien struck back at Yerkes one woman asserted that she would testify to indecent language on the part of the umpire. O'Brien was kept in the ticket office until Deputy Bartlett had cleared the grounds, and then the umpire was led by a roundabout way to the rear gate and driven by the deputy to the railroad station. "To a correspondent O'Brien denied that he assaulted Yerkes, or made any attempt to strike him. O'Brien also denied the charge made against him by the Lynn team that he was interested in the result of the game, and he likewise asserted that he had not been drinking prior to the game.

DID NOT FIGHT

Police Refused to Allow Fight

NEW YORK, July 28.—The six-round bout between "Billy" Papke, the western middleweight, and "Sailor" Burke, of New York, which was set for last night at the Coliseum A. C., did not take place owing to police interference.

BOXING GOSSIP

The bout between Murphy and Unholtz at the Army club in Boston tonight is of more interest to the Boston fans than any bout on the list, although a battle between Ketchel and Kelly for the middleweight championship is booked for this week. Unholtz has not been seen in action hereabouts since the time he first landed in Boston from England, but the battles he put up against Memsie and Battling Nelson, both of whom he defeated, convinced the sports that he has greatly improved since he made his debut here. Murphy is known to be a high-class boxer, but the question in the minds of the Boston sports is as to whether he can stand up for 12 rounds against such a strong, rugged boxer as Unholtz. The New Yorkers not only are confident that he can do so, but they expect to see Murphy stow Unholtz away before the limit of the bout is reached. The New York boxer looks better and stronger than ever, and is said to have his old hard wall back. Both men are confident of winning. The winner of the bout will get a chance to box for the title at one of the California clubs, and every one knows what such a chance means financially. Both boys have been training hard for the event, and the members of the club are certain to see one of the fastest and most aggressive bouts ever held at the club. To the followers of the game, the bout between Ketchel and Kelly in San Francisco looks like another win for Ketchel, though Kelly is very apt to give the man who is trying to usurp the middleweight title some better. Ketchel's defeat of Papke in the manner he did indicates that he should win over Kelly.

BALDWIN VS. GRIFFIN.

Matty Baldwin is to meet Charley Griffin, the Australian, in New York Friday night. The sports here at a better boxer than the latter has at first supposed, and as Baldwin is not so good as he was, he is liable to be handed something good and hard by Griffin. Because of the alleged fact that Baldwin put up with Abe Attell in New York some weeks ago Baldwin does not stand very well with sports over there.

ture, every other officer was utilized by Deputy Chief Bartlett to force the crowd of over 1800 persons from the park.

ROOSEVELT VS. THE TRUSTS

WHEN PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DENOUNCES THE JUDGES WHO DECIDED AGAINST HIS VIEWS IN THE STANDARD OIL CASE THE PUBLIC WILL NATURALLY CONCLUDE THAT JUDGE TAFT IS HIS IDEAL.

THE PRESIDENT TAKES HIMSELF TOO SERIOUSLY; HE MISTAKES HIS OPINIONS FOR LAW AND HE HAS BEEN MAKING THIS MISTAKE FOR SOME TIME.

HE REGARDS THE REVERSAL OF THE JUDGE LANDIS DECISION AS "A GROSS MISCARriage OF JUSTICE" AND SAYS "THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO QUESTION OF THE GUILT OF THE DEFENDANTS."

THAT MAY BE TRUE, BUT IF THE EVIDENCE IS NOT SET FORTH IN A MANNER SUFFICIENTLY STRONG AND CONCLUSIVE TO CONVICT THEN THE COURTS ARE NOT TO BLAME.

IT HAS OFTEN HAPPENED THAT THE SUPREME COURT HAS REVERSED DECISIONS THAT IN THEMSELVES WERE RIGHT BUT IN THE MANNER IN WHICH THEY WERE REACHED, THEY WERE NOT WARRANTED BY THE PROCEDURE OF OUR AMERICAN COURTS OR BY THE STATUTES.

UNDER SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES THE COURTS SHOULD OVERRULE THE DECISION.

THE PRESIDENT MIGHT NATURALLY HAVE SHOWN CONFIDENCE ENOUGH IN THE AMERICAN COURTS TO HAVE RECEIVED THE DECISION WITH EQUANIMITY AND HAVE EXPRESSED THE OPINION THAT ANOTHER TRIAL WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY REACH A DECISION TO SATISFY THE ENDS OF JUSTICE.

SPEAKING OF THE PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS THE NEW BEDFORD MERCURY SAYS:

"The justices of the appellate court specifically pointed out that the evidence was not complete and unequivocal and when Mr. Roosevelt says there is no question of guilt, it follows either that he has not read the court decision, or that he disdains and flouts it, and the latter conclusion is forced upon us. The spectacle of a president of the United States who displays sovereign contempt of a high court, who tramples upon the law, setting himself 'above the law,' to quote the current phrase taught us in the recent decision, is disconcerting. Mr. Roosevelt, in his wrath, that on the eve of the national election the great fine was reversed, rebuking the administration no less than Judge Landis, has reverted to his denunciations of Standard Oil, but in asserting his contempt for the court decision, setting up his own opinions against it, he strikes a blow at law and order and makes a deplorable exhibition of plain, vulgar, bad citizenship."

AFTER SUCH AN EXHIBITION OF IMPATIENCE AT THE FINDINGS OF THE COURTS, BY THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF THE COUNTRY THERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR CERTAIN PARTIES RECENTLY DUBBED UNDESIRABLE CITIZENS TO GET BACK AT MR. ROOSEVELT WITH THE USUAL REJOINER OF "YOU'RE ANOTHER."

HEARST HELPING TRUST CANDIDATE

MR. HEARST WHO HAS BEEN A STEADY HOWLER AGAINST THE TRUSTS IS GOING TO DO WHAT HE CAN TO ELECT TAFT BY USING "HIS CLUB" TO HELP DEFEAT BRYAN.

HEARST SOUGHT ELECTION TO CONGRESS AS A DEMOCRAT AND DURING HIS TERM OF SERVICE HE SELDOM APPEARED IN HIS SEAT IN THE HOUSE AND HIS VOICE WAS SELDOM HEARD ABOVE A WHISPER EXCEPT WHEN HE WAS FORCED BY CIRCUMSTANCES TO REPLY TO THE EXPOSURE OF HIS HYPOCRISY BY A BOSTON CONGRESSMAN.

HE NEVER FULLY RECOVERED FROM THAT ATTACK. HIS NEXT MOVE WAS TO RUN FOR THE OFFICE OF MAYOR OF NEW YORK. HE OPPOSED McLELLAN AND WHEN DEFEATED, HE STARTED A HOWL THAT HE WAS COUNTED OUT.

HE CONTINUED TO FIGHT FOR A RECOUNT AND FINALLY SUCCEEDED IN PUTTING THE STATE TO THE VAST EXPENSE ATTENDING SUCH A JOB WITH THE RESULT THAT HIS CONTENTION WAS SHOWN TO BE WHOLLY GROUNDESS.

NOW HE IS OUT WITH HIS PERSONAL ORGANIZATION, THE INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE, TO DEFEAT BRYAN.

HIS MAIN DESIRE IS TO DEFEAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. HIS POLICY IS TO RULE OR RUIN THAT PARTY. HEARST IS THE CHIEF EXPONENT OF GORILLA WARFARE IN THE POLITICS OF THIS COUNTRY TODAY. WHILE ASSAILING THE TRUSTS HE IS A STRONG FACTOR IN THE WORK OF HELPING TO ELECT WM. H. TAFT, THE TRUST CANDIDATE.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Miss Anna T. Morgan, a daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, has arrived in Berlin from Maastricht, where she visited the Krupp workmen's colony. She is studying the subject of the amelioration of workmen's condition.

Rev. Lathrop Cooley has just celebrated the sixty-fourth anniversary of his entry into the ministry at North Eaton, Ohio. He is now 57 years old.

Several of Mr. Piner's plays have been translated into foreign languages, the most popular being "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," which has been performed in German, French, Italian and Russian. "His House is Order" is now to be given in Paris in October at the Vaudeville, with M. Tardieu in the part of Hilary, while Mlle. Martine Regnier will represent Nina. It will be interesting to see whether the French public will appreciate this fine work.

The Rev. G. W. McPherson, who in a speech in New York recently said, "While New York is the wickedest city in the United States, Chicago is worse—so bad that it cannot be called American; it isn't civilized," is severely arraigned in a bulletin issued by the Chicago Association of Commerce. Referring to Mr. McPherson, the bulletin says: "This weighted individual should be taught that the intemperate use of the tongue is more baneful than the intemperate use of alcohol or other drugs that kill the latter pollutes the individual offender, while the former cuts and wounds the reputation of many." The association then goes on to set forth facts showing Chicago's greatness and goodness, its commercial and industrial resources, its prosperity as indicated by its bank deposits, and the number of wage earners at work, and its charities. One of the arguments is that "Chicago has 63 hospitals, a larger number in proportion to population than any other large city in the country, notwithstanding it has the lowest death rate of all of them."

Mrs. Grover Cleveland is to visit Lenox later in the season, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson Glider of New York, whose country place is named "Four Brooks." The Order of Chevaliers in the Legion of Honor has been conferred on Mr. Glider by the French government.

The Berliner Tageblatt in an article on "The New Roosevelt Professor," says: "Simultaneously with the arrival of the culture of German music in the western world, comes a scientific representation from there in the person of Professor Adler, who, after a season of rest in Switzerland, will deliver a course of lectures at the university of which he was once a student, on the subject of 'The Ideals of the American People.' Professor Adler was born in Germany, and thus the new Roosevelt professor is bound by close ties to the country where he will lecture."

Victor Herbert will have five new works on the stage next season. Two of these are completed, two others are

EDITORIAL COMMENT

SEES PROSPERITY'S RETURN.

New York Commercial: William Guggenheim was a passenger on the French liner La Provence, which sailed yesterday for Havre. Speaking of financial conditions, he said: "The cessation of attacks on private property already has restored confidence in financial circles. Every man with a good knowledge of financial conditions knows, I believe, the gradual but certain return to prosperity. The depression of the past year was caused by attacks on property interests. Take the railroads alone, for instance. Fourteen billions of dollars are represented in those interests."

BRYAN AND ROOSEVELT.

The Concord Patriot has the following on Bryan and Roosevelt: "It is rather interesting to note how vigorously our republican friends engaged in the newspaper business, known as 'Bryan owns and is the democratic party.' Looking at it disinterestedly, one fails to see how Bryan owns the democratic party or has evidenced the fact any more or even as much as Mr. Roosevelt owns the republican party."

Bryan, it is said, is the inspiration of the Denver platform.

With no less truth it may be asserted that Roosevelt was the inspiration of the Chicago platform.

It is said that Bryan brought about his own nomination, that he named the candidate for the presidency.

Surely it will not be denied that Roosevelt named the candidate of the republican party for the presidency.

The votes in the Denver convention that nominated Bryan came mostly from those states that will elect delegates to the electoral college, showing conclusively that the voters and the party workers in these states were thoroughly in harmony with Mr. Bryan and his views.

The states from which Mr. Taft got his most ardent support were states that will not and cannot choose delegates to practically so, while the fifth is in reservation as to its character and ownership. Those completed and those nearly ready are "Algeria," book by Glen Macdonough, announced as the opening attraction of the Broadway theatre some time next month; "Victoria," book by George V. Hobart, will have an early production by Joseph Brooks; "The Prima Donna," book by Henry Dutton, for Fritz Scheff's use, and "Little Nemo," book by Harry B. Smith, will be a gorgeous musical spectacle.

the electoral college in support of Mr. Taft, showing that Mr. Taft and those responsible for his nomination brought about that nomination through dictating terms in democratic states.

All in all, one is forced to the conclusion that as between the ownership of the republican party by Mr. Roosevelt and the ownership of the democratic party by Mr. Bryan, the ownership by Mr. Roosevelt is not by any means the more desirable or praiseworthy.

Then again, if additional testimony is needed it might be said in all truth and in all candor, that Bryan had no offices to bestow, no federal officers to coerce into obedience, and that the necessity of and the hope of continuing to feed at the public crib were not instrumentalities that he could use to compel obedience to his wishes.

Talk by republicans about Bryan owning the democratic party, in the face of conditions, seems to come with very poor taste.

Men Were on Their Way Home

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 28.—A gasoline launch, "The Merry Widow," carrying from 16 to 20 workmen from the Jones and Laughlin Steel company's plant across the Monongahela river to their homes in the south side section of the city, was capsized shortly after 6 o'clock last night in twenty feet of water by waves from a pool coal boat. Welch alleged that Dr. Quimby took the letters, two of them testimonials of good character and the other two evidence in a law case, which he says he lost because of the absence of the letters.

HIS FATAL DIVE

Variety Performer Seriously Injured

NANTASKET, July 28.—Edward G. Darling of Manchester, England, a variety performer, was seriously injured last night when, after a sensational backward dive, his head struck the concrete bottom of a shallow lagoon.

He is now at the point of death in the Emergency hospital. Twenty stitches were taken to close the wound made at the base of the performer's brain.

Darling is known as "The Flaming Rolling Devil," and his act consisted of a dash down a steep incline on roller skates while enveloped in flames. There is an upward shoot at the end of the run and as he leaves the performer makes a backward whip dive and lands in the lagoon.

After last night's performance it was noticed that Darling did not get to the surface as quickly as usual. It was then realized that he must have struck the hard bottom of the small artificial pond. Harold Starks of Northampton, a park employee, dived into the water and found Darling lying face downward.

FOR MOTOR RACE

Subscriptions Solicited for the Big Race

To the Public Spirited Citizens of Lowell:

The Lowell Automobile club, after spending a great deal of labor and money, and having received all legal sanction from the state, city of Lowell and town of Tyngsboro, and having perfected all the details pertaining to the race, now respectfully call upon the merchants and financiers of the city for subscriptions.

We hope that everybody in this city will appreciate our labor and what this event means to Lowell, and let us prove to the country at large that this is a "city that does things."

That the spirit of progressiveness is not only characteristic of a few, but of the entire population and that we, one and all, will help to make this event a rousing success.

The following is a list of the expenses and resources incidental to erecting grand stands, band stand, judges' stand, oiling the road, wiring off same, 500 men to patrol, telephone service, and other expenses. The subscription to be paid back after the race from the revenue derived from the following sources as enumerated below:

EXPENSES.

Entrance fees, 12 cars at $500 each ..... 6000
Revenue for vitagraph machines ..... 1000
Total ..... $25,250

Should we only receive 50 per cent of the apparent revenue we would then have enough to pay all expenses, and this would mean only 5000 people in the grand stand, parking only 1000 automobiles, selling 5000 programs, 5000 score cards, and an equal depreciation from other sources.

We feel that there is not one chance in 100 for a deficit, as if it rains the race will be postponed to the next pleasant day.

We believe it a good investment for every public spirited citizen to help this celebration along, enabling our city to get a world-wide reputation, and bring in thousands of manufacturers, financiers, and sight-seers to our city, with the hope that some will ultimately locate their manufacturing establishments here or assist to finance some of our already established concerns.

Besides this, a great multitude of people will certainly spend in our city many thousands of dollars during the day of the race and many days previous thereto.

We therefore respectfully hope that your checks will be willingly sent and credited to your lien on the revenue, pro rata to the amount of your subscription. Make checks payable to John A. McKenna, secretary, Lowell Automobile club and board of trade, 90 Central block, Lowell, Mass.

A guaranteed subscription to the amount of $10,000 will be necessary to put this race through, and all subscriptions should be in before August 1.

HE LOST $15,000

Scranton Hotel Man Taken in by Confidence Men

NEW YORK, July 28.—Frederick Holzmann, proprietor of the St. Charles hotel in Scranton, Penn., and one of the solid business men in that city, has had some remarkable experiences recently which have prompted an investigation by central office detectives and Dist. Atty. Jerome. The information in the hands of the police has placed them on the track of a band of confidence men, with headquarters in this city, who have been operating extensively along entirely new lines.

A popular guest at the Scranton hotel until a few days ago was Charles Weber, who registered as a New Yorker, had the best suite in the house and spent money freely. He claimed to represent one of the largest wholesale houses in the country, and was soon on intimate terms with Landlord Holzmann. The latter told Weber of some valuable timber lands in Tennessee upon which he held an option. Weber replied that he had a friend in New York named Lane who was also interested in Tennessee timber properties and who was organizing a syndicate of capitalists to develop them. Weber volunteered to come to New York with Holzmann and introduce him to Lane.

PASSED AS "GOVERNOR"

They met Lane at one of the big hotels here, and after a business-like talk he consented to introduce the Scranton man to his millionaire backers with a view to promoting their interests jointly.

"Nearly all the men in our syndicate are off on their yachts or traveling abroad for the summer," said Lane. "but two of them, old man Cudahy and his son, the millionaire packers of Omaha, are on their way east in their private car and should be in Bridgeport, Conn., tomorrow. If you like we'll take a run up there in the morning and lay the matter before them."

The following day, in Bridgeport, Lane introduced Holzmann to his wealthy backers. The elder man was a stout, dignified, full-bearded man, apparently past 60 years of age, while the younger was a tall set-up chap of medium height, who continually addressed the elder as "Governor." The meeting took place in a hotel near the railway station, and while the Tennessee timber proposition was being discussed over an excellent luncheon, it developed that the private car in which the Cudahys traveled had been sent to the shops for repairs, but would be in commission again before the day was over.

FIGHT IN BOSTON.

Over the coffee and cigars the old man became confidential.

"The fact is," he said, "that the boy and I have come east here for a little sport. We've brought along with us a clever little fighter named Sullivan, who has licked everything of his weight west of the Mississippi river, and we're satisfied he can't be beat."

"Mr. Lane has kindly consented to make a match for us with a Boston lad, and we're going to pull off the fight privately in the Boston tonight. If you care to see the fun you're welcome to come along."

Holzmann jumped at the chance. He

TAKES $5000 WORTH OF BOUT.

"I wanted to write you in the beginning," said Lane when they were alone, "but I was afraid the old man wouldn't like it. We're going to have the fight in the private house of one of the biggest bankers in the Back Bay section, and it would play the deuce if the newspapers or the police got onto it. We've got a fighter named Collins that'll put it over the western lad without a flinch. We've been framing up this little game for weeks and it's such a sure thing that I've put up $10,000 on it. If you've got a few thousand to put up you can't lose, and a stiff bet would make you solid with the old man."

Through a Bridgeport bank Holzmann drew a draft for $5000 on his Scranton bankers and turned the cash over to Lane to bet for him. At 10 that same evening they took a cab in Boston, and after half an hour's drive pulled up before a mansion in a residence section of the town.

"FIGHT" IN RESIDENCE.

There were four men in the room besides the two westerners, and after Holzmann had been introduced all around two young men in fighting costume wearing boxing gloves, were admitted. One of the strangers was selected as stakeholder and several bets were put up in his hands by the side of which Holzmann's $5000 seemed rather small.

GETS "SOLAR PLEXUS"

On the first round Collins had the better of it. He came up fresh and smiling for the fourth round and sailed in hammer and tongs. The round had been in progress about 20 seconds when the western lad landed a right swing in the Boston boy's ribs which doubled him up like a knife and left him writhing in apparent agony on the floor. There was a count of 10 seconds and Sullivan was declared the winner.

TAKES $10,000 MORE.

"There was a lot of talk all around the next day, and the outcome of it was that Lane arranged another match between some lads with odds at 3 to 1 in our favor. I drew another draft for $10,000 on my bankers and put the money in Lane's hands to wager. For some reason the fight was postponed, and when I looked for Lane later I could not find him."

"I tried one whole day to locate the house where the fight was pulled off, but couldn't find it."

Holzmann came back to New York and put the matter in the hands of his attorney, John M. Coleman of 115 Broadway, who took him to police headquarters. There he found that the men introduced to him as the Cudahys were impostors. From the rogues' gallery he picked out the picture of old James Morgan, alias "Deafy" Morris, as the man who had played the part of the elder Cudahy, and Frederick Gondoloff as the man who had posed as the millionaire's son.

Gondoloff is under arrest and held in $15,000 bail for examination Wednesday. The police are looking for "Deafy" Morris and the rest of the gang, whose respective identities have not been established.

RHODE ISLAND

Would Not Recognize Bay State License

BOSTON, July 28.—Interstate marriage regulations presented a difficult problem for Frank M. Ott, the night electrician of the Boston & Maine railroad, but the young man is resourceful and has at last entered the wedded state. It all happened because a Massachusetts marriage license is useless in Rhode Island.

Mr. Ott's matrimonial venture was sudden and a complete surprise to his friends. He obtained a license to wed in Somerville, and shortly after the young couple who were to be made man and wife took a train for Providence.

But when everything was in readiness for the ceremony it was discovered that there was lacking a license that would hold good in Little Rhody. In vain Ott protested that he had something just as good as the Rhode Island Legislature could prescribe. Finally bride and groom came back to Massachusetts and were married in Attleboro.

WANTS DIVORCE

Husband Wrote Wife He Was Dead

PORTLAND, Ore., July 28.—To deceive his wife and give himself a good puff at the same time, Augustus J. Wieland, using an assumed name, wrote to her of his own death, saying, in part:

"He died a saint. He was a good, Christian man—one anyone would be proud to tie to." This was part of the testimony given before Judge O'Day in the circuit court at the trial of Mrs. Wieland's suit for divorce.

The letter purports to give details of the death of Wieland in Alaska. Mrs. Wieland, curious to see the man who had been at her husband's deathbed, went to Tacoma to see "John Worthing," and discovered that he was, in fact, her husband, very much alive. She returned to Portland and at once began proceedings for divorce, which was granted.

Five Hundred Tents Are Up Already

BOSTON, July 28.—The tented city on Franklin field, in which the host of visitors to the coming Knights of Pythias convention will be sheltered, is beginning to take shape. Already about 500 tents of the 2900 which will eventually stand in ordered rows upon the turf of the playground have been put up. They are on the southwest side of the camp, toward Stratton street, and stakes for about 500 more have been driven in symmetrical lines, all the way over to Talbot avenue. The major general's tent was pitched yesterday in what will be the central portion of the camp in the rear of the locker building at the Blue Hill avenue entrance.

The hospital tents, near Stratton street, and the kitchen and the mess tents, close to Talbot avenue, have yet to be erected, and so have the tents of the brigadier generals and of the colonels, along Blue Hill avenue, together with the band stand and the vaudeville stage in the central area. Laborers are now at work removing rocks and rubbish, and evening the surface of the ground preparatory to pitching the rest of the tents. Work on the sinks has not yet been begun.

In spite of the fact that the city authorities are thoroughly satisfied with the sanitary arrangements provided for the encampment on Franklin field, the citizens living in the neighborhood do not cease their protests against it. The officers of both the park department and the city board of health have seen the plans and are satisfied that the sanitation will be what it should be. There will be United States army officers present to inspect the drills and the sanitation regulations will be the same as those of the government in military encampments. It has been officially given out that the number of men who will occupy the camp will be between 7000 and 8000.

CAMP OF ROVERS

Ordered From Indian Orchard by

Supt. Moffatt

The band of rovers who for the past couple of weeks have been camping near the old First street car barn in Indian Orchard have been notified by Supt. Moffatt of the police department to pack up their wagons and hike for some other city or else some other part of Lowell where they will not be considered obnoxious.

Passengers on the electric cars which are operated between this city and Lawrence were the first to have their attention attracted to the new campers. Yesterday morning Supt. Moffatt drove down to the camp and informed the party that they would have to pack up and vanquish before sunset.

Early last evening the superintendent thought he would take a ride down to the Orchard to see if his orders had been carried out and was rather surprised to find that instead of hustling to make for some other site the party was engaged in preparing for supper. Inasmuch as the superintendent upon getting into conversation with one of the party found that the band con-

MR. TAFT AND HIS LIFE AT YALE

Even at That Early Period of His Life the Republican Candidate Dominated Both Physically and Mentally.

THE class of 1878 at Yale was a notable one. William Howard Taft was a member of it, for one thing, but even before the Chicago convention started him formally on his way to the White House the class had achieved a reputation. It was the largest class that had ever been graduated by Old Eli. It had 185 members, and of these 129 were given diplomas. Today there are ninety-six of these alumni living.

The class was an unusually mature one for Yale, the average age at time of graduation being twenty-three and seven-tenths years. With the exception of the output of 1871, this was the highest average age of any class ever matriculated at the school. The oldest man was a little past thirty, and the youngest was about nineteen. Seventeen others were not old enough to vote.

It seems that in the matter of avoirdupois the class of 1878 tipped the scales most forcibly. The class records show that in 1878 the average weight was 151 pounds, which was only a few ounces less than the heaviest man in the class of 1876, in which the present head of the university, Dr. Arthur T. Hadley, was a bright and shining light. In the official record the weight of William Howard Taft is put at the modest figure of 225 pounds. The big presidential candidate confessed during his recent visit to his alma mater that he had deliberately falsified the returns; that his actual weight at the time of graduation was 233 pounds. It is needless to add that Taft was the heavyweight of the class. The light-weight was a little Japanese, Inajiro Tanaka Tajiri, who was as bright as he was tiny. Tajiri weighed only 107 pounds, but his brain was as alert as that of any member of his class. He went back to Japan after graduation and has gathered to himself as many honors and as much wealth as have any of his classmates. Those who were present on commencement day that year still remember the striking contrast between the diminutive Mr. Tajiri and the elephantine Mr. Taft.

James M. Lamberton was the secretary of the class, and it is on account of his remarkable attention to minute detail that we are enabled to know so many interesting things about the various members. According to Mr. Lamberton's notes, the average height was slightly above five feet eight inches. The tallest man was Herbert Wolcott Bowen, who did not graduate at Yale, but took a course at the Columbia Law school, afterward going into the diplomatic service, becoming United States minister to Venezuela. As further evidence of Mr. Lamberton's fondness for legion and his friends. He was a member of the Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Linonia and Theta the highly exclusive and ardently coveted Skull and Bones, an honor Yaleman that comes to but few and confers a distinction in the presence of which all merely academic preferment pales. As if all this were insufficient, young Taft was accorded the crown-

supremacy without an instance of dissent. He accepted the leadership provisionally, but from the first made it plain that his chief business at Yale was to prepare himself for the battle of life; that he could not be tempted to neglect his literary opportunities by anything that college sports could offer. They made him president of the class boat club in his freshman year, ers, being the salutatorian of his class, and also class orator, which is a remarkable showing in a class of 129. Signs Pointed Taft's Way.

If on that commencement day thirty years ago the student body had been required to express an opinion as to the member of the graduating class, with the most brilliant prospect of demonstrated that he alone was possessed of the elements of actual greatness. With the possible exception of Herbert Wolcott Bowen no other among the hundred odd has achieved a national reputation. Many of them are men of affairs in their own limited circles, but they do not shine with a brilliancy that overreaches that limit. Even Mr. Bowen did not receive his satisfactorily that President Cleveland promoted him to consul general. The following year, when Barcelona got up a demonstration in disapproval of the Morgan bill to recognize the Cuban insurgents, Mr. Bowen managed the delicate matter with a diplomatic shrewdness that gave great satisfaction to our state department. Two years later, at the breaking out of war, he was the last of the diplomatic representatives of this country in Spain to leave his post. President McKinley appointed Mr. Bowen minister resident at Tehran, and he was afterward given the post of minister to Venezuela. In the quarrel of that government with Great Britain, Germany and Italy he represented the South American republic, and in 1903 he was counsel for the United States and Venezuela before The Hague tribunal. It was at that time that Yale conferred the long delayed distinction on him.

Perhaps the member of the class of 1878 who comes next in point of achievement is John Proctor Clarke of the New York supreme bench. He was a very bright student at Yale and also prominent in rowing matters. He is a warm friend of President Roosevelt and accompanied him on his vice presidential campaign in 1900. Edward Baldwin Whitney was one of the hard workers of his class. President Cleveland appointed him assistant attorney general of the United States, and while he held the office he argued a hundred cases in the supreme court, among them the income tax and Debs matters. He is also the author of the New York tenement house act of 1901.

Inajiro Tanaka Tajiri is the only classmate whose career compares in expansiveness with that of Mr. Taft. He has filled a number of high offices in his native country, among them imperial comptroller of finance, comptroller of the Bank of Japan and minister of the department of finance of the empire. He was created a baron for service during the China-Japanese war. Edward Enoch Reed was the only negro member of the class. He devoted himself to teaching and is now a resident of Baltimore. Howard Clarke Hollister was one of the most popular members of the class, and he has been a lifelong friend and neighbor of the Tafts at Cincinnati. He is a lawyer and has been judge of the court of common pleas in the First Ohio district.

Altogether it is a great satisfaction to Yale to have at last one of her sons stepped safely on the tide which may carry him to the presidency. If Mr. Taft should be elected, he will be the first alumnus of Old Eli to arrive. Harvard has furnished three presidents, the two Adamses and Theodore Roosevelt. William and Mary have done equally well with Jefferson, Madison and Tyler. William Henry Harrison was educated at Hampden-Sydney. James K. Polk at the University of North Carolina, Franklin Pierce at Bowdoin, James Buchanan at Dickinson, General Grant at West Point, Rutherford B. Hayes at Kenyon, James A. Garfield at Williams, Chester A. Arthur at Union, Benjamin Harrison at Miami; all the others were the product of the minor schools.

Haverhill Boy is Held on Charge of Manslaughter

HAVERHILL, July 28.—Fifteen-year-old John W. Greenlay, Jr., was arrested yesterday afternoon by City Marshal Mack, charged with manslaughter in shooting his 10-year-old companion on a pigeon hunting trip yesterday. Thomas Morrison, a ward of the state board of charity, was the victim. Young Greenlay admits the shooting, but says it was accidental, and the police and medical examiner do not dispute his claim. He is out on $3000 bail.

When neighbors of the East parish reached the Dresser pasture they found the body of young Morrison, his clothes as from the powder charge and a wound in his right breast made by a full charge of shot. Dr. Wager of Groveland found a faint pulse, but the boy died a moment later. Young Greenlay's story of the shooting is in part corroborated by his father, former Councilman John W. Greenlay of Kenosha street, as well as by Mrs. Hilliard Hale with whom Morrison lived.

The police version of the shooting is that young Morrison went with Greenlay to the pasture in the rear of their homes and that the underbrush struck the trigger of the double barreled shot gun, snapping it and causing an explosion of a charge of powder and bird shot, both of which entered the Morrison boy's breast on the right side, while the powder from the powder pan on the weapon was blown into young Greenlay's body, though he is not injured.

The Dresser pasture is in the rear of the Greenlay home. Pigeons and crows have damaged the corn crops about there. Young Greenlay and Morrison went out after them. Greenlay carrying a double barreled gun.

The two boys had in a clump of bushes waiting for the birds. Greenlay cocked the gun on one barrel. After they had waited some time, Greenlay got up. Morrison was at his side and the gun rested across his arm as he started to make his way from beneath the bushes. He says he warned Morrison for the second time to be careful and keep in the rear, but the boy paid no heed and Greenlay, intent on warding off the bushes as he crouched and made his way through them, paid no further attention to him, believing him safe in the rear.

There was an explosion and the gun recoiled against Greenlay's side and as quickly as the smoke cleared away he turned to see what had become of his companion, a crashing sound in the bushes near him indicating that the boy had either dodged back or had fallen.

When Greenlay saw his companion lying on the ground he said: "Tommy, are you dead?" and as there was no answer he ran from the scene to spread the alarm. The first person he met was James Holt, to whom he shouted that he had shot Tommy Morrison. The story soon spread and neighbors hurried to the scene of the shooting.

Medical Examiner Croston, after a talk with young Greenlay, decided that while the case was undoubtedly accidental it was a matter for the court to pass on.

BAD COIN PLANT

Found in House in New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, July 28.—After Mark T. Rounds, the alleged counterfeit arrested at Crescent Park Sunday, made a confession yesterday. Patrick J. Ahern, a secret service man from the Boston office, visited his room at 233 Acushnet avenue, and seized an outfit which he says is the most complete that he has ever located.

Mr. Rounds was employed as an engraver at the Fairport Manufacturing company and came to this city Feb. 6 of this year. During the last six months there have been numerous counterfeit half dollars and quarters in circulation in this city, and they became so numerous that the police issued warrants to citizens.

Mr. Ahern came to this city with the keys to a trunk and closet in Rounds room, and he seized all the metal and paraphernalia that was found there. There was a small gas stove, about 50 pounds of metal used as a base in the batteries, bottles of nitrates and potassium cyanide and crucibles.

There was a half-pound candy box filled with new half dollars and quarters, the halves made from 1901 die, and the quarters from the 1907 die. Rounds had made plaster casts for dies. It is claimed, but none were found among his goods. They were probably cracked and broken in use, and afterward destroyed.

There was also a small bank with the inscription, "Save and you will learn, dimes into dollars turn," in which Rounds is said to have put the good money that he received in exchange for the spurious coin. This was not opened, but it was quite heavy and indicated success in getting rid of the lightweight coin manufactured in the little mint.

Worth Knowing

To remove Pimples, Blackheads, blotches and all forms of skin eruptions, is, according to a well known physician, a very easy matter; he says that many are afflicted with some one of the above ailments, and are subject to a great deal of embarrassment on account of the unsightly appearance which they present, and recommends the following simple harmless and inexpensive treatment. Go to your drugist and get this prescription filled: Clearola one-half ounce, Ether one ounce, Alcohol seven ounces; mix, shake well and apply to the parts affected night and morning, allowing it to remain for at least ten minutes, then wipe off the powder from the skin. Use a soft cloth or sponge in applying the mixture and in from ten days to two weeks your face will be smooth and clear as a marriage bell. Get the Pure Clearola, which is only put up in one-half ounce packages. Ask to see it.

FINE PRIZE BULL PRES. FALLIERES HAD TRACHOMA

Injured in Encounter With Balloon

PROVIDENCE, July 28.—The prize bull owned by Dr. James E. Sullivan, ex-health officer of Fall River, Mass., and now a Providence millionaire, was yesterday injured by a shore resort balloon. The bull had his nose ring yanked out by the balloon, which escaped soon after it landed on the animal's back. The balloon was considerably torn in the encounter, which was a fierce one. The rigging of the airship became entangled in the bull's nose ring when he made a bolt from it, and the ten-acre pasture was none too large for the beast and the balloon when they were at it good and fast.

Dr. Sullivan said after the accident the bull had been damaged $50 worth, while the aeronaut said his loss to the gas bag was surely $75.

Witnesses to the encounter declare the bull went high on his hind legs with the balloon pulling him skyward before the ring was pulled free from his nose. The queer combat occurred on the East Providence farm of Dr. Sullivan.

Dr. Varney did not hold out any hope for the lad's recovery and he continued to sink until the end came in the early afternoon hour.

Met the Emperor of Russia Yesterday

REVAL, July 28.—The harbor of Reval was bathed in sunshine for the meeting between Emperor Nicholas of Russia and President Fallieres of France, which occurred yesterday afternoon. M. Fallieres arrived here at three p. m., on the French battleship Verite, which was escorted by the armored cruiser Dupetit Thouars and the gunboat Cassini, and found awaiting him the principal part of Russia's fighting fleet drawn up in two lines. The French squadron took up an assigned position between the two rows.

As the French ships swung into place a series of salutes was fired. The strains of the Marseillaise, so long interdicted in Russia on account of its revolutionary connection, were heard on the quarter deck of the imperial yacht Standart and the Russian warship.

The emperor immediately sent Admiral Dikoff, minister of marine, to welcome President Fallieres and after a short interval the French president, accompanied by his suite, on a gorgeous stand barge, proceeded to the Standart to make the acquaintance of the Russian ruler. Emperor Nicholas met him at the gangway and greeted him with great cordially. President Fallieres was then presented to the Empress of Russia, whose hand he kissed, after which the imperial children and the members of the Russian suite were presented to President Fallieres.

The emperor later returned the president's visit on board the Verite and spent an hour there. An interchange of visits lasted throughout the entire afternoon and they furnished the occasion for long informal conversations between M. Fallieres and Emperor Nicholas.

A gala dinner was served last night on board the imperial yacht Standart. During the dinner, the French and Russian ships were brilliantly illuminated.

The emperor in toasting President Fallieres extended to him a warm welcome to Russia. He expressed the conviction that the president's visit would result in still further strengthening the bonds of friendship and uniting the two countries with a view to co-operation in maintaining and consolidating the world's peace.

M. Fallieres, after cordially thanking the emperor for the welcome, said he was happy to affirm the sentiments of constant and faithful friendship which united the two people and which would be continued and consolidated by the present meeting, not only guaranteeing the common interests of France and Russia, but also the European balance and the maintenance of peace.

Girl Headed for Lowell is Detained

FEAR OF SPREADING DISEASE

The Cause of Her Detention in Port

The steamship Republic which docked in Boston, from Liverpool, Sunday had among her passengers a 16-year-old girl named Elmas Augusta, who sailed alone, bound for this city to see relatives. The girl was found to be suffering from trachoma and was detained and will be returned to her native land.

A party of Lowell deep sea fishermen headed by John Hull, of the Joyce Co., passed the Republic three miles outside of Boston Light and received a grand salute from the big crowd of immigrants assembled on the dock. The Lowell crowd was in a 35-foot naphtha launch and when the launch caught the swell in the wake of the ocean-liner some of them thought that their end had come.

The sale itself was managed wholly by Miss Rourke, who also, with the exception of a few kitchen aprons and some contributions of her friends, made and donated everything to be sold. Everything on sale was very dainty and useful. There were articles all the way from traveling sewing cases and passepartout pictures to the larger fancy things.

The sale began at 2 o'clock and lasted all the afternoon and was of great aid and encouragement to the orphanage, which receives comparatively little assistance from charity in proportion to its merit.

THE GOVERNMENT

Frustrated Plot for an Uprising in Portugal

LISBON, July 28.—The government, according to the newspapers, has discovered and frustrated a widespread republican plot for an uprising scheduled for today, the anniversary of the abortive revolt of July 28 which was suppressed by ex-Premier Franco.

This announcement follows a large number of mysterious arrests made during the past few weeks.

Senhor Magro, the chief of police, says that many men are implicated, including officers of the army.

The colonels of all the regiments located in the capital were summoned before the minister of war and informed that they would be held responsible for the loyalty of their men. Ball cartridges have been served out to the members of the municipal guard.

MINISTER DEREUS

To Report on the Situation in Venezuela

THE HAGUE, July 28.—The talk of a bombardment by Holland of any Venezuelan port or ports or even a naval demonstration in Venezuelan waters as a result of the difficulties between the Netherlands and the government of President Castro was today characterized in official circles as premature. The rupture, it was explained, was up to the present time diplomatic only.

The foreign officers have instructed Minister Dereus, who was expelled from Venezuela by President Castro, to come here immediately and report fully on the existing situation.

IS IN QUARANTINE.

WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, July 28.—M. Dereus, the former minister of the Netherlands to Venezuela, said today that the interests of Holland had been confined to the German legation.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Shown by Delegates to Independence League Convention

CHICAGO, July 28.—The independence party which last night launched itself fully into American politics by opening its first national convention, was early today busily engaged in the construction of its initial platform and in the selection of its first presidential candidate.

The enthusiasm shown by the delegates last night was taken by the leaders of the party as a happy omen of the future of the organization. The resolutions committee which organized last night immediately after the convention by the selection of Howard S. Taylor of Chicago as chairman, continued work far into the night and was hard at it at an early hour today. The sentiment seems to be in favor of a more radical utterance on the question of injunctions than was made by either the democrats or republican parties.

A declaration in favor of prohibiting injunctions until after a full trial by law has found the greatest number of advocates.

The Californians are pressing for a forcible declaration against Asiatic immigration and a strong plank is looked for. The financial plank probably will favor the issuance of all money direct by the government instead of through national banks.

Although Mr. Hearst has repeatedly declared that he will not be a candidate for the presidency, there is a strong sentiment among the delegates for him.

The Empire state will present the name of Judge Reuben R. Lyon.

Mr. Hilsen of Massachusetts up to the time the convention met was considered to have a fairly strong lead in the race, but Mr. Hearst's speech as temporary chairman brought him so strongly to the front that Mr. Hilsen was to all appearances somewhat obscured.

He and his friends, however, were today supremely confident that he will be the nominee. John Temple Graves declares that nothing but a stampede for Mr. Hearst will prevent his nomination. It was announced early today that the committee on resolutions would be prepared to present its report to the convention by the time it was called to order at two o'clock. The reports of the various committees and the consideration of the platform will probably occupy the greater part of the day and no nominations are likely before the night session.

SKIRMISH RUN

A Feature in Today's Shooting Tournament

WAKEFIELD, July 28.—Conditions for the second day's shooting in the New England Military Rifle association's 4th annual tournament were not so good as were those of yesterday, when the state teams went out for the skirmish run at 6 a. m. At the conclusion of the skirmish run which lasted for two hours the company teams from the several states went to the targets at the 200 yard stage and later retired to the 500 yard mark in the competition for the trophy and medals offered by the First Corps of Cadets of the M. V. M. In this event the teams consisted of five men each. All members of the organized militia of New England were eligible to the Hulo match which was shot at 1000 yards and to the Essex county match which was shot at from the 200 yards distances with rapid fire. The usual number of pistol matches with varied fires were held during the day.

In Double Header at Washington Park This Afternoon

FIRST GAME

INNINGS	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	TOTAL
LOWELL	-	-	0	1	0	2	0	0	0	3
LAWRENCE	-	-	0	0	0	3	0	0	6	9

The double header at Washington park this afternoon between Lowell and Lawrence attracted about 900 fans. During the practice the members of the Lowell aggregation showed up well, and when the game was called Warner was on the slab and Lemieux was on the receiving end.

Eaton, who has been catching for the visitors, has been released and this afternoon Almsmith, formerly of the Lowell team, was the man behind the gun (the bat). Whiting was the man who threw the balls for Lawrence. Umpire Connolly was the decision maker and he called the first game at 2:10 o'clock, the batting order being as follows:

LOWELL	LAWRENCE
Vandergriff 2b	as Flynn
Connors rf	McLean
Zinnar cf	Harter
Magee lf	Wilson
Beard c	2b Connaughton
Uniac ss	1b Murch
Doran 1b	c Almsmith
Lemieux p	p Whiting

FIRST INNING.
Neither side scored in the first inning. Flynn, the first man up, hit to Vandergriff and was retired at the infield. McLean followed with a single. Harter hit to Uniac forcing McLean at second. Vinson fled to Vandergriff.

In Lowell's half Vandergriff slammed the ball out to deep left field for a two-bagger. Connors sent Candy to third with a sacrifice. Zinnar fell a victim to McLean, the latter catching what looked to be an impossible one. Vandergriff tried to score on McLean's hit to the outfield but was nailed at the plate.

Score—Lowell 0, Lawrence 0.

SECOND INNING.
The home team scored one run in the second inning, while the visitors failed to send a man across the plate.

Wilson opened with a strike-out. Connaughton drew a base on balls but in trying to steal second was nailed. Murch fled out to Zinnar.

In the latter half of the inning Magee singled to right field. Beard followed with another single. Uniac sacrificed advancing both men on base. Doran hit to Whiting and was out at first. Lemieux hit to Wilson who threw bad to first and Magee scored. Lemieux tried to steal second and was thrown out.

Score—Lowell 1, Lawrence 0.

THIRD INNING.
Two more goose eggs were registered in the third inning. Almsmith hit to Warner who knocked the ball down and Connors flied it to first. Whiting hit to Connors and was out at first. Flynn hit to Uniac who threw bad to first and on the throw to the home plate he travelled to third, but McLean closed the inning with a strike out.

In the latter half of the third Warner singled and went to second on a sacrifice by Vandergriff. Connors hit to Connaughton and both men on base. Warner going to third. Zinnar closed the inning on a fly to Flynn.

Score—Lowell 1, Lawrence 0.

FOURTH INNING.
The home team scored two runs in the fourth inning while the visitors were unable to score. Harter flied out to Beard. Vinson struck out and Wilson fled out to Beard.

Magee bunted along the first base line and was safe. Beard reached first. Uniac sacrificed and both men on base were advanced. Doran flied out to Harter. Magee scored on the put-out. Lemieux drew a base on balls and stole second. Warner hit to right field and Beard scored. Vandergriff flied out to Flynn.

Score—Lowell 3, Lawrence 0.

FIFTH INNING.
The visitors tied the score in the fifth inning owing to the fact that Warner went to pieces. Connaughton opened with a single and Murch followed with another. Almsmith bunted to Warner who hesitated and then threw to third, but he was too late and the bases were filled. Whiting struck out. Flynn singled to centre field and Connaughton and Murch scored. McLean sent the ball out for a two-bagger and Almsmith scored. Harter slammed the ball out to the field but Flynn was caught between third and home. Vinson hit to Warner and was out at first.

During the first half of the inning Dan Dugan got into an argument with the umpire and was put off the grounds. Despite the fact that Dan was not in the lineup he was coaching in such a manner that the umpire decided that he would not be a loss to the game if ordered out.

SECOND GAME

INNINGS	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	TOTAL
LAWRENCE	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	1	- 5

After a ten minutes' intermission, the second game was started and the lineup was practically the same with the exception that Rivard replaced Warner on the slab for the Lowell team and Gilroy did the slab work for Lawrence while Dan Dugan went behind the bat.

FIRST INNING.
The visitors went out in quick order in the first inning. Flynn hit to Rivard and was out at first. McLean flied out to Uniac and Harter hit to Vandergriff and was out at first. Zinnar sent a grounder to Gilroy and was out at first. Magee flied out to Connaughton.

Score—Lowell 3, Lawrence 3.

SIXTH INNING.
In the sixth inning Wilson fouled out to Vandergriff and Connaughton flied out to Beard. Murch singled to left field but Almsmith flied out to Connors.

Nothing doing in the latter half of the inning. Beard opened with a single, but Whiting caught him off first and there was one out. Uniac was second out on a fly to Harter. Doran singled to right field but Lemieux hit to Wilson forcing Doran at second.

Score—Lowell 3, Lawrence 3.

SEVENTH INNING.
In the seventh inning Whiting retired and Eaton went to bat for him, but he fanned the breezes. Flynn hit in front of the plate and Lemieux threw him out at first. McLean followed with a single. Harter hit to Uniac, forcing McLean at second.

Uniac was taken out in the latter half of the seventh and Gilroy substituted.

In the latter half of the inning Warner flied out to Murch. Vandergriff struck out. Connors was hit by a pitched ball and walked to first. Zinnar hit to Connaughton and was retired at first.

Score—Lowell 3, Lawrence 3.

EIGHTH INNING.
The visitors went out in one, two, three order in the eighth inning. Vinson flied out to Zinnar. Wilson flied out to Magee and Connaughton hit to Uniac and was out at first.

Magee flied out to Flynn. Beard got three strikes, but Almsmith dropped the ball and the batter reached first. Uniac hit to Wilson and was out at first. Doran flied out to Vinson.

Score—Lowell 3, Lawrence 3.

TAFT ACCEPTS

Candidate is Notified of His Nomination for President

He Delivered Speech That Was Approved by Pres. Roosevelt—Revision of Tariff, Campaign Contributions, Injunctions and Other Matters Touched on in His Address

CINCINNATI, O., July 28.—Standing on a flag draped platform in front of the old colonial portico of his brother's home, William H. Taft today accepted the nomination of the republican party to be its candidate for the presidency. The quiet old residence of Charles H. Taft was the center of a demonstration unequalled in Cincinnati's history. Political leaders from far and near gathered to give the first portion of his remarks being that the republican strength lies in the maintenance of the Roosevelt policies.

He described what the president has done in the line of reform and declared the chief function of the next administration to be a clinching of what already had been accomplished. He asserted in comparing the platforms of two old parties that republican declaration is progressive and regulative, while the democratic is radical and destructive.

When the final address was finished there was a procession of marching clubs, militia and various civic organizations. From an improvised reviewing stand on the sidewalk Mr. Taft reviewed the passing procession.

Just prior to the notification ceremonies today Judge Taft gave out the following statement:

"The formal and political speech of acceptance written to greet and thank the republican representatives of all the states and territories of the union offers no opportunity for Mrs. Taft and me to express the feeling of gratitude which swells up in our hearts at from our friends, fellow citizens and neighbors of Cincinnati without regard to party. Born, reared and educated within the limits of this dear old city we return to it after eight years of absence to meet the non-partisan good will and rejoicing at the honor which merits which appeared in the manu-

6 O'CLOCK IT'S TAFT'S DAY Great Demonstration Took Place in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, O., July 28.—William Howard Taft today accepted the republican nomination. His official notification combined a political jubilee for the city of Cincinnati, a historic gathering of national party leaders and an occasion for the announcement by the candidate of his political tenets, designed as the text of republican oratory throughout the campaign.

Notification day broke with a roar of cannon from the seven hills which looked down at seven o'clock this morning through the customary haze and smoke to discover the city bedecked and garlanded, flags flying and banners waving, streets thronged and bands playing.

The name of Taft was on every lip and the "Taft smile" was commented on as being universally in evidence. It was half past nine when the crowds began to participate in the exercises. This early ceremony constituted a simple expression of neighborly affection. Charles H. Taft was made custodian of a huge American flag which was raised to the top of a fifty foot mast erected in the front yard of the Taft mansion, the gift of the people of Cincinnati to the Taft family with the single stipulation that it be raised whenever the candidate is in the city and lowered during his absence. The presentation was made the occasion for an invocation by Bishop David H. Moore and an address by Congressman Jacob Bromwell and a response by Charles H. Taft. The yard and streets had been thronged with people from early morning to witness the flag raising ceremonies. "America," sung by the assemblage, selections by a band and by members of the Yale and Woodland alumni formed a part of the program.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. George A. Thayer. Meanwhile a band concert was being enjoyed by an immense crowd surrounding government square some blocks away and marching clubs were making practice runs. A long line of automobiles, carrying the guests of the Taft mansion, early in the forenoon and the members of the national committee of the republican party, escorted Judge Taft and his family to the Taft residence to take of a notification breakfast. This little feature was devoid of all ceremony.

With the hour of noon the party filed out of the old colonial front doors to the places assigned on the broad porches, with their fluttering canopies covering the guests of the Taft mansion. Senator William Warner of Missouri, past commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, chairman of the notification committee, escorted Judge Taft and his family to the Taft residence to take of a notification breakfast. This little feature was devoid of all ceremony.

Mr. Taft was smiling and happy from early morning. The porches and lawn were reserved for ticket holders, the street being the free-for-all field. A band in front of the platform on the front walk kept the crowd in a merry mood. For the sake of his hearers Mr. Taft took his blue pencil and went through his speech for the sole purpose of making its delivery a matter of less than an hour instead of two hours. He, however, did not eliminate any topics touched upon but simply "took out long detailed explanations, all of which will appear in full in the printed document. With the speech over, the scene was shifted for the review of the parade of marching clubs. A platform will extend from the mansion and over the sidewalk from which to review the parade.

Following the parade the committee members will be taken to the Cincinnati Country club where they are to have luncheon. Meanwhile in the city the end of the ceremonies will be marked by the release of hundreds of tiny balloons and a considerable number of large ones. Daylight fireworks will be set off in the government square.

The day's festivities are to be brought to an end by a night program of fireworks from the hills intended to surpass any previous display. This will be witnessed by the candidate, the notification committee and distinguished guests from the steamer Island Queen which will be escorted up the Ohio river by a flotilla of brightly illuminated motor craft. When the landing is made Mr. Taft will be escorted to the Taft residence.

Following the suggestion of the local committee in charge of notification day arrangements the American flag was almost exclusively used in the decoration of the city and from practically every downtown building the stars and stripes were fluttering throughout the day. The streets leading to the residence of Charles P. Taft at Fourth and Pike streets early were thronged with people anxious to witness the celebration.

HITCHCOCK ARRIVES. Frank H. Hitchcock, national chairman of the party, and a member of the notification committee from Alaska by proxy, arrived from Chicago during the morning. He went early to call upon Mr. Taft and expected to be near him throughout the day.

The ceremonies of the day at the Taft residence began at 2:30 a. m. with the raising of a large American flag to the top of a fifty foot staff. This was largely a neighborhood affair for the day was presented by Mr. Taft's neighbors. Judge Jacob H. Bromwell, who made the presentation speech, declared that the demonstration was in no sense partisan or political.

"For the time being," he said, "we have obliterated party lines and ignored national platforms. We are here simply as citizens of Cincinnati and friends, neighbors and admirers of William Howard Taft."

The flag was accepted by Charles P. Taft, at whose house the candidate will make his campaign headquarters during September and October.

Escorts of citizens gathered early at the Hotel Synton, from which place the notification committee in carriages moved toward the Taft residence at 10:45 a. m.

Mrs. William H. Taft arrived from Hot Springs this morning.

THE GOULD ROADS

Harriman to Take Part in Management

NEW YORK, July 28.—George J. Gould, head of the Gould system of railroads, on returning from Europe today in replying to a question whether E. H. Harriman would become a director of the Gould system said:

"I cannot say except that nothing would give me greater pleasure than to have Mr. Harriman with us. We need all the help of able men that we can secure."

Mr. Gould said he knew nothing concerning an arrangement for the payment of $8,000,000 of notes of the Wheeling and Lake Erie R. R. which fell due on August 1. Concerning his own property he said that while business had not yet reached the volume of last year his roads were now doing nearly a normal business.

Mr. Gould said that the excellence of crop conditions particularly affected the welfare of the Gould roads. Concerning the Standard Oil decision Mr. Gould said: "I think that marks the turn in the business situation. From the standpoint of railroad credit nothing did more to hurt this credit abroad than the huge fine assessed by Judge Landis. The foreign investor felt that at any time his property might be confiscated through no fault of his own. Judge Grosscup's decision again affirmed the American motto of fair play."

Mr. Gould added that he thought the one to answer for corporate misdeeds was some individual, not the innocent stockholders.

Mr. L. Schiff, of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. was a passenger of the Kronprinzessin Cecilie with Mr. Gould but Mr. Gould said that fact had no significance.

It was reported today that following Mr. Gould's return there will be a series of conferences between the representatives of the Gould interests, E. H. Harriman and Kuhn-Loeb & Co., and that as a result the Gould roads will receive strong financial support and Mr. Harriman will have a share in the management of the Gould system. Negotiations looking to that end are said to have taken place before Mr. Gould went abroad.

WOBURN, July 28.—Ludwig Wewerin, who was arrested last night and was thought to be Chris Zeltan, one of the participants in the Woburn shooting affray last February, and whom it was thought knew something about the Jamaica Plain affair, was released today after being looked at by several witnesses who failed to identify him.

TARIFF BOARD

Is Making Progress With Its Work

PARIS, July 28.—The work of the joint Franco-American tariff commission is proceeding rapidly and weekly sessions are being held. The entire subject of tariff relations between the two countries will be examined. As concessions that may be granted without legislation are limited by each country, the Americans began by submitting a list of definite inquiries to ascertain exactly how far the French government is able to go in the matter of the modification of the tariff and other regulations. In reply the French commissioners addressed a similar set of questions to the Americans. With the situation thus clarified the Americans today formally submitted a list of demands numbering ten. This doubtless will elicit counter propositions upon which the actual negotiations will begin.

TAFT ACCEPTS

has recently been conferred on me. We are deeply touched. We offer our sincere thanks to the committees of arrangement who have organized and made beautiful this expression of neighborly good will. Popular elections are uncertain but whatever beside me as a candidate we can never be deprived of the joy we feel at this welcome home.

When Mr. Taft first appeared on the front wearing his reading spectacles the crowd broke into cheering which the candidate smilingly acknowledged. Time and again demonstrations were renewed, finding their crest when Mr. Taft acknowledging the nomination and the responsibilities it imposed upon him launched into his speech of acceptance. The early mention of President Roosevelt's name and praise of his policies called out constantly recurring applause.

TAFT'S SPEECH.

Mr. Taft in accepting the nomination spoke in part as follows:

TREATMENT OF TRUSTS.

Unlawful trusts should be restrained with all the efficiency of injunctive process, and the persons engaged in maintaining them should be punished with all the severity of criminal prosecution, in order that the methods pursued in the operation of their business shall be brought within the law. To destroy them and to eliminate the wealth they represent from the productive capital of the country would entail enormous loss, and would throw out of employment myriads of workmen and workwomen. Such a result is wholly unnecessary to the accomplishment of the needed reform, and will inflict upon the innocent far greater punishment than upon the guilty.

REPUBLICAN DOCTRINE.

The republican doctrine of protection, as definitely announced by the republican convention of this year and by previous conventions, is that a tariff shall be imposed on all imported products, whether of the factory, farm or mine, sufficiently great to equal the difference between the cost of production abroad and at home, and that this difference should, of course, include the difference between the higher wages paid in this country and the wages paid abroad and embrace a reasonable profit to the American producer. A system of protection thus adopted and put in force has led to the establishment of a rate of wages here that has greatly enhanced the standard of living of the laboring man. It is the policy of the republican party permanently to continue the standard of living. In 1897 the Dingley tariff bill was passed, under which we have had, as already said, a period of enormous prosperity.

NECESSITY FOR REVISION.

The consequent material development has greatly changed the conditions under which many articles described by the schedules of the tariff are now produced. The tariff in a number of the schedules exceeds the difference between the cost of production of such articles abroad and at home, including a reasonable profit to the American producer. The excess over that difference serves no useful purpose, but offers a temptation to those who would monopolize the production and the sale of such articles in this country, to profit by the excessive rate. On the other hand, there are other schedules in which the tariff is not sufficiently high to give the measure of protection which they should receive upon republican principles, and as to those the tariff should be raised. A revision of the tariff undertaken upon this principle, which is at the basis of the present business system, begun promptly upon the incoming of the new administration, and considered at a special session with the preliminary investigations already begun by the appropriate committees of the house and senate, will make the disturbance of business incident to such a change as little as possible.

THE CURRENCY SYSTEM.

The late panic disclosed a lack of elasticity in our financial system. This has been provisionally met by an act of the present congress permitting the issue of additional emergency bank notes, and insuring their withdrawal when the emergency has passed by a high rate of taxation. It is drawn in conformity with the present system of bank notes currency but varies from it in certain respects by authorizing the use of commercial paper and bonds of good credit, as well as the States bonds, as security for its redemption. It is expressly but a temporary measure and contains a provision for the appointment of a currency commission to devise and recommend a new and reformed system of currency. This inadequacy of our present currency system, due to changed conditions and enormous expansion, is generally recognized. The republican platform well states that we must have a "more elastic and adaptable system to meet the requirements of agriculturists, manufacturers, merchants and business men generally, must be automatic in operation, recognizing the fluctuations in interest rates," in which every dollar shall be as good as gold, and which shall prevent rather than add financial stringency in bringing on a panic.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK AND ITS ADVANTAGES.

In addition to this, the republican platform recommends the adoption of a postal savings bank system in which, of course, the government would become responsible to the depositors for the payment of principal and interest.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS.

The democratic party announces its adherence to this plan, and only recommends the tried system of postal savings banks as an alternative if not available. The republican party prefers the postal savings bank as one tried, safe, and known to be effective, and reaching many more people now without banking facilities than the new system proposed.

AS TO DEPENDENCIES.

The republican party has pursued consistently the policy originally adopted with respect to the dependencies which came to us as the result of the Spanish war.

PORTO RICO.

The material prosperity of Porto Rico and the progress of its inhabitants toward better conditions in respect to comfort of living and education, should make every American proud that this nation has been an efficient instrument in bringing happiness to a million people.

CUBA.

In Cuba, the provisional government established in order to prevent a bloody revolution has so administered affairs and initiated the necessary laws as to make it possible to turn back the

HIS THROAT CUT Man's Body Found Floating Off Oakland Beach

OAKLAND BEACH, R. I., July 28.—With the throat cut from ear to ear, the body of Ishmael Eldridge, a colored man, 35 years of age, was discovered this morning floating in the waters off Brush Neck cove near this place. The man had evidently been dead for some time and the authorities believe they have a murder mystery upon their hands. Eldridge, who was a clammer and fisherman and of a quarrelsome nature, was last seen on Sunday. He was married, and his widow and a married daughter live in Johnston, and expenditures to the compulsory registration of such a law.

INCOME TAX.

The democratic platform demands two constitutional amendments, one providing for an income tax and the other for the election of senators by the people. In my judgment, an amendment to the constitution for an income tax is not necessary. I believe that an income tax, which the protective system of customs and the internal revenue tax shall not furnish income enough for governmental needs, can and should be devised which under the decision of the supreme court will conform to the constitution.

ELECTION OF SENATORS.

With respect to the election of senators by the people, personally I am inclined to favor it, but it is hardly a question. A resolution in its favor has been passed by a republican house of representatives several times and has been rejected in a republican senate by the votes of senators from both parties. It has been approved by the legislatures of many republican states. In a number of states, both democratic and republican, substantially such a system now prevails.

WEDS HIS NURSE

Miss Murphy Bride of Young Fitzpatrick

BOSTON, July 28.—Behind the marriage celebrated today, when Francis Gleason Fitzpatrick, professor of the Fine Arts at Harvard university, led Miss May E. Murphy to the altar, shines forth all the romance that comes with the knowledge that the bride is in a great measure responsible for the winning fight made against a dread illness, when the very life of the man whom she wed hung in the balance.

Prof. Fitzpatrick is the son of T. B. Fitzpatrick, head of the Brown-Durfee company, who was the recipient of the Laetare medal, awarded annually to some noted layman of the Catholic faith. Some months ago he was taken ill with scarlet fever, and throughout the trying period that followed, when the young man's life was despaired of even by the attending physicians, Miss Murphy was his nurse, assisting day and night in the battle against death.

Now he is convalescent, and following the ceremony, which occurred at 2:30 o'clock at St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, Brookline, he took his bride to New York, where they embarked for an extended trip to Europe.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. J. O'Connor of St. James' church, Boston, a relative of the bride, and Thomas W. Fitzpatrick, the groom's brother, was the best man. Miss Mary Ward, a fellow nurse and friend of Miss Murphy, was the bridesmaid.

The happy couple have been receiving congratulations ever since the announcement of their engagement, recently made, and the romantic features surrounding their love affair have been a source of much pleasing comment amid the social circles of Brookline and Boston, where each has been very well known.

CHILDREN OF MARY

CUT GIRL'S MOTHER Says Hazel Drew Was Hypnotized and Lead to Her Death

TROY, N. Y., July 28.—That Hazel Drew was hypnotized and carried against her will to Troy pond and then brutally murdered on the night of July 7 was the declaration made today by Mrs. John Drew, mother of the dead girl.

There was a pitiful tremor in the woman's lip as she made the assertion. She had been asked to comment on the testimony of the witnesses at the coroner's inquest into the death of her daughter.

"I've thought this matter over," continued Mrs. Drew, "and I am sure that Hazel did not commit suicide. Why should she? She was happy and had everything she wanted. If anything has been wrong she would have come to me. She always did and I gave her everything she asked, including money. I don't believe it was Hazel that Frank Smith or those other people saw on the Taborton road that night walking alone. She was taken out there in an automobile or a carriage by someone, maybe from Troy. I believe it was someone who was well to do and who had Hazel in his control. He mesmerized or what you call hypnotized my Hazel and she did whatever he asked of her. He took her out there while she was under his influence and murdered her."

Mrs. Drew became greatly excited as she told this strange story. Nothing could change her belief in this new theory. Asked if she had any person in mind who might have exerted a hypnotic influence over her daughter, Mrs. Drew slowly shook her head.

The district attorney was notified of Mrs. Drew's statement and promised to investigate it fully.

PEACE MEETING WOMAN KILLED

Lord Courtney Addressed Delegates She Was Struck by Lightning

LONDON, July 28.—The business session of the seventeenth universal peace conference following a preliminary meeting yesterday, was inaugurated today with a speech by Lord Courtney who emphasized the close connection between justice and peace. The declaration that there would be no more wars if justice were driven out of the world and that the first step in this direction was to develop international law which rose above individual nations just as the national law was above individual citizens. If the state of New York, he said, had a dispute with another state it would not go to war but it would enter suit before the supreme court. The states of Europe should follow this example and seek justice at the hands of an international supreme court.

STANDARD OIL CO.

Government Plans Another Fight Against the Trust

LENOX, July 28.—Plans for another great battle in the courts with representatives of the Standard Oil Co. will be worked out here among the peaceful shades of the Berkshire hills within the next few days. Under the direction of Attorney General Charles J. Bonaparte, who is passing his vacation time in Lenox, the first move in the new action which, it is understood, is to be brought by the government against the Standard Oil Co. will be made here and the machinery of the department of justice at Washington will be set in motion.

This action following the recent decision of the United States circuit court of appeals at Chicago, setting aside the judgment of $29,240,000 returned by Judge K. M. Landis against the company, indicates that the announced intention of the administration to renew the proceedings is to be carried out promptly.

Mr. Bonaparte will be joined today by Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota, whose conduct of anti-trust cases for the government brought him national renown and they will review together the present situation and discuss the case for further action.

For assistance in the case they will have the service of half a score of trained legal experts from the department of justice in Washington, men specially conversant with this particular branch of the department's work. These experts also were expected here during the day.

The government attorneys will be quartered at the Hotel Aspinwall where Attorney General Bonaparte is a distinguished guest. A suite of many rooms has been provided for them, the previous occupants of the rooms having consented to make room for the department officials, and here it is expected the work of arranging for the new legal proceedings will be begun. One of the rooms is large enough to serve as a general council chamber and will be fitted up with such office furniture as may be needed.

It is understood that accommodations are required for ten men, but the length of their stay is not known and is designated merely as several days.

When the New Bedford base ball club left town this morning for Worcester Bill Lord, the second baseman, was in charge of the team. Mr. Lord will continue as acting manager until the arrival of Tom Corcoran, who yesterday telephoned the owners of the club that he would arrive in New Bedford late this afternoon. Are in Control of the Situation

CLINTON, July 28.—The one hundred striking Italian laborers, who have been employed on an excavating job here, after sleeping on a lot adjacent to the excavation all night, are today armed with clubs and are in complete control of the situation. There has been no violence yet. The J. W. Bishop Co. of Worcester, who is doing the work, decided in the interests of order today not to put anyone immediately in the strikers' places. About two dozen policemen are stationed at the scene. The laborers want shorter hours and more pay. Last night they marched through the streets and then proceeded to encamp on the lot near the contract work where they had been employed.

CITY WATER PURE

Prof. Olney Makes Careful Analysis of Samples

There is nothing the matter with Lowell's water. The supply is perfectly pure and the consumer need have no fears as to lurking germs or poisonous substances. The fact that families in Fletcher street were poisoned was responsible for the spread of the alarm that the water was bad.

Immediately upon being apprised of the trouble in Fletcher street, Supt. Thomas of the water department sent samples of the water to Prof. Olney who found that it had been affected by ordinary bluing. In some way the bluing must have been conveyed to the vessels that were used for drinking purposes.

There are a great many complaints received off and on at the office of the water board relative to the rusty or riley condition of the water in different sections of the city.

Asked as to these complaints, Clark Crawford of the board said: "We have received on an average of about two complaints a day about riley and rusty water. This is caused by the watering carts and the trolley sprinklers. The trolley sprinkler takes a great volume of water, and there is always more or less disturbance in the pipes when a trolley sprinkler is being filled."

The result of Prof. Olney's analysis of the water sent him by Supt. Thomas was as follows:

PROF. OLNEY'S FINDING.
Lowell, Mass., July 27, 1908.
Robert J. Thomas, Esq., Supt. Lowell Water Works, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir:—I have made a thorough examination of the Lowell city water, taken by me in your presence Saturday afternoon, July 25th, 1908, from the faucet in 332 Fletcher street, and find it to be free from lead, copper, zinc and other poisonous metallic compounds, and to be perfectly normal.

A continuous boiling of this water during a period of four hours, and an exposure to direct sunlight during a period of twelve hours, did not develop the blue coloration described to us by certain residents of the Fletcher street tenement, neither did the examination of the water give evidence of the presence of any substance which could have caused such a coloration to develop.

The sample of bluish colored liquid, which was delivered to me by you Saturday afternoon, July 25th, 1908, in an ounce bottle, and which was said to have been drawn from the same faucet as the aforesaid water, but by a resident of the tenement, and then exposed to the sunlight, was found to contain a coloring matter, which was apparently a coal-tar dyestuff of the acid type. Accompanying this report will be found a small piece of woolen material which has been dyed with a portion of the coloring matter obtained from this sample. Such a coloring matter is frequently used as a bluing material for white clothes, and is also sold by druggists in a dry powdered form as one of the Diamond dyes.

The nature of the blue spots and stains upon the clothes exhibited at the Fletcher street tenement, were of such a character as to indicate that they were formed by small particles of some undissolved blue coloring matter having come in contact with the clothes while in a tub, or by a similar coloring matter having been blown in the powdered form over the clothes as they hung upon the line or elsewhere in a damp condition.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) L. A. Olney.

GREEN HORSE CONTRACTS LET

Caused Excitement in Middlesex Street

Thomas H. McKay, the well known baker had an exciting experience in Middlesex street this morning while riding behind a fine looking green draught horse owned by C. H. Hanson & Co.

The horse was attached to a heavy wagon and was driven by one of Mr. Hanson's experts and undoubtedly Mr. McKay was inspecting the animal's good qualities with a view to buying it.

Just as the animal reached the corner of Middlesex and Thorndike streets, outside the Wamesit bank, in some unaccountable manner the harness became caught, frightening the animal, and before the driver could prevent it the horse turned sharply into the sidewalk, one of the front wheels getting under the body of the wagon so as to throw it up on one side while the driver was thrown backward from his seat into the wagon. The horse came within a few inches of the big plate glass window, but the driver, lying on his back, held the reins firmly and succeeded in turning the animal back. Then he jumped back to his seat and in a minute had the green one in complete control with no more damage than a broken check rein. Mr. McKay sat on the seat throughout the momentary excitement and was not injured, and apparently was not frightened.

PRES. ROOSEVELT

Wants to Meet American Athletes

OYSTER BAY, July 28.—President Roosevelt yesterday wired congratulations to James E. Sullivan, United States commissioner to the Olympic games, London, in reply to the message which Mr. Sullivan sent to the president, acquainting him with the success of the American athletes who won five first prizes out of a possible 27, scoring more than the athletes of the entire world. The president's reply is as follows:

"Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 27.
"James E. Sullivan, United States commissioner to Olympic games, London, Eng.: Heartiest congratulations to you and team. With I could shake hands with each man.

Brought Against Man Who Collected Another's Bill

Gaming Machine Taken From a Barber Shop on Middlesex Street

Frederick Devany pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with the larceny of $15, the property of John Tomassi, on the 18th day of June. It seems that Edward W. Devany, a brother of the prisoner, who is a plumber, did some work for Tomassi and the bill amounted to $15. Frederick Devany, who is also a plumber, knew that the bill had not been collected and calling upon Tomassi stated that his brother had sent him to collect the money. Tomassi paid the money over and then Frederick started out to spend the money. The brother to whom the money was due heard of the transaction and gave Tomassi a receipted bill. The case was continued for a week.

Thomas Egan, a parole man, will be returned to the state farm. William Re-dean, a second offender, was fined $5, one first offender was taxed the usual $2 and four simple offenders were released without appearing in court.

SEIZED GAMING MACHINE.
Inspector Laflamme and Sergt. Duncan called at the barber shop conducted by Joseph Gregoire at 235 Middlesex street this morning and seized a game machine. The machine was taken to the police station and Gregoire will be summoned in court during the present week.

The machine in question is one of those old fashioned gaming machines in which cents are placed and then a spring pushed and poker hands are turned up, and if the cards show one pair or better, cigars are given the player, the number of cigars being in accordance with the value of the hand.

The Watch & Ward society of this state assisted by the local police are making a crusade against these gambling machines.

Edward Burns Met With Serious Accident

Edward Burns, residing at 163 Lawrence street and employed at the Lowell machine shop, met with a painful accident this morning. While at work on a milling machine he had his right hand caught and badly bruised. The ambulance was summoned and he was removed to the Lowell hospital, but was released after the hand had been dressed.

Writes Mayor Farnham From Soldier's Home

George William Garvie, a veteran who signs himself "An empty sleeve boy" and who has addressed Mayor Farnham from the soldiers home in Togus, Me., asks for information concerning one Ella Marshall, who, with her father, came to Lowell in company with Mr. Garvie in the early 70's.

He says in the letter that Ella Marshall was married after coming to Lowell but he could not recall her husband's name. He wants Mayor Farnham to find out if she is still in Lowell and any information concerning the woman will be gratefully received at the mayor's office.

Information reached Mayor Farnham this forenoon to the effect that Samuel Everett Butters of this city had deserted the U. S. S. New Hampshire. The information, as is customary, came from the captain of the ship.

PARENT RESCUED

He Became Exhausted While Bathing

Francis McAleer of Whiting street saved Albert Parent from being drowned in the waters of the Merrimack river near the Moody street bridge yesterday afternoon about three o'clock.

Parent and a number of his companions had been in swimming for quite a while when Parent stated his intention of swimming across the river and back without stopping. None of his companions cared about accompanying him as they did not believe they would be able to perform the feat, so Parent started alone.

He crossed the river and was about half way back when he became exhausted and throwing up his hands disappeared. McAleer, who was standing on the shore, went to his rescue and with rapid strokes was soon at Parent's side, but just as he was about to make a grab for Parent, the latter went under for the second time.

When the half drowned young man came to the surface again McAleer held him and towed him to shore. After considerable rolling about and slapping, the young man was able to get a great deal of the water out of Parent's stomach and a little later he was able to walk to his home.

The young man's name is Albert Parent.

Yesterday's new bill at the Theatre Voyons had for its leading feature a moving picture presentation of the story of Damon and Pythias. The story is one familiar to many and it has been used for hundreds of years to illustrate the highest type of friendship. Damon was one of the nobles of Greece and above all things he desired that his country be freed from the rule of a tyrant and his friends but also alone his appeals to the people only resulted in his being arrested and condemned to death. In order that Damon might visit his home and bid his wife and child farewell Pythias leaves his wedding feast and takes his place in prison. Circumstances delay Damon's return so that Pythias is about to be executed in his stead. Damon finally arrives just in time and so touching is the friendship of these two men that both are set free and the story ends happily. There are two excellent comedies shown as well, "The Living Posters" and "Stung" both are full of laughs.

The songs are good, especially "Sweet Sixteen's" a march by Kerry Mills, with lots of life to it.

TO GRAND JURY

Brennan Charged With Breaking and Entering

James C. Brennan was arraigned in police court before Judge Pickman this morning on a complaint charging him with breaking and entering and attempting to commit larceny. After the testimony had been submitted probable cause was found and Brennan was held under $400 bonds for the grand jury.

According to the testimony offered Brennan entered the restaurant conducted by Henry A. Roberts at 348 Middlesex street on the night of the 24th of July. When he got in through a rear window he fell into the hands of Mr. Roberts and the latter's son-in-law. Patrolmen John Clark and Henry A. Roberts were also lying in wait for him and he was arrested. Brennan's defense was that his wife was sleeping in a room in the building and that he entered the place in order to see her.

Henry A. Roberts, the owner of the restaurant, said that he was lying in wait for Brennan as he had suspected him of entering the place on previous occasions. About eleven o'clock Brennan opened a window in the rear of the restaurant and entered. On cross examination witness said he had known Brennan for 15 or 16 years and that the latter's wife was in his employ and slept in a room over the restaurant after entering the place offered no resistance stating that he desired to see his wife.

Joseph McInness, a son-in-law of the previous witness, testified. Patrolman John Clark said that as a result of what had been told him he was on the lookout for Brennan and about half an hour before the latter made an entrance he (Clark) had tried all the windows and found them locked. Shortly after Brennan entered the place Clark put in an appearance.

Brennan testified that he went in to see his wife. He entered by means of the rear window because the front door was locked. He denied, however, that the window was locked, stating that it was open about four inches from the bottom. He also acknowledged that he had entered the building the night before.

Deputy Welch then produced a number of papers showing that Brennan had been convicted of larceny and the latter did not deny the allegations. Probable cause was found and he was held for the grand jury.

BILLARD DENIES TWO WERE KILLED

That Canadian Pacific is Buying "Millionaire's Express" Crashed Into Large Automobile

BOSTON, July 28.—"I have absolutely no knowledge of any dealings with the Canadian Pacific, and I cannot see how the Canadian Pacific can acquire the Boston & Maine without my becoming aware of it," was the way that John Billard of Meriden, Conn., denied the rumor that a railroad deal uniting the interests of the New Haven, Boston & Maine and the Canadian Pacific had just been completed.

The report was current in New York that the Canadian Pacific had acquired the stock of the Boston & Maine from the New Haven through a trustee, with an agreement protecting the interests of the New Haven.

Giving strength to the rumor was the fact that the New Haven and the Canadian Pacific have made plans whereby New England freights can be sent west to the mutual advantage of both roads.

If the arrangements were carried through it would give the Canadian road an entry not only into Boston but into New York.

Added to the denial of Mr. Billard, the man who bought the Boston & Maine stock from the New Haven, is the denial of President Mellen of the

New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad. President Mellen denies having any negotiations with the Canadian Pacific, and emphatically states that there is absolutely nothing in the report.

By one who is very near the inner circle in the railroad affairs in both New England and New York, other denials are made. "The Standard Oil interests, as strong as any in Wall street where this report emanates from would never permit the Canadian Pacific to acquire the two ports that would be theirs under such an agreement as this," declares this man.

"The Standard Oil is always most alert in all transportation possibilities. Such a deal, with all the negotiations that it would entail, would be surprised at the start and frustrated before it had gained the least headway. The reported combination would be hostile to the interests of the Standard Oil. I am sure that there is no truth in the report."

At the hearing before the committee of the Massachusetts legislature which decided against the merger of the New Haven and the Boston & Maine there were frequent allusions to the possibility of some other road being after the Boston & Maine.

Several of the committeemen remember the allusions but none of them remembered that the Canadian Pacific was mentioned as more than one of many possibilities.

will tell you stories. Should your fagged interest refuse response to other spurs, he is willing and ready to quarrel; and this last I esteem best and chiefest among his numerous good qualities. Also, while Sir Humphrey holds his own against you as ferociously as any bulldog, there will come no aftermath of feud. The quarrel once over is over, and your relations re-emerge into friendliest sunshine like some green countryside after a storm.

Sir Humphrey, who has a strong tincture in his composition of wolf or owl or something else distinctly nocturnal, was pleased with the drawing-room idea. He came aboard the train with a huge box of Perfectos, and we smoked like dragons all night—that is, Sir Humphrey and I did. We told the off-clinging Congo that we wouldn't have the berths made up; whereas Mr. Smith, either because of the smoke—which you could cut with a knife—or disappointment, looked exceedingly blue. I think had he and I been alone, he would have given me battle; but he was afraid of Sir Humphrey, from whom he was trying to wheedle an order for a back cover-page.

Sir Humphrey proposed a "friendly game," as likely to relieve the tedium of a long and smoky night. Mr. Smith tamely submitted. We three played together. Mr. Smith did not dare defeat Sir Humphrey because of that back cover-page. This took so much of his attention that I was able to fall upon him as it were in flank; and so, between Sir Humphrey and myself, we left Mr. Smith's finances on both sides of the road. To do this was like a dessert of figs and milk to my malevolence, already feeding, as at a banquet, upon the fact that Mr. Smith must pass a wretched night. I could see that he would not subsidize the drawing-room for the return trip. Nor did he; he secured three sections, scattered craftily up and down the car.

Sir Humphrey talked of the great firemen's muster. He wanted to his subject in a way natural enough when it is recalled that he himself is a leading influence in the New England Veteran Firemen's Association. Indeed, there is to be a league muster of the Association at Lowell on August 25th, and Sir Humphrey expanded upon that.

"In this connection," said Sir Humphrey, "let me say that I have renamed Lowell. I call it 'The City that Does Things.' When my brother veterans of the Firemen's Association come there in August, they will justify that title. The muster will excel any ever held in New England. Sixty-five companies will be present. Lowell will give a handsome prize for the one which shows the most red shirts on parade."

"The turnout," says Sir Humphrey, "will show not less than 6,000 men in line, while more than 100,000 will line the Lowell curbs."

"I shall," says Sir Humphrey, "get out a Treasury Book of the muster, containing as many plates as companies represented, giving half-tone plates of the 'Tub,' its history, its present officers and past officers and as the book will contain a score card of the 'play out' that day, you can imagine how eagerly they will be sought for."

Anty Drudge's Fountain of Youth.

Mrs. Weary—"Oh, dear! I wish I could find what d'y'e call 'im's Fountain of Eternal Youth. Hard work's making me old."

Anty Drudge—"Bless you, there's a fountain of youth you can find—and that's Fels-Naptha soap. It's a great lightener of work and would not only do your washing in cool water quickly without hard-rubbing, but it would make easy all your household cleaning. I use it—and I don't feel more than sixteen."

Does dirt mean drudgery to you?

Yes—if the only way you know to get rid of dirt is by the hot water, ordinary soap and elbow grease method.

No—if you let Fels-Naptha dissolve the dirt in cool or lukewarm water—without boiling, without hard-rubbing.

Fels-Naptha has done away with hard work and boiling in washing clothes just as other modern inventions have done away with home spinning, tallow candles and hand sewing.

Why don't you let Fels-Naptha do the hard part of your washing?

The easy directions are printed on the back of the red and green wrapper.

John Higgins Has Four Ribs Broken

BOSTON, July 28.—Owing to the refusal of Supt. Emerson of the street department to grant the firemen employed on the city ferries, running to East Boston a two weeks' vacation with pay this year, the firemen late last night voted to strike to enforce their demands. Supt. Emerson announced his intention of making efforts to run the boats as usual in the event of the men going out.

THE FIRE MUSTER

Was With Humphrey O'Sullivan at Denver HIS VISIT TO THE ROYCROFTERS Described in the Magazine, Human Life

In this month's issue of his magazine, "Human Life," Alfred Henry Lewis has a most interesting and amusing article entitled "How We Three Visited Fra Elbertus," being an account of the visit to Elbert Hubbard and the home of the Roycrofters, of Mr. Lewis, the chronicler of the event, his business manager, William F. Smith, and Humphrey O'Sullivan of this city.

To reproduce the entire article would be too big a tax on space, suffice it to reprint some of the references to Mr. O'Sullivan and his contribution to the interest of the trip. After explaining how the trip was suggested, Mr. Lewis writes:

Mr. Smith said that we ought to pay a visit to Elbert Hubbard. This name while loosened the belts of my resolution. Mr. Smith, swiftly following up his advantage, observed that Mr. O'Sullivan—Sir Humphrey O'Sullivan, he of the Rubber Heel—would be of the party. I yielded and foresaw no heavy moments. I should travel in the company of Sir Humphrey. The journey in one direction would end with the Hubbards, in the other with New York; the finish in each instance promised joy.

Sir Humphrey? One could go round the world with him. Had he been with Magellan, that mariner would not have died. He would have remained alive, if only to listen to Sir Humphrey's stories.

Sir Humphrey is an American who originated in the County Cork—the keenest, clearest, liveliest, most belligerent corner of Ireland. He has been everywhere, seen everybody, heard everything. And what he hasn't seen or heard, he's read. He'll talk on literature, politics, war, commerce, religion. He has the humor of Mark Twain, the profundity of Herbert Spencer. He will listen, or lecture, or engage in joint debate—what you please.

When weary of deeper matters, he

ROOSEVELT VS. THE TRUSTS

WHEN PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DENOUNCES THE JUDGES WHO DECIDED AGAINST HIS VIEWS IN THE STANDARD OIL CASE THE PUBLIC WILL NATURALLY CONCLUDE THAT JUDGE TAFT IS HIS IDEAL.

THE PRESIDENT TAKES HIMSELF TOO SERIOUSLY; HE MISTAKES HIS OPINIONS FOR LAW AND HE HAS BEEN MAKING THIS MISTAKE FOR SOME TIME.

HE REGARDS THE REVERSAL OF THE JUDGE LANDIS DECISION AS "A GROSS MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE" AND SAYS "THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO QUESTION OF THE GUILT OF THE DEFENDANTS."

THAT MAY BE TRUE, BUT IF THE EVIDENCE IS NOT SET FORTH IN A MANNER SUFFICIENTLY STRONG AND CONCLUSIVE TO CONVICT THEN THE COURTS ARE NOT TO BLAME.

IT HAS OFTEN HAPPENED THAT THE SUPREME COURT HAS REVERSED DECISIONS THAT IN THEMSELVES WERE RIGHT BUT IN THE MANNER IN WHICH THEY WERE REACHED, THEY WERE NOT WARRANTED BY THE PROCEDURE OF OUR AMERICAN COURTS OR BY THE STATUTES.

UNDER SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES THE COURTS SHOULD OVERRULE THE DECISION.

THE PRESIDENT MIGHT NATURALLY HAVE SHOWN CONFIDENCE ENOUGH IN THE AMERICAN COURTS TO HAVE RECEIVED THE DECISION WITH EQUANIMITY AND HAVE EXPRESSED THE OPINION THAT ANOTHER TRIAL WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY REACH A DECISION TO SATISFY THE ENDS OF JUSTICE.

SPEAKING OF THE PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS THE NEW BEDFORD MERCURY SAYS:

"The justices of the appellate court specifically pointed out that the evidence was not complete and unequivocal and when Mr. Roosevelt says there is no question of guilt, it follows either that he has not read the court decision, or that he disdains and flouts it, and the latter conclusion is forced upon us. The spectacle of a president of the United States who displays sovereign contempt of a high court, who tramples upon the law, setting himself 'above the law,' to quote the current phrase taught us in the recent decision, is disconcerting. Mr. Roosevelt, in his wrath, that on the eve of the national election the great fine was reversed, rebuking the administration no less than Judge Landis, has reverted to his denunciations of Standard Oil, but in asserting his contempt for the court decision, setting up his own opinions against it, he strikes a blow at law and order and makes a deplorable exhibition of plain, vulgar, bad citizenship."

AFTER SUCH AN EXHIBITION OF IMPATIENCE AT THE FINDINGS OF THE COURTS, BY THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF THE COUNTRY THERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR CERTAIN PARTIES RECENTLY DUBBED UNDESIRABLE CITIZENS TO GET BACK AT MR. ROOSEVELT WITH THE USUAL REJOINER OF "YOU'RE ANOTHER."

HEARST HELPING TRUST CANDIDATE

MR. HEARST WHO HAS BEEN A STEADY HOWLER AGAINST THE TRUSTS IS GOING TO DO WHAT HE CAN TO ELECT TAFT BY USING "HIS CLUB" TO HELP DEFEAT BRYAN.

HEARST SOUGHT ELECTION TO CONGRESS AS A DEMOCRAT AND DURING HIS TERM OF SERVICE HE SELDOM APPEARED IN HIS SEAT IN THE HOUSE AND HIS VOICE WAS SELDOM HEARD ABOVE A WHISPER EXCEPT WHEN HE WAS FORCED BY CIRCUMSTANCES TO REPLY TO THE EXPOSURE OF HIS HYPOCRISY BY A BOSTON CONGRESSMAN.

HE NEVER FULLY RECOVERED FROM THAT ATTACK. HIS NEXT MOVE WAS TO RUN FOR THE OFFICE OF MAYOR OF NEW YORK. HE OPPOSED MCLELLAN AND WHEN DEFEATED, HE STARTED A HOWL THAT HE WAS COUNTED OUT.

HE CONTINUED TO FIGHT FOR A RECOUNT AND FINALLY SUCCEEDED IN PUTTING THE STATE TO THE VAST EXPENSE ATTENDING SUCH A JOB WITH THE RESULT THAT HIS CONTENTION WAS SHOWN TO BE WHOLLY GROUNDLESS.

NOW HE IS OUT WITH HIS PERSONAL ORGANIZATION, THE INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE, TO DEFEAT BRYAN.

HIS MAIN DESIRE IS TO DEFEAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. HIS POLICY IS TO RULE OR RUIN THAT PARTY. HEARST IS THE CHIEF EXPONENT OF GORILLA WARFARE IN THE POLITICS OF THIS COUNTRY TODAY. WHILE ASSAILING THE TRUSTS HE IS A STRONG FACTOR IN THE WORK OF HELPING TO ELECT WM. H. TAFT, THE TRUST CANDIDATE.

CHANCE FOR THE N. Y. SUN

THE NEW YORK SUN HAS LET UP ON ITS CRITICISM OF FRENCH CANADIANS IN THIS COUNTRY. IT HAS PROBABLY FOUND OUT ITS MISTAKE AND WILL NOT BE LIKELY TO REPEAT IT FOR SOME TIME. THE SUN CAN FIND HOW FALSE WERE ITS ACCUSATIONS BY ATTENDING THE CELEBRATION AT QUEBEC THIS WEEK. OUR NEW YORK NAMESAKE NEEDS SOME SUCH EYE OPENER ON THE FRENCH AMERICAN QUESTION.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Miss Anne T. Morgan, a daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, has arrived in Berlin from Magdeburg, where she visited the Krupp workmen's colony. She is studying the subject of the amelioration of workmen's condition.

Rev. Lathrop Conkey has just celebrated the sixty-fourth anniversary of his entry into the ministry at North Eaton, Ohio. He is now 57 years old.

Several of Mr. Pinero's plays have been translated into foreign languages, the most popular being "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," which has been performed in German, French, Italian and Russian. "His House Is Order" is now to be given in Paris in October at the Vaudeville, with M. Tardieu in the part of Pinero, while Mlle. Marthe Regnier will represent Nina. It will be interesting to see whether the French public will appreciate this fine work.

The Rev. G. W. McPherson, who in a speech in New York recently said, "While New York is the wickedest city in the United States, Chicago is worse so bad that it cannot be called American; it isn't civilized," is severely criticized in a bulletin issued by the Chicago Association of Commerce. Referring to Mr. McPherson, the bulletin says: "This benighted individual should be taught that the temperate use of the tongue is more beneficial than the temperate use of alcohol or other drugs that kill; the latter poisons the individual offender, while the former cuts and wounds the reputation of many." The association then goes on to set forth facts showing Chicago's greatness and goodness, its commercial and industrial resources, its property as indicated by its bank deposits, and the number of wage earners at work, and its charities. One of the statements is that "Chicago has 69 hospitals, a larger number in proportion to population than any other large city in the country, notwithstanding it has the lowest death rate of all of them."

Mrs. Grover Cleveland is to visit Lenox later in the season, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson Glider of New York, whose country place is named "Four Brooks." The Order of Chevaliers in the Legion of Honor has been conferred on Mr. Glider by the French government.

The Berliner Tageblatt in an article on "The New Roosevelt Professor" says: "Simultaneously with the arrival of the Arlon, bringing to us the proof of the culture of German music in the western world, comes a scientific representative from there in the person of Professor Felix Adler, who, after a season of rest in Switzerland, will deliver a course of lectures at the university of which he was once a student, on the subject of 'The Ideals of the American People.' Professor Adler was born in Germany, and the new Roosevelt professor is bound by close ties to the country where he will lecture."

Victor Herbert will have five new works on the stage next season. Two of these are completed, two others are

EDITORIAL COMMENT

SEES PROSPERITY'S RETURN.

New York Commercial: William G. Schenck was a passenger on the French liner La Provence, which sailed yesterday for Havre. Speaking of financial conditions, he said: "The cessation of attacks on private property already has restored confidence in financial circles. Every man with a good knowledge of financial conditions notices, I believe, the gradual but certain return to prosperity. The depression of the past year was caused by attacks on property interests. Take the railroads alone, for instance. Fourteen billions of dollars are represented in those interests."

BRYAN AND ROOSEVELT.

The Concord Patriot has the following on Bryan and Roosevelt: "It is rather interesting to note how eagerly our republican friends engaged in the newspaper business, keep on crying 'Bryan owns and is the democratic party.'"

Looking at it disinterestedly, one fails to see how Bryan owns the democratic party or has evidenced the fact any more or even as much as that Mr. Roosevelt owns the republican party.

Hryan, it is said, is the inspiration of the Denver platform.

With no less truth it may be asserted that Roosevelt was the inspiration of the Chicago platform.

It is said that Bryan brought about his own nomination, that he named the candidate for the democracy for the presidency.

Early it will not be denied that Roosevelt named the candidate of the republican party for the presidency. The votes in the Denver convention that nominated Bryan came mostly from those states that will elect delegates to the electoral college, showing conclusively that the voters and the party workers in these states were thoroughly in harmony with Mr. Bryan and his views.

The states from which Mr. Taft got his most ardent support were states that will not and cannot choose delegates to the electoral college.

the electoral college in support of Mr. Taft, showing that Mr. Taft and those responsible for his nomination brought about that nomination through dictating terms in democratic states.

All in all, one is forced to the conclusion that as between ownership of the republican party by Mr. Roosevelt and the ownership of the democratic party by Mr. Bryan, the ownership by Mr. Roosevelt is not by any means the more desirable or praiseworthy.

Then again, if additional testimony is needed it might be said in all truth and in all candor, that Bryan had no offices to bestow, no federal officers to coerce into obedience, and that the necessity of the public crib were not instrumentalities that he could use to compel obedience to his wishes.

Talk by republicans about Bryan owning the democratic party, in the face of conditions, seems to come with very poor taste.

THREE PERISHED

Men Were on Their Way Home

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 26.—A gasoline launch, "The Merry Widow," carrying from 16 to 20 workmen from the Jones and Laughlin Steel company's plant across the Monongahela river to their homes in the south side section of the city, was capsized shortly after 6 o'clock last night in twenty feet of water by waves from a pool boat. Three men, Henry Schaefer, George Kimberly and Thomas Rhyderick, are known to have perished.

QUIMBY DENIES

That He Took Letters From Patient

WORCESTER, July 18.—Dr. Hosea M. Quimby, head of the State Insane asylum here, has entered a general denial to the $10,000 suit of William J. Welch, a Boston attorney, who sued the doctor for converting to his own use four letters which he had when an inmate of the asylum Dec. 6, 1902.

Welch alleged that Dr. Quimby took the letters, two of them testimonials of good character and the other two evidence in a law case, which he says he lost because of the absence of the letters.

HIS FATAL DIVE

Variety Performer Seriously Injured

NANTASKET, July 23.—Edward G. Darling of Manchester, England, a variety performer, was seriously injured last night when, after a sensational backward dive, his head struck the concrete bottom of a shallow lagoon.

He is now at the point of death in the Emergency hospital. Twenty stitches were taken to close the wound made at the base of the performer's brain.

Darling is known as "The Flaming Rolling Devil," and his act consisted of a dash down a steep incline on roller skates while enveloped in flames. There is an upward shoot at the end of the run, and as he leaves the performer makes a backward whip dive and lands in the lagoon.

After last night's performance it was noticed that Darling did not get to the surface as quickly as usual. It was then realized that he must have struck the hard bottom of the small artificial pond. Harold Starks of Northampton, a pool employer, dived into the water and found Darling lying face downward.

For Boys Who Complete 2500 Mile Walk

DENVER, July 23.—With Juneau, Alaska, as their destination, Frank H. Gilmore, aged 23, of Portland, and Roger W. Andrews, aged 22, of Chicago, have started from here on a 2500-mile tramp. There is no time limit; if they succeed they are to get $1500 between them as a gift from the father of young Andrews, who believes that the boys will give out before they complete the trip.

Young Andrews would not make the trip alone. When his father, who is somewhat of a globe trotter, offered the boy the money, after a discussion as to the merits of each on long-distance jaunts, he told him he would accept it if allowed to have a companion.

Last summer Andrews and his father made a record trip from Chicago to St. Paul, 600 miles, on foot.

The boys left Denver with khaki uniforms, a canteen, the very lightest equipment, and only $5 in their pockets. They started out of here over the Union Pacific tracks and will go to Cheyenne and then to Idaho. They will take the Oregon Short Line to Nampa and Boise, and will report at the Y. M. C. A. at Boise. They will then follow the branch of the Oregon Short Line to Huntington and then take the main line to Portland. They will remain in Portland and Seattle several days before taking up the tramp to Alaska along the Canadian Pacific route.

FOR MOTOR RACE

Subscriptions Solicited for the Big Race

To the Public Spirited Citizens of Lowell:

The Lowell Automobile club, after spending a great deal of labor and money, and having received all legal sanction from the state, city of Lowell and town of Tyngsboro, and having perfected all the details pertaining to the race, now respectfully call upon the merchants and financiers of the city for subscriptions.

We hope that everybody in this city will appreciate our labor and what this event means to Lowell, and let us prove to the country at large that this is a "city that does things."

That the spirit of progressiveness is not only characteristic of a few, but of the entire population and that we, one and all, will help to make this event a rousing success.

The following is a list of the expenses and resources incidental to erecting grand stands, hand stand, judges' stand, oiling the road, wiring off stand, 500 men to patrol, telephone service, and other expenses. The subscription to be paid back after the race from the revenue derived from the following sources as enumerated below:

EXPENSES.
Erecting grand stand	$ 4000
Erecting hand stand	400
Erecting judges' stand	200
Telephone service, five stations	300

Bulletin advertising, printing and distributing	2000
Incidental expenses	1000

Total	$12,145

RESOURCES.
$500 seats in grand stand at $1 each	$ 8000
100 seats at $5 each	500

Entrance fees, 12 cars at $250 each	3000
Revenue for vitagraph machines	1000
Total	$25,250

Should we only receive 50 per cent of the apparent revenue we would then have enough to pay all expenses, and this would mean only 6000 people in the grand stand, parking only 1000 automobiles, selling 5000 programs, 5000 score cards, and an equal depreciation from other sources.

We feel that there is not one chance in 100 for a deficit, as if it rains the race will be postponed to the next pleasant day.

We believe it a good investment for every public spirited citizen to help this celebration along, enabling our city to get a world-wide reputation, and bring in thousands of manufacturers, financiers, and sight-seers to our city, with the hope that some will ultimately locate their manufacturing establishments here or assist to finance some of our already established concerns, and besides this, a great multitude of people will certainly spend in our city many thousands of dollars during the day of the race and many days previous thereto.

We therefore respectfully hope that your checks will be willingly sent and credited to your lien on the revenue, no matter to the amount of your subscription. Make checks payable to John A. McKenna, secretary, Lowell Automobile club and board of trade, 90 Central block, Lowell, Mass.

A guaranteed subscription to the amount of $10,000 will be necessary to

This idea was given up, however, and the mob agreed to burn him at the stake. Fagots were piled up at the public square and the negro was placed thereon. ## CO. A IN LEAD In Contest for Cadet's Trophy

WAKEFIELD, July 28.—When the teams that contested for the cadet's trophy began their match today there was an absence of a mirage and a light wind only was blowing. There were sixteen crack teams from Massachusetts, Maine and New Hampshire. Company A's first team, Sixth Massachusetts Infantry of Wakefield, took the lead from the first when Quartermaster Sergeant J. H. Keough of Wakefield made a bullseye and won the match with a total for the two ranges of 246. Besides winning the trophy each member of the team was given a silver medal for his marksmanship. Company G, Fifth Massachusetts Infantry of Woburn was second, and Company B, Third. Members of both of these teams were given medals of bronze. The supervision of the range was in charge of the range officer, Major J. J. Doyle of Maine. The scores:

	200 yds.	500 yds.	Total
Co. A, Sixth Mass. Infantry, (1st team)	155	190	345
Co. G, Fifth Mass. Infantry	148	165	313
Co. B, Second Mass. Infantry	161	153	314

The highest individual grand total was made by Sergeant F. H. Keen, Company G, Fifth Massachusetts Infantry, who made a score of 65. Four others also made 65, but Sergeant Keen shot the best on the last range and was therefore awarded first place in the individual totals. Others who made 65 were Private George Reid, Company A, Sixth Massachusetts Infantry; Sergeant Keough, Company A, Sixth Massachusetts Infantry; Private Jerry Cronin, Company A, Sixth Massachusetts Infantry; and Sergeant Durward, Company G, Fifth Massachusetts Infantry.

BROKE BOTTLES

Burglars Broke Into Denis O'Brien's Drug Store

The drug store of Denis O'Brien at 322 Bridge street was broken into early yesterday morning by two men, but they were frightened away before they succeeded in securing any booty. Patrolmen Corcoran and Lennon were attracted to the scene by the crash of falling bottles which had been knocked off a shelf by the men, but the thieves made good their escape. It is evident that the break was made by persons familiar with the place and suspicious turns to a gang of rowdies who frequent Front street. Up to the present time no arrests have been made. There is a window and a door in the rear of the store, the window being up against a stairway which leads to the floor above and an entrance to the area in the rear of the store can be made by passing through a narrow passageway which leads from Lakewood avenue. Despite the fact that there was a heavy screen over the window the men succeeded in cutting this away with some sharp instrument. Inside the window is a row of shelves filled with bottles of every description. The thieves had removed about 25 or 30 bottles and placed them on the stairway on the outside. When evidently one of them tried to squeeze his body between the shelves and find it impossible to get through started to wiggle around, the result being that he knocked about a dozen bottles off the shelves, the bottles landing on the floor with a crash which could be heard a block away. Patrolmen Lennon and Corcoran were in the vicinity at the time and hastened to the place from where the noise came and saw two men running away. The officers gave chase but the men being pursued were too light of foot and got away. The officers then returned to the rear of the store and found a number of bottles on the stairway, while inside the store a number of bottles had been knocked to the floor. Yesterday when Mr. O'Brien opened his store he found the mass of debris in the rear room, but after making a careful investigation found that he had not suffered any loss other than the contents of the bottles that had been broken.

MAYOR SIGNED $25,000 ORDER

Many Meetings at City Hall This Evening

There will be meetings galore at the city hall this evening. The board of aldermen will hold an adjourned meeting, the common council will meet in regular session, the water board will meet and there will be meetings of the committees on wires and printing. Mayor Farnham will not send the name of his private secretary, Edward Cheney, to the board of aldermen this evening to have his appointment to the office of superintendent of milk and vinegar confirmed. "Will you appoint Mr. Cheney today?" was asked and His Honor replied: "No, not today. The business of the office of inspector of milk and vinegar is being carried on very satisfactorily and I do not see that there is any need of an immediate change."

SIGNED $25,000 ORDER. Mayor Farnham has affixed his signature to the loan order of $25,000 for the paving of Middlesex street to Garret street. Speaking of the order, the mayor said: "I considered it very carefully before affixing my signature. I talked with prominent citizens and business men and they were a unit in declaring that it would be money well spent. I know myself that Middlesex street is in a horrible condition and feel that I was justified in signing the order. It will mean work for a goodly number of men and there are hundreds of men in the city who want work."

PRESIDENT STEVENS RETURNS. Tyler A. Stevens, president of the common council, and to borrow the words of the shortest councilman in the 27th, Mr. Welch, "the best president that the common council has had this year," has returned from Dublin, N. H., where he was a guest at Colony cottage.

HE LOST $15,000 CAMP OF ROVERS

Scranton Hotel Man Taken in by Confidence Men

NEW YORK, July 28.—Frederick Holznagen, proprietor of the St. Charles hotel in Scranton, Penn., and one of the solid business men in that city, has had some remarkable experiences recently which have prompted an investigation by central office detectives and Dist. Atty. Jerome. The information in the hands of the police has placed them on the track of a band of confidence men, with headquarters in this city, who have been operating extensively along entirely new lines.

A popular guest at the Scranton hotel until a few days ago was Charles Weber, who registered as a New Yorker, had the best suite in the house and spent money freely. He claimed to represent one of the largest wholesale houses in the country, and was soon on intimate terms with Landlord Holznagen. The latter told Weber of some valuable timber lands in Tennessee upon which he held an option. Weber replied that he had a friend in New York named Lane who was also interested in Tennessee timber properties and who was organizing a syndicate of capitalists to develop them. Weber volunteered to come to New York with Holznagen and introduce him to Lane.

PASSED AS "GOVERNOR." They met Lane at one of the big hotels here, and after a business-like talk he consented to introduce the Scranton man to his millionaire backers with a view to promoting their interests jointly. "Nearly all the men in our syndicate are off on their yachts or traveling abroad for the summer," said Lane, "but two of them, old man Cudaby and his son, the millionaire packers of Omaha, are on their way east in their private car and should be in Bridgeport, Conn., tomorrow. If you like we'll take a run up there in the morning and lay the matter before them."

The following day, in Bridgeport, Lane introduced Holznagen to his wealthy backers. The elder man was a stout, dignified, full-bearded man, apparently past 60 years of age, while the younger was a tall set-up chap of medium height, who continually addressed the elder as "Governor." The meeting took place in a hotel near the railway station, and while the Tennessee timber proposition was being discussed over an excellent luncheon, it developed that the private car in which the Cudabys traveled had been sent to the shops for repairs, but would be in commission again before the day was over.

FIGHT IN BOSTON. Over the coffee and cigars the old man became confidential. "The fact is," he said, "that the boy and I have come east here for a little sport. We brought along with us a clever little fighter named Sullivan, who has licked everything of his weight west of the Mississippi river, and we're satisfied he can't be beat. "Mr. Lane has kindly consented to make a match for us with a Boston lad and we're going to pull off the fight private in Boston tonight. If you care to see the fun you're welcome to come along."

Holznagen jumped at the chance. He argued that it would help him to a better acquaintance. Lane consented to his plan, aside on having won the old man's confidence so easily. The latter invited them to make the trip on his private car, but Lane said he would have to ahead to make final arrangements and Holznagen decided to go with Lane.

TAKES $5000 WORTH OF BOUT. "I wanted to write you in the beginning," said Lane when they were alone, "but I was afraid the old man wouldn't like it. We're going to have the fight in the private house of one of the biggest bankers in the Back Bay section, and it would play the deuce if the newspapers or the police got onto it. We've got a fighter named Collins that'll put it over the western lad without trying. We've been frapping up this little game for weeks and it's such a surd thing that I've put up $10,000 on it. If you've got a few thousand to put up you can't lose, and a stiff bet would make you solid with the old man."

Through a Bridgeport bank Holznagen drew a draft for $5000 on his Scranton bankers and turned the cash over to Lane to bet for him. At 10 that same evening they took a cab in Boston, and after half an hour's drive pulled up before a mansion in a residence section of the town.

"FIGHT" IN RESIDENCE. There were four men in the room besides the two westerners, and after Holznagen had been introduced to the other three, who were wearing two-ounce gloves, were admitted. One of the strangers was selected as stakeholder and several bets were put up in his hands by the side of which Holznagen's $5000 seemed rather small.

GETS "SOLAR PLEXUS." On the first round Collins had the better of it. He came up fresh and sniffling for the fourth round and sailed in hammer and tongs. The round had been in progress about 30 seconds when the western lad landed a right swing in the Boston boy's ribs which doubled him up like a knife and left him writhing in apparent agony on the floor. There was a count of 10 seconds and Sullivan was declared the winner.

TAKES $10,000 MORE. "There was a lot of talk all around the next day, and the outcome of it was that Lane arranged another match between some lads with odds at 3 to 1 in our favor. I drew another draft for $10,000 on my bankers and put the money in Lane's hands to wager. For some reason the fight was postponed, and when I looked for Lane later I could not find him.

"I tried one whole day to locate the house where the fight was pulled off, but couldn't find it. Holznagen came back to New York and put the matter in the hands of his attorney, John M. Coleman of 115 Broadway, who took him to police headquarters. There he found that the men introduced to him as the Cudabys were impostors. From the rogues' gallery he picked out the picture of old James Morgan, alias "Deafy" Morris, as the man who had played the part of the elder Cudaby, and Frederick Gondoloff as the man who had posed as the millionaire's son. Gondoloff is under arrest and held in $15,000 bail for examination Wednesday. The police are looking for "Deafy" Morris and the rest of the gang, whose respective identities have not been established.

HE LOST $15,000 CAMP OF ROVERS

Ordered From Indian Orchard by Supt. Moffatt

The band of rovers who for the past couple of weeks have been camping near the old First street car barn in Indian Orchard have been notified by Supt. Moffatt of the police department to pack up their wagons and hike for some other city or else some other part of Lowell where they will not be considered obnoxious. Passengers on the electric cars which are operated between this city and Lawrence were the first to have their attention attracted to the new comers. Yesterday morning Supt. Moffatt drove down to the camp and informed the party that they would have to pack up and vamoose before sunset. Early last evening the superintendent thought he would take a ride down to the Orchard to see if his orders had been carried out and was rather surprised to find that instead of hustling to make for some other site the party was engaged in preparing for supper. Inasmuch as the superintendent upon getting into conversation with one of the party found that the band consisted of two families, one Scotch and the other English, also that one of the members was a Mason, he decided to give them a day of grace, but insisted that they leave the place today.

Thomas Morrison, a ward of the state board of charity, was the victim. Young Greenlay admits the shooting, but says it was accidental, and the police and medical examiner do not dispute his claim. He is out on $3000 bail.

When neighbors of the East parish reached the Dresser pasture they found the body of young Morrison, his clothes as from the powder charge and a wound in his right breast made by a full charge of shot. Dr. Wager of Groveland found a fair pulse, but the boy died a moment later. Young Greenlay's story of the shooting is in part corroborated by his father, former Councilman John W. Greenlay of Kenosha street, as well as by Mrs. Hilliard Hale with whom Morrison lived.

The police version of the shooting is that young Morrison went with Greenlay to the pasture in the rear of their home and that the underbrush struck the trigger of the double barreled shot gun, snapping it and causing an explosion of a charge of powder and bird shot, both of which entered the Morrison boy's breast on the right side, while the powder from the powder pan on the weapon was blown into young Greenlay's body, though he is not injured.

The Dresser pasture is in the rear of the Greenlay home. Pigeons and crows have damaged the corn crops about there. Young Greenlay and Morrison went out after them, Greenlay carrying a double barreled gun.

The two boys hid in a clump of bushes waiting for the birds. Greenlay cocked the gun on one barrel. After they had waited some time, Greenlay got up. Morrison was at his side and the gun rested across his arm as he started to make his way from beneath the bushes. He says he warned Morrison for the second time to be careful and step in the rear, but the boy paid no heed and Greenlay, intent on warding off the bushes as he crouched and made his way through them, paid no further attention to him, believing him safe in the rear.

There was an explosion and the gun recoiled against Greenlay's side and as quickly as the smoke cleared away he turned to see what had become of his companion, a crashing sound in the bushes near him indicating that the boy had either dodged back or had fallen.

When Greenlay saw his companion lying on the ground he said: "Tommy, are you dead?" and as there was no answer he ran from the scene to spread the alarm. The first person he met was James Holt, to whom he shouted that he had shot Tommy Morrison. The story soon spread and neighbors hurried to the scene of the shooting.

Medical Examiner Croston, after a talk with young Greenlay, decided that while the case was undoubtedly accidental it was a matter for the court to pass on.

BAD COIN PLANT

Found in House in New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, July 28.—After Mark T. Rounds, the alleged counterfeit arrested at Crescent Park Sunday, made a confession yesterday. Patrick J. Ahern, a secret service man from the Boston office, visited his room at 233 Acushnet avenue, and seized an outfit which he says is the most complete that he has ever located.

Mr. Rounds was employed as an engraver at the Fairport Manufacturing company and came to this city Feb. 6 of this year. During the last six months there have been numerous counterfeit half dollars and quarters in circulation in this city, and they became so numerous that the police issued warrants to citizens.

Mr. Ahern came to this city with the keys to a trunk and closet in Rounds room, and he seized all the metal and paraphernalia that was found there. There was a small gas stove, about 50 pounds of metal used as a base in the batteries, bottles of nitrates and potassium cyanide and crucibles.

There was a half-pound candy box filled with new half dollars and quarters, the halves made from 1906 die, and the quarters from the 1907 die. Rounds had made plaster casts for dies. It is claimed, but none were found among his goods. They were probably cracked and broken in use, and afterward destroyed.

There was also a small bank with the inscription, "Save and you will learn, dimes into dollars turn," in which Rounds is said to have put the good money that he received in exchange for the spurious coin. This was not opened, but it was quite heavy and indicated success in getting rid of the lightweight coin manufactured in the little mint.

FINE PRIZE BULL

Injured in Encounter With Balloon

PROVIDENCE, July 28.—The prize bull owned by Dr. James E. Sullivan, ex-health officer of Fall River, Mass., and now a Providence millionaire, was yesterday by a shore resort balloon yesterday. The bull had his nose ring yanked out by the balloon, which escaped soon after it landed on the animal's back. The balloon was considerably torn in the encounter, which was a fierce one. The rigging of the airship became entangled in the bull's nose ring when he made a bolt from it, and the ten-acre pasture was none too large for the beast and the balloon when they were at it good and fast.

Dr. Sullivan said after the accident the bull had been damaged $50 worth, while the aeronaut said his loss to the gas bag was surely $75.

Witnesses to the encounter declare the bull went high on his hind legs with the balloon pulling him skyward before the ring was pulled free from his nose. The queer combat occurred on the East Providence farm of Dr. Sullivan.

WALTER IS DEAD

Was Victim of Insane Father's Deed

Little Walter Brake is dead, the shot fired at him by his insane father at their home on the country road in Dunstable, Sunday, proved fatal and poor Walter passed away about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He had been resting fairly comfortable up to 4 o'clock yesterday morning when Dr. Varney received a hurried call, the boy's condition having taken a serious turn. Dr. Varney did not hold out any hope for the lad's recovery and he continued to sink until the end came in the early afternoon hour.

The revolver used by Eliza Brake was of 32-calibre and the bullet that the insane man sent coursing through his brain was not the last one in the revolver as was stated in a published story of the shooting. There were two bullets left after he fired the shot that despatched himself. The revolver was taken in charge by Constable Vinal of Chelmsford and is now in his possession.

PRES. FALLIERES HAD TRACHOMA

Met the Emperor of Russia Yesterday

REVAL, July 28.—The harbor of Reval was bathed in sunshine for the meeting between Emperor Nicholas of Russia and President Fallieres of France, which occurred yesterday afternoon. M. Fallieres arrived here at three p. m., on the French battleship Verite, which was escorted by the armored cruiser Dupetit Thouars and the gunboat Cassini, and found awaiting him the principal part of Russia's fighting fleet drawn drawn up in two lines. The French squadron took up an assigned position between the two rows.

As the French ships swung into place a series of salutes was fired. The strains of the Marseillaise, so long interdicted in Russia on account of its revolutionary connection, were heard on the quarter deck of the imperial yacht Standart and the Russian warship.

The emperor immediately sent Admiral Dikoff, minister of marine, to welcome President Fallieres and after a short interval the French president, accompanied by his suite, on a gorgeous stand barge, proceeded to the Standart to make the acquaintance of the Russian ruler. Emperor Nicholas met him at the gangway and greeted him with great cordiality. President Fallieres was then presented to the Empress of Russia, whose hand he kissed, after which the imperial children and the members of the Russian suite were presented to President Fallieres.

The emperor later returned the president's visit on board the Verite and spent an hour there. An interchange of visits lasted throughout the entire afternoon and they furnished the occasion for long informal conversations between M. Fallieres and Emperor Nicholas.

A gala dinner was served last night on board the imperial yacht Standart. During the dinner, the French and Russian ships were brilliantly illuminated.

The emperor in toasting President Fallieres extended to him a warm welcome to Russia. He expressed the conviction that the president's visit would result in still further strengthening the bonds of friendship, and uniting the two countries with a view to co-operation in maintaining and consolidating the world's peace.

M. Fallieres, after cordially thanking the emperor for the welcome, said he was happy to affirm the sentiments of constant and faithful friendship which united the two people and which would be continued and consolidated by the present meeting, not only guaranteeing the common interests of France and Russia, but also the European balance and the maintenance of peace.

THE GOVERNMENT

Frustrated Plot for an Uprising in Portugal

LISBON, July 28.—The government, according to the newspapers, has discovered and frustrated a widespread republican plot for an uprising scheduled for today, the anniversary of the abortive revolt of July 28 which was suppressed by ex-Premier Franco.

This announcement follows a large number of mysterious arrests made during the past few weeks.

Senhor Magro, the chief of police, says that many men are implicated, including officers of the army.

The colonels of all the regiments located in the capital were summoned before the minister of war and informed that they would be held responsible for the loyalty of their men. Ball cartridges have been served out to the members of the municipal guard.

MINISTER DEREUS

To Report on the Situation in Venezuela

THE HAGUE, July 28.—The talk of a bombardment by Holland of any Venezuelan port or ports or even a naval demonstration in Venezuelan waters as a result of the difficulties between the Netherlands and the government of President Castro was today characterized in official circles as premature. The rupture, it was explained, was up to the present time diplomatic only.

The foreign officers have instructed Minister Dereus, who was expelled from Venezuela by President Castro, to come here immediately and report fully on the existing situation.

WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, July 28.—M. Dereus, the former minister of the Netherlands to Venezuela, said today that the interests of Holland had been confined to the German legation.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Shown by Delegates to Independence League Convention

CHICAGO, July 28.—The independence party which last night launched itself fully into American politics by opening its first national convention, was early today busily engaged in the construction of its initial platform and in the selection of its first presidential candidate.

The enthusiasm shown by the delegates last night was taken by the leaders of the party as a happy omen of the future of the organization. The resolutions committee which organized last night immediately after the convention by the selection of Howard S. Taylor of Chicago as chairman, continued work far into the night and was hard at it at an early hour today. The sentiment seems to be in favor of a more radical utterance on the question of injunctions than was made by either the democrats or republican parties.

A declaration in favor of prohibiting injunctions until after a full trial by law has found the greatest number of advocates.

The Californians are pressing for a forcible declaration against Asiatic immigration and a strong plank is looked for. The financial plank probably will favor the issuance of all money direct by the government instead of through national banks.

Although Mr. Hearst has repeatedly declared that he will not be a candidate for the presidency there is a strong sentiment among the delegates for him.

The Empire state will present the name of Judge Reuben R. Lyon. Mr. Higson of Massachusetts up to the time the convention met was considered to have a fairly strong lead in the race, but Mr. Hearst's speech so strongly to the front that Mr. Higson was to all appearances somewhat obscured. He and his friends, however, were today supremely confident that he will be the nominee.

John Temple Graves declares that nothing but a stampede for Mr. Hearst will prevent his nomination. It was announced early today that the committee on resolutions would be prepared to present its report to the convention at two o'clock. The reports of the various committees and the consideration of the platform will probably occupy the greater part of the day and no nominations are likely before the night session.

SKIRMISH RUN

A Feature in Today's Shooting Tournament

WAKEFIELD, July 28.—Conditions for the second days' shooting in the New England Military Rifle association's 4th annual tournament were not so good as were those of yesterday, when the state teams went out for the skirmish run at 6 a. m. At the conclusion of the skirmish run which lasted for two hours the company teams from the several states went to the targets at the 200 yard stage and later retired to the 500 yard mark in the competition for the trophy and medals offered by the First Corps of Cadets of the M. V. M. In this event the teams consisted of five men each. All members of the organized militia of New England were eligible to the rifle match which was shot at 1000 yards and to the Essex county match which was shot at from the 200 yards distances with rapid fire.

SEARCH IS BEGUN

For Mysterious Men in Drew Case

TROY, N. Y., July 28.—Thorough search is being made in Rensselaer county by District Attorney O'Brien's entire detective force in an effort to find some trace of the two mysterious men described at the coroner's inquest in the Hazel Drew murder case yesterday by William Huxley and his wife. Mr. O'Brien said that while the incident had been brought to his notice before, he was now determined to run down this case as it was the only particle of evidence heard so far that might indicate how Hazel Drew came to her death in Teal pond. William Huxley described with much detail the carriage, horse and the appearance of the two men and his description was borne out by his wife.

GIVING OUT

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Lowell

Around all day with an aching back; Can't rest at night; Enough to make any one "give out." Doan's Kidney Pills will give renewed life. They will cure the backache; Cure every kidney ill. Here is Lowell proof that this is so: Miss Mary Enright, of 25 Thorndike st., Lowell, Mass., says: "In the spring of 1883 I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills after procuring them at Ellingwood & Co's drug store. My brother at that time was having considerable trouble from backache and kidney complaint, as I understand most all who follow his occupation as a painter, have more or less trouble from those organs. This remedy was just what he needed and the backache was quickly ended and the kidneys restored to a good healthy condition. I have heard him speak of Doan's Kidney Pills many times during the past seven years, and he always speaks of them in the highest terms of praise."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Albion Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Next Saturday, Aug. 1, 1908, at 2.30 P. M.

SEVEN ROOM COTTAGE AND ABOUT 1712 SQUARE FEET OF LAND AT 15 ASBOTT STREET.

As we are about to move from the city, we have placed our home and furniture with Auctioneer Keyes to be disposed of on the premises, regardless of any condition of the weather. The house consists of seven rooms, There is a large parlor, dining room, kitchen and chamber on the first floor and three good chambers on the second floor. There is also a summer kitchen with door leading direct from the house. The house is very conveniently laid out with plenty of closet room, although it is a small house, four sleeping rooms accommodate a good sized family. There is one cherry tree and a number of small shrubberies. It is in an excellent location, as it is very convenient to a number of large industries in this end of the city. We have been offered $14 a month to rent it, but as we are going away we have made up our minds to dispose of it at auction. Now then, this should interest the speculator, or more so the man who is looking for a cozy little home for his family. Stop paying rent. It is cheaper to own your own home. Terms: $200 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER SELLING THE HOUSE

I shall offer for sale the household furniture, which consists of kitchen range, parlor stove, carpet, odd rockers and chairs, dining room table and chairs, pictures, mirrors and so forth. Premises and furniture can be seen from 2 to 4 Thursday and Friday or at any time before the sale, by calling on the auctioneer.

By Order of JOHN and ANASTASIA O'BRIEN.

Arrested by the Boston Police

BOSTON, July 28.—Four more suspects were taken by the police last night in the effort to round up the gang of yegmen, who terrorized the Jamaica Plain district last week by shooting up a saloon and fighting a desperate pistol battle with the police in their efforts to get away. The raid last night was made on a Lettish boarding house at 27 Valentine street, to give some information of Gutman,

In the Roxbury district, and after an examination one of the suspects was released and the others, two women and a man, were held. The man held was Charles Schwarz, aged 24 years, who has been in other ways bears out the description of one of the missing bandits. Of the women, one is Anna Broomberg, aged 30 years, who is believed to have some resemblance to Leontine Mauren, the woman to whom Edmund Gutman wrote, surrounded in a case in Forest Hills cemetery, just before his death by a pistol bullet. TWO RETREATS

BOLD ATTACK

By a Ruffian Upon Young Woman in Dracut

The Police Are in Search of Him — Young Woman in a Very Nervous Condition From the Fright

Jessie Harrison, aged 19 years and living at 78 East Merrimack street, was assaulted in broad daylight near the Navy Yard in Dracut yesterday afternoon by a young man who has not yet been apprehended by the police. Owing to the girl's condition yesterday afternoon the police were unable to get a very good description of her assailant but immediately after learning of the assault despatched several inspectors to look into the matter and the patrolmen as well were notified. When the girl was found she was hysterical and when brought to the police station the condition of her clothing and hair bore evidence of the fact that she had put up a battle with her assailant.

Her arms and face were scratched and on her throat were marks of the fingers of the coward who attacked her. Her long gloves were torn, her hair disheveled and her clothing torn.

In the absence of City Physician Smith, Dr. William Jones was called in and examined the girl.

She was unable to give more than a meagre account of the attack upon her owing to her nervous condition. According to her story she went into the country yesterday afternoon for a walk.

She had a luncheon with her and after walking through the open fields just beyond the Navy Yard felt tired and sitting down to rest decided to partake of some of the food she had in a box.

She had been sitting down but a few minutes when she felt her arms seized from behind by some person. She cried out, but before she could make a second outcry the man, placed one hand across her throat. It was with difficulty that she could breathe, but she continued to struggle. After a few minutes' struggle and the girl almost unconscious the young man ran away.

The girl then became unconscious and is unable to remember how long she lay in the field, but after a time she recovered and was able to drag herself to the road and summon aid.

The police were immediately notified of the outrage that had been committed and sent for the woman. While at first they were unable to secure a good description of the young man, last night she managed to give a detailed description of her assailant.

At the time of going to press the police had failed to capture her assailant.

of the Clan Douglas, black and green, with thin white stripes. Mr. Thompson preferred a Lowland tartan, because he himself is a Lowlander. The sporrans are of alternate white and black, and the men wear Glengarry caps with a little feather. The brooches which hold the shawls in place on their left shoulders are inlaid with garnet.

But McAliden is the big hit of the band. He isn't a large man but is as straight as an arrow, and well built. When the band is playing, the drum is held high on his chest, while he pounds out a noise that can be heard a mile away. He never loses the time; that is, when he isn't striking the drum he is twirling the sticks about in the air. He works hard and really achieves wonders.

The pipers can play waltzes, reels, marches, jigs and hornpipes and give a varied program. Then two of the members are expert Scotch dancers and will give exhibitions during the week.

The concerts will be given at half-hour intervals during the afternoon and night. The afternoon schedule will be: From 2 to 2.30, 3 to 3.30 and 4.30 to 5, and the night arrangement will be: From 7.30 to 8, 8.30 to 9, and 9.30 to 10.15. The concerts today will be given from the grandstand instead of around the grounds.

The band is headed by Pipe Major Robert Thompson, a fine specimen of Scotchman. Five years ago this summer Mr. Thompson evolved the idea of organizing a pipe band. His three sons and men he knew were brought into the organization. They played independently for a time, finally allying themselves with the 63d Royal Rifles, a Canadian regiment.

Mr. Thompson was born in Jedburgh, Scotland, and is at the present time 35 years of age. Since youth he has been a piper and dancer of Scotch figure. For 12 years, he, with his family, lived in Bury, Lancashire. Then he moved to Halifax, where he is engaged as a contractor and mason at the present time. Robert Thompson, Jr., one of the pipers, is engaged in business with his father. James Thompson is an artist and Duncan is a boilermaker. All three of the sons are pipers in the band. Some of the members are veterans of the Boer and Burmese wars.
